PRICE OF GOLD.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 27, 1871.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

A SATURDAY bumper house greeted the "Man of the Ocean" on Saturday morning, and his admirers manifested their appreciation in loud and prolonged applause during the whole time of his playing. The actors and actresses, stage carpenters, property men, and superintendents all gave much credit to the marked success of this very fine piece.

Mr. Margate's vocal roars of laughter as he imitated the father of "The Lost Child," was well supported.

"The Lonely Man" is to be repeated, and numbers will see it again.

John's Judge by "The Lone" is the play in which Mr. Margate appears as John Plump.

PAINTER ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening, Bro. Albert Merrill, a member of the dramatic company, was the victim of a rather painful accident, which happened during the progress of "The Lonely Man of the Ocean." One of the big guns used in the scene fired and the cannon was moved into the wing, and when Bro. Merrill was passing it, in order to make his entrance, it went off, lodging the charge, which was a heavy one, in the back of his right hand.

WILD BILL.—The original "Wild Bill" who ever he may be, was on a "tear" on the street this morning, having imbibed too much whisky. The police attended to his case, and succeeded in lodging him in the city jail.

THE UTAH SILVER MINES furnish a subject for a lecture in the Omaha Herald of last Friday. The writer briefly devotes upon their richness and the large influx, already commencing, of miners, allured either by great expectations, and then continues:

"But with all this, let us not be deceived, for as Utah is in silver ore, the principle will hold good that it will continue to be a dollar to get a dollar of native silver, and the many will lose. All should understand this. Disappointment will crush the hopes of thousands who go to Utah in search of sudden fortunes, and it is our belief that there will be less silver hunters in the Territory in a year from now than there will be in three months from now. But these silver discoveries will lead to permanent and profitable investments of capital which will add largely to the business interests of this interesting country. It will change them to a large extent. Yet the people of Utah will not abandon their occupations as farmers. They will see a prosperity in the best of the silver mines, and as the signs are, no disturbances occur to interrupt the harmonious workings under the new order, we may look with confidence to an unimpeded country from the new departure which Utah is now taking."

NARRATIVE MEETING.—The speaker at the Tabernacle yesterday night was Elder Joseph F. Smith; in the afternoon it was, Elder John Taylor.

THE CONCERT TO-MORROW NIGHT.—Remember Professor George Carleton's Concert in the Theatre to-morrow evening; it will be a musical entertainment hitherto unequalled, with entirely new talent, in the Rocky Mountains. Songs by Mrs. L. Carleton, most sung by Mr. Mark Crockett, comic songs by Mr. W. C. Dunbar and others, "Put my little shoes away," by Miss George (Clawson), and duets, trios, quartets, etc., by the best vocal talent in the city, with a chorus of about two hundred voices. Secure your tickets early for they are going rapidly. Prices as usual.

FOUNTAIN GREEN.—George R. Llewellyn, Esq., of Fountain Green, writes on the 24th instant:

"Bro. Geo. Halliday gave us a French last Wednesday evening, the subject being Christ's Atonement, which was handled by the speaker excellently. He had any amount of scripture to back him up, which was quite a treat to his hearers, and all were very well satisfied with his preaching. We would be very glad to hear Bro. George again. He spoke on the necessity of every family having the Danvers News, &c., &c., night before last."

"We are indeed very glad to fall at this place and still continue."

FEDERAL SERVICES.—The funeral services of Bro. Octave Ursenbach took place at the residence of his family in the 13th Ward this afternoon. Appropriate and consolatory remarks were made to the bereaved family by Elders A. M. Musser, Geo. J. Cannon and Karl G. Maeser.

The rumor of Bro. Ursenbach's demise, which took place on Saturday evening, caused a painful impression on the minds of his friends yesterday, for although many knew that he had been for a considerable period a sufferer from lung disease, his death was unexpected. The deceased was a native of Geneva, Switzerland, and was born in 1822. He obeyed the gospel in 1854 and emigrated to Utah in 1855. He returned to Salt Lake city only a few months since, from a mission to his native land, which he filled with honor and credit to himself. He was a man of culture and refinement, and a worthy citizen, and his death will be lamented most by those who knew him best.

A RICE DRINK.—The following is from the Evening Journal, of last Saturday:

"De Allen is attending on a sick man at the Traveller's Rest. He uses alcohol to wash the sick man's body. A few evenings ago the attendant, after pouring some of the spirits into a wash bowl and sponging the patient with it, squeezed out the sponge and returned the remainder to the bottle, leaving it on the table. In the morning when he looked at the bottle to prepare for another dose, he found that it was empty; some one with a harvest of brass and silver, had gone into the room in the night and drank the washings of the sick man's body. We hope it will do the drinker good he deserves."

THERE will be a meeting of the Parent Society for the Improvement and Cultivation of Stock, Bees, etc., at six o'clock this evening, at the City Hall. Those interested in the Kilder Hive should attend.

"THAT LITTLE CHURCH ROUND THE CORNER"—A great deal has been said and written in the papers about "That little church round the corner," the one to which the reverend Saboteur of New York, referring to read the burial service over the body of the late Mr. Holland, the comedian, simply because he had been an actor, recommended his friends to take him, bids fair to become one of the leading churches of the metropolis. Mr. Holland, the famous advertising shoemaker of New York, offered $5,000 to "make the little church around the corner," the grandest in the city of New York."

"Good cities invariably bring their own reward."

A young lady at Indianapolis was endeavoring to impress upon the minds of her Sunday School "Sunday School," and when she said that for seven years she had been like a cow, who was astonished by a little girl who asked, "Did he give milk?"

A Dubuque wife could not hear any one say this without fainting. Whenever she heard "milk" and "sheep" she fainted.

Enterprising! Economical! Liberal! Safe!

12,537 POLICIES ISSUED AND REVIVED IN 1870.

ISSUING 1,074 POLICIES MORE THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY IN THE WORLD!

Insuring $25,440,000.00, a gain of 50 per cent. over 1869.

32,400 Policies Issued up to December 31st, 1870.

Income for Year 1870, - $2,128,201.16.

This is a progress as remarkable as it is encouraging. It is an axiom laid down by the oldest and most experienced actuaries, that the more NEW POLICIES that are issued to replace death claims, the more stability is insured, and the larger the NEW BUSINESS of a company, the more favorable is its relative position with that of others.

Paid in Death Claims and Annuities in the year 1870, $316,000.00.

Which is a large sum, and yet a very low average of loss.

Paid to our Policy-holders in Dividends and for purchased policies, in the year 1870, the large sum of $453,694.00.

And have in hand for next dividend more than half a million of earned surplus, after deducting re-insurance fund, capital stock, and all other liabilities.

No other Company surpasses the CONTINENTAL in ability to pay large Dividends to its members.

NET ASSETS, Dec. 31, 1870, - $4,505,235.29.

This company is purely National in its operations, dividing its entire surplus among its policy-holders annually on the Contribution Plan; and claims a larger business, and a lower ratio of expense to income than has ever been attained by any other company at a corresponding period in its history; only one other New York Company showing as low a rate of expense to income. No Extra Premiums for travel or foreign residence. No Extra Premium for women. Thirty days grace on the payment of premiums. All Policies non-forfeitable, according to the expressed terms contained in each policy. Policy-holders have a voice in the elections and management of the company. Policies incontestable for the customary reasons.
