

A VERY BITTER DEBATE IN SENATE

It Was Called Forth by the Philippine Question.

TILLMAN AND SPOONER TILT

At Times Matters Looked Serious, Speakers in Galleries Watching With Breathless Interest.

Washington, Jan. 28.—A Philippine debate was central in the Senate chamber today for nearly three hours, but was void of definite results. At times it looked very serious, and the spectators who thronged the galleries watched it with breathless interest. Antagonism in Senate debates is not infrequent, but it has been years since there has been such a hurricane of bitter invective, of personal taunt, of angry charges and of unmodified criticism as was witnessed today.

MUCH BITTERNESS DISPLAYED.

Not since the discussion of the resolution leading up to the Spanish-American war has any scene occurred in the Senate chamber comparable with today's. Even that debate lacked the personal interest manifested at times today. Irritation was aroused on both sides of the chamber and once or twice personal encounters between senators seemed imminent.

One of the sharpest colloquies of the session was at the seat in the center of the Republican side to the main aisle of the Senate, and while the two senators, Tillman and Spooner, were engaged in a heated discussion, the other senators looked on with interest.

Senator Tillman, who is a native of South Carolina, was the first to speak. He said that he had been made a member of the Senate in 1876, and that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years. He said that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years, and that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years.

Senator Spooner, who is a native of Massachusetts, was the first to speak. He said that he had been made a member of the Senate in 1876, and that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years. He said that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years, and that he had been a member of the Senate for 26 years.

WOMEN OF ALL CLASSES Find Pe-ru-na indispensable to Guard Against Colds, Coughs and Chronic Catarrh.

Mrs. G. W. Miller, 80 N. First street, Minneapolis, Minn., writes:

"Peruna is a blessing to women. There is no greater strain on the nerves of a woman than the never ending cares of a household. When things go wrong, dinner is burned and children cry, it is not so easy to look pleasant, but when sickness in the family adds to the burden it becomes very heavy. I have found Peruna my very best friend under these difficulties. When my children were sick it cured them and when I became over-taxed and weary Peruna restored me, and if anyone in my household caught cold a few doses of Peruna administered at once prevented unpleasant results. If every wife and mother would have a bottle of Peruna in her medicine chest, life's burdens would be much easier to carry."—Mrs. G.W. Miller.

The club woman and the housewife join in praising Peruna. The reason for this is because both these classes are alike subject to catarrh and catarrhal diseases.

Catarrh is everywhere. No class of people are exempt from its insidious ravages. It enters the palace and hovel with equal facility. It attacks men and women with like force and frequency. Strong men and fair women are among its victims.

Thus it is we find Peruna, the catarrh remedy, everywhere. The upper classes use it; the lower classes cannot do without it, and the middle classes praise it.

At this time of the year, when winter begins to approach with its chill blasts and biting frosts, everyone should be as alert as possible to escape what seems to be almost inevitable in this climate, catarrh.

The number of people who have catarrh of some form or other every winter, is millions.

Now is the time to get Peruna. It should be taken as soon as the slightest symptom of catching cold manifests itself.

Many people do not seem to understand that a cold is acute catarrh; that catching cold is simply catching catarrh. An old cold is chronic catarrh. Catarrh is liable to settle anywhere in the system. While it is true that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located, yet it is advisable for everyone to use Peruna as a preventive, and not wait until catarrh has fastened itself in some part of the system.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

"For the past four years the members of our West Side Club have used little medicine except Peruna. It is our cure for the many different complications resulting from colds, whether it is a severe cough, catarrh, influenza or la grippe. We find it is very superior as a tonic and an appetizer, and a good cure for indigestion, and a true friend to women. Personally I endorse it, knowing it to be deserving the confidence of suffering humanity."—MISS EMILY MILBURN.

CUBANS APPEAL TO SECY. ROOT.

Implore His Aid to Secure Tariff Concessions.

ISLAND'S CONDITION IS BAD.

Members of Supreme Court Say It Is Disastrous Future of Cuba Lies in Congress's Hands.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The secretary of war continues to receive cable messages from native officials, planters and merchants of Cuba appealing to him to use his best endeavors to secure tariff concessions on Cuban sugar and tobacco. Messages have been received from the mayors of the principal cities of Cuba, from the members of the supreme court, from judges in Havana and from leading planters. Chief Justice Cruz Perez of the supreme court of Cuba, cables: "The members of the supreme court desire to state that the economic condition of Cuba is disastrous. It is imminent unless there is a reduction on sugar and tobacco. The general trend of all the appeals is that tariff concessions are a question of life or death to Cuba, and that failure to grant them means ruin, misery and bankruptcy for the island. Copies of these messages have been sent to the House ways and means committee."

Two Murderers Hanged.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 28.—Weston M. Keiper and Henry Rowe were hanged at 10:40 o'clock today in the Harrisburg jail yard in the presence of 10,000 persons for the murder of Charles W. Ryan. The bodies of the two men were lowered without a shudder and neither made any statement on the gallows.

The crash for admission to the jail was so great that it required the combined efforts of the police court and the sheriff's deputies to keep the crowd away from the entrance. Several of the jurors were forced to fight their way through the crowd into the prison. The house tops and telegraph poles in the vicinity were crowded with people eager to witness the execution. Two men with a camera secured admittance to the jail for the purpose of securing a snap shot of the hanging but the warden detected them and took the camera away from them until after the execution.

Rowe and Keiper for several years worked in and about the mines at Lykens, Pa. During the morning of March 13 last they visited the Halifax National bank at Harrisburg, this city, and with drawn revolvers, demanded of Cashier Charles W. Ryan the cash in the vault. They quickly gathered into a satchel a loose money in the cash drawer amounting to about $500. While one of them was fastening the lid of the satchel he laid his revolver on the cashier's desk.

Rowe and Keiper were captured by citizens. Within two weeks they were tried and convicted of first degree murder. Frank R. Sholey, an accomplice, pleaded guilty as an accomplice and was sentenced to ten years in prison.

Ex-Secy. Gage's New Position.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Close personal friends of Lyman J. Gage, says the Record-Herald, make the statement that he will accept the presidency of the Chicago Title and Trust company. Officers of the company have not been notified of his acceptance as yet, but some of them express confidence that he will decide to take the position. Mr. Gage will leave the treasury department February 1, turning the office over on that day to Gov. Shaw. It is probable that he will take a rest of a few weeks before accepting any position. That will give him time to look over the ground in New York, where trust company positions have been offered to him, but many of his closest friends state positively that he will pass by the opportunities in other cities to get back to Chicago.

Paying Colonial Troops.

London, Jan. 28.—There has been no dispute between the colonies and the war office in regard to the payment of colonial troops, Canada, Australia and New Zealand have been offered the same in behalf of the war office, and in making up the bills some of the business like Australian premiers added 3 per cent commission. The war office referred the matter to the colonial office. The question was raised by Wm. H. K. Redmond, "rich nationalist" in the house of commons, and the war secretary, Mr. Balfour, replied that such a commission was customary for local expenditures in behalf of the imperial government and that it would be allowed in the case of the colonies.

Was Czolgosz Insane?

Boston, Jan. 28.—"Was Czolgosz Insane?" was the title of a paper read by Dr. Walter Channing, chief of a sanitarium here before the Norfolk district medical society in Brookline. The answer he gave was couched in these words: "After weighing all the evidence from all sources that has come to my attention I am inclined to the conclusion that it furnishes more grounds for the diagnosis of insanity than for the diagnosis of sanity."

Gov. Hunt Wants an Expert.

San Juan, P. R., Jan. 28.—Gov. Hunt has ordered the treasury department at Washington asking that an expert be sent here to settle the counterfeit question at Ponce, where $2,600 in bogus silver was recently seized. Business there is practically suspended. The merchants of Ponce are refusing to accept any silver coins of the date of 1898, 1899, 1900 and 1901. The counterfeit dollars are poorly executed, but the alleged apurposely imitates and quarters defy detection. They are apparently of the full weight. The bank officers have examined sam-
