Prof. Andree and the North Pole. Tuesday, Utah, July 19, 1907.

To the Editor:

Whatever the world may think of the northwardness of the arctic, Professor Andree's attempt to reach the North Pole by sled of his balloon is one of the most daring feats of the century. The probability is that we may never hear from him again. While the projectors waited for success, it must have been in his mind that the world would be the first to hear of his death. The probability is that we may never hear from him again. While the projectors waited for success, it must have been in his mind that the world would be the first to hear of his death.
