SUDDEN DEATH OF DAVID K. FARLEY.

Despondent Over Troubles Takes An Overdose of Morphine.

MRS. AND MRS. SWAN BURIED.

Funeral of Mrs. Eliza C. Larkin—Mrs. Fanny Brown Dead—Grand Opera House Bookings—News Briefs.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 14.—The death of David K. Farley, which occurred at noon yesterday at his home, 1655 Steele avenue, from an overdose of morphine, came as a great shock not only to his wife and family but to his many friends throughout Ogden, where he had resided all his life.

Some weeks ago Mr. Farley was induced to become associated with a "get rich quick" scheme, and was arrested by the federal authorities on the charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes. He was released on bonds, and was to have had his trial sometime in September. The humiliations of his arrest, and the possibility of conviction and imprisonment, worked on his mind, causing insomnia. He worried about his troubles and financial reverses to that extent that he was at no time able to sleep and could not sleep nights without taking some drug to cause sleep. Late last year he had been unable to sleep, and on Saturday evening at the Riverside saloon of which he was proprietor, he took an overdose of the drug, and was sent home in a carriage with two friends. On his arrival home his condition was so serious that his wife telephoned to Drs. Eggen and Hinton, who were retained. On learning the cause of his condition, they immediately administered antitoxins and the stomach pump. A few minutes after the arrival of the physicians, he sank into unconsciousness, from which he never rallied. The funeral services with all him Saturday night and yesterday morning he appeared some better, but relapsed and died at noon yesterday.

Mr. Farley is the son of Wintrop and Lydia Farley, of Ogden city Aug. 18, 1866. He had a very dear wife and family who are now left to grieve over his tragic ending. His wife and eight children, aged mother, and a large number of brothers and sisters are left to mourn his death. Death and place of funeral will not be announced until Mrs. J. H. Will, one of his sisters, who is on a summer outing in Wyoming, is heard from.

DOUBLE FUNERAL.

The double funeral which was held over the mortal remains of Alexander H. Swan and his wife, Elizabeth Swan, were conducted at the home of Walter Hinchey, 2414 Madison avenue, Rev. J. E. Carter officiating. He preached on the resurrection, giving much comfort to the bereaved family. The services were largely attended and there was a wealth of floral tributes. Interment took place in the Mountain View cemetery. Mr. Swan died at the ripe age of 74 years and his wife, Elizabeth, followed him two days later, aged 72 years. They were buried in one grave.

Frank Thatcher has bought out his partners and is now sole owner of the business of Thatcher & Hansen.

The contract has been let for the erection of the mechanical arts building for the Brigham Young college.

Ole Nielsen, the well known builder, was awarded the contract.

The building will cost about $10,000 and will be one of the best equipped buildings of its kind in the state. The college has just completed the laying of a new maple floor in the gymnasium, which makes it one of the best dancing floors in town. It is the intention of President Smith to provide a thoroughly up-to-date orchestra for the grand opening this winter, that the students may have no reason to go elsewhere for their amusements.

Prof. Mosiah Hall has sold his residence to James Smith.

At the Sunday School union meeting held yesterday the principal question discussed in the superintendent's conference was "Teachers' Weekly Meetings."

A discussion, in which the sentiment that such meetings would be of great benefit, but citing the impossibility of having the teachers attend in many words on account of other meetings, resulted in the advice that such meetings be carried out.

A number of rules for janitors were adopted.

Prov. Utah Co., Aug. 14.—The total registration in Provo for the Uintah land opening is 18,858. The registrations in other towns were: Grand Junction, 15,287; Price, 1,556; Vernal, 1,575; total registration, 37,657.

There was no rush in the afternoon of Saturday at Provo except a short time after the arrival of the trains from the north, when a few hundred people arrived. At the time of closing the office at 5 o'clock there was no one waiting to register and it was known that everybody that wanted to register did so.

There was not because there was a lack of opportunity, so far as the office was concerned, Benj. F. Roper, the special officer, who has been on duty at the registration office, was the last one to register.

Yesterday the clerks were resting from their rather hard day, and were not available to do any work on the weekend.

Today they are at work arranging the application in alphabetical order and making the necessary preparations for the drawing. Commissioner Richards spent yesterday in Eureka with Col. Loomis visiting the Grand Central Transportation Company.

Leaving Monday for Salt Lake, who with Commissioner Richards, constitute the commission which will supervise the drawing arriving today. They will select the place for conducting the drawing and arrange preliminaries for that event.

CROWDS WELL PROVIDED FOR.

We are not prepared to state at this time to what extent the dignity of the senate was upheld; but we do know that the comfort and convenience of many hundreds of home-seekers was conserved by the erection of the tented city on the city hall square, notwithstanding the Tribune cartoonist to the contrary. This was especially the case with regard to the men of the west, who, finding on the late trains, who after a short walk from the depot, found those new white tents, furnished with cots and clean bedding awaiting them, for the nominal charge of a quarter of a dollar. After a good rest and partaking of a home-like breakfast close by for the same amount, and looking at the shaded sidewalk, the cost of the morning, left very agreeably supplied with their surroundings. "Why?" exclaimed a well dressed individual to your correspondent as he walked out upon the sidewalk after his morning meal. "This is easy; there's no holding a man up to this." And this is the general impression among the visitors.

The hotels and restaurants would have been utterly inadequate to take care of the big influx of visitors, and those same tents and improvised booths and basement for serving meals have been a blessing to the home seeker.

Of course we have had to install another major during the past two weeks of the registration. L. O. Taft of the White City, and Wm. W. Roylance, mayor of the city at large. This has been carried on with the aid of a great many volunteers.
