New Havins, Conn., April 16.—
It is protable that the manufacture of postal cards at Shelton, Coan, will be abandoned, ow ing to complications, financial and political, and other causes which have arisen. Wilkinson, a Shelton paper manufacturer, slates that he will supply no more cards for Diggett, the postal card contractor, and will prepare no more samples for the postuffice. He states that Daggett were him a large amount of money, and that he (Wilkinson) paid for the caribbard supplied to Daggett from Lawrence, Mass. Wilkinson claims to have expert testimony to show that the carle furnished are better than the samples furnished by the government.
