EASTERN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 29.—The President to-day appointed Frank D. Hectrick, supt. of the mint at Carson City.

The President to-day respited Tom Wright until Friday, 6th of June, when he will be hanged for the murder of Rogerski.

The President was to-day informed by Ex-Gov. Jewell, of his acceptance of the appointment of minister to Russia.

WESTCHESTER, Pa.—John Hickman, Ex-member of Congress, is dangerously ill, with but little hopes of recovery.

BOSTON, 29.—The Massachusetts House has passed the bill which appropriates two hundred thousand dollars for the completion of the Hoosac Tunnel, and requests the Gov. and council to report the most favorable use of the tunnel to the next general court.

At the Labor Reformers' Convention, to-day, it was voted that a convention of the labor reform party be held at Worcester, August 3d, 1873, to nominate a State ticket of candidates for the senate of Massachusetts from different districts. Prest. Jones made a few remarks characterizing the two parties at present in the country as the party of the past and the party of spoils. The convention was thinly attended.

CONCORD, N. H., 29.—An elaborate opinion, signed by all the judges of the Supreme Court, was to-day sent to Gov. Straw, to the effect that when the town clerk's record of the return of votes for representatives to Congress, according to the moderator's count and the declaration of the Governor and council, they are not authorized to require the clerk to amend his record and correct the error in court. This opinion will elect Austin F. Pike to Congress from the 2d district.

HARTFORD, 29.—In the lower house of the legislature the constitutional amendment providing for a capital, and that to be Hartford, passed by 176 to 52. The amendment now goes to the people for endorsement.

NEW YORK, 29.—Bail in the case of Stephen English, Editor of the Insurance Times, has been reduced from $30,000 to $2,000.

The sheriff's jury decided George Francis Train sane, and he will be released from custody to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, 29.—The post office department to-day suspended the printing of the postal cards because the card board submitted was not equal to the contract requirements.

In the National Agricultural Congress to-day, the committee on miscellaneous business, reported the following resolutions, which were rejected by a large majority:

"Resolved, first, that all efforts on the part of organizations and classes to increase or decrease the value of labor or the produce of labor are judicial in their influence and against the interests of the farmers; second, that the eight-hour law passed by Congress and now applied to labor performed for the government, is unwise, unjust, and a disturbing element in the management of the business of the whole country, and ought to be repealed."

The committee on transportation made a lengthy report, which, after considerable discussion, was referred back to the committee to be modified and reported again to-morrow.

NEW YORK.—Reports from all the principal cities and towns in the middle and eastern States report that Decoration Day was generally observed, business being suspended and civic societies, school children, and citizens joined with the grand army in strewing flowers on the soldiers' graves in various cemeteries.
