The Ohio Senator Has but One Set of Principles While His Oppo. nent Has Many.

Columbus, O., Sept. 27.-The reply of Chairman Dick of the Republican state committee to Charles Salem of the Democratic state committee, declining the challenge of John H. Clarke, Democratic nominee for the United States senate, to a joint debate with Senator M. A. Hanna, was given out tonight.

Chairman Dick says in part: "I regret that candor compels me to say that I find some rather serious ob-sections to the conditions of your prore ought to be some separate mutuality in a joint discus-r you have overlooked that fear you have overlooked that f the case. Cornelius Vanderbilt

MILLIONAIRE BROTHERS WHO HAVE BECOME RECONCILED.

After years of estrangement Cornelius and Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt have become reconciled. Their mother is said to have been instrumental in bringing about this result. The trouble began when Cornelius Vanderblit announced to his father that he intended to marry Miss Grace Wilson, daughter of Richard T. Wilson. The latter was considerably the senior of the prospective groom, and the elder Vanderbilt was violently opposed to the match. At the time it was stated that he had threatened to cut off his son in the event of the latter's persisting in his purpose. The young man was determined, and he and his father parted in anger, the rumor being current that the elder man as a result had suffered a stroke of apoplexy. After Mr. Vanderbilt's death it was found that the second son, Alfred, had been left the bulk of the fortune. A settlement was subsequently made which gave to Cornelius a share of the estate equal to that received by each of the other heirs excepting Alfred Gwynne Van-

The statement attacks Samuel Parks and, continuing, says: "Keep that man in and within three months there will be nothing left of No. 2 and the International association will be down and out as far as New York is concerned. "Now we will say that any organization that relies on brute force to main believed that a plan to expedite the business of the convention to an early adjournment is under consideration. NIXON A CANDIDATE.

Would Run as Democratic Nomince for Mayor of New York.

New York, Sept. 27.—Lewis Nixon tonight announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for mayor. In a public statement he said:

the Democratic nomination for mayor. In a public statement he said:

"I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor. This statement is made with a full knowledge of the uncertainties of the Democratic situation. I desire to make it clear that I am willing to make it stand with those Democrats, however small their number, who believe that the Democratic party of this city should lead and not follow in the forward march of municipal reform."

Speaking of the municipal campaign Mr. Nixon says: "The battle will be won or lost on local issues that are old enough to have gained a permanent hold on the public mind. These issues are police 'blackmail' and that mercenary spirit which breeds dishonesty in the public service. To them may be charged all the party's recent loss of local prestige. The Democracy has not been beaten on these issues by Republican votes alone, by any means. It has been beaten chiefly by Democratic votes.

"The Democratic party of the city."

"The Democratic party of the city has all the issues in its favor except these two. It is easily within its power to throw off their dead weight when it to throw on their dead weight when it makes up its mind to do so. Its right to dominancy will be restored as soon as it does. There can be no doubt of the result of any campaign in which the party explicitly and without equivcation commits itself to the reforms or which the city has four times voted n ten years."

Mr. Nixon would say nothing more about his candidacy.

Engineer Brodie, who was a new man on that division, came to the curve at high speed. The locomotive had gone only about 50 feet on the treath when it sprang from the track, carrying with it four mail cars and an express car. The trestle, a wooden structure, also gave way for a space of At the foot of the trestle is a shallow stream with a rocky bottom. Striking this the locomotive and cars were reluced to a mass of twisted iron and All the dead men were mutiliated. No one on any of the cars made an effort to jump, and the bodies of all those killed were found in the wreckage of the different cars in which they had been engaged.

A crowd soon gathered. Some women among them fainted at the sight of the crushed bodies. All the express matter In the express car was destroyed.

The mail bags in all the mail cars were torn open and the letters and packages were scattered, but it is believed none is lost. Fire, which appeared in the wreckage shortly after it occurred, was quickly extinguished.
