Organ Recital—There was an un-usually large audience in the Taber-nacle vesterday afternoon, in attend-ance on the organ recital, and the interest was such that the rule against applause was forgotten. The per-formance of "Jerusalem the Golden" was of special excellence. There will be no recital Tuesday, on account of its being Pioneer day, but the regular recital is on for the following Friday.

Likes Oil Pavements—City Engineer Kelsey, during his recent visit in Cali-fornia, investigated the oil pavements and roads in that state and was very favorably impressed with them. He will recommend to the city council that seem service out he mode along that some experiments be made along the line of oiled macadamized streets in this city. He says that the cost is much less than asphalt, and that it saves the expense of sprinkling with water every day. water every day,

Powell Machine Co.—Articles of incorporation of the Powell Machine company of this city have been filed in the county clerk's office. Its capital stock is $20,000, divided into shares of the par value of $100 each. W. E. Ware is president; J. J. Powell, vice president; A. O. Treganza, treasurer; L. E. Riter, scretary. The company will manufacture and sell an improved wood-embossing machine patented by J. J. Powell of Logan.

J. J. Powell of Logan. Sharp the Victor—The local United States land office decided yesterday afternoon, in favor of D. J. Sharp in the latter's contest with William Me-K. Thome in the local contest in-volving the right to purchase the southeast quarter, section 7, township 13 south, range 10 east. Mr. Thome alleged prior possession and prior fli-ing, but the land was awarded to Mr. Sharp on the ground that he had complied with the law as to develop-ment, while the other party had not. Ban Over a Child—Officer Schultz

Ran Over a Child-Officer Schultz Ran Over a Child-Officer Schultz yesterday arrested Alvin White, a 16-year-old employe of the Salt Lake Hardware, for violating the bicycle ordinance by riding on the sidewalk, and thereby knocking down and in-juring the 4-year-old daughter of the arresting officer. The little one w28-returning home, after thidding her father goodbye, when the wheelman ran over her. He was selzed by the child's mother and held until Mr. Schultz returned and took him to pe-lice headquarters.
