Returned Missionary. Elder Jacob H. Johnson, of Cleveland, Emery county, returned on the 2nd inst. from a mission to Manitoba and North Dakota. He left for the former place on December 2nd, 1893. In the city of Winnipeg and vicinity he found thousands of converts, his own countrymen. They received him kindly and he reports having done a great deal of preaching among them. Most of them are the best of very hard circumstances. But a little more than half year of labor promises has been raised and money is coming in steadily. The people, however, are not discouraged, being justifying and persevering. Many of them have taken to the law in fishing parties and hope by that means to earn enough to see them safely through the winter. Elder Johnson says that the Manitoba country is a promising field for missionary work.
