

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

Special Correspondence.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Last Tuesday evening at mission headquarters, 35 west One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street the elders and their friends met to organize the Mutual Improvement association for the winter. President Ben E. Rich and President Allen of the Brooklyn conference being present. They appointed Elder Nephi Cottam as president of the society; Miss Anna Lyman, first counselor; Mr. A. M. Durham, second counselor and Miss Inez Powell as secretary.

It was decided to hold the meetings every Tuesday evening at the mission house, as that evening is best suited to the students who are here in numbers this winter. At the first preliminary meeting held two weeks ago, on invitation of President Rich, John W. Young spoke to the young people on the early settlement of Salt Lake valley, the grasshopper war and the year of famine being the special subjects; he was listened to with great interest.

There is great enthusiasm over the work among the elders and young people for the coming winter, and a large attendance is looked for.

President Rich has again started on his conference traveling and will not return before Nov. 20.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kirkham at their home on west One Hundred and Twenty-third street, entertained a number of their Utah friends in the most cordial and delightful manner, about 15 being present. Music and some original games occupied the evening until the hour for such diversion closed, after which Mrs. Kirkham served a delicious supper. Everyone present was added to the pleasant of their New York remembrance.

Two young Utahs were among the guests at Mr. Kirkham's, who are not often seen by their western friends. Mr. Joseph Scoville, of Ogden, and E. F. Ritter of Logan. Mr. Scoville is living very quietly on west One Hundred and Twenty-first street, Washington Heights, hard at work on composition; as a song writer he is successful, devoting time to the text work as well and preparing for greater things in the near future. Mr. Scoville has received a fine musical education in Germany and laid the foundation for advanced work knowledge along that line. Mr. Ritter is in his second graduate year at the Columbia law school and making the best of his time while here; he and Mr. Scoville are two more added to the Utah list of clever students in the metropolis.

Last Tuesday evening at the studio of his teacher, Prof. W. Nelson Burritt, Mr. Kirkham was the soloist. These popular recitals are given often, and are most enjoyable, being patronized by educated musicians and lovers of the classic in vocal music.

The coming week will see the departure of Mr. John Pett, for his home in Council Bluffs. Mr. Pett is the uncle of Mrs. Stuart M. Kohn, of Douglass, L. I., where he has been visiting for over two months. Mr. Pett's health has not been of the best the last month, and it was decided that Mr. Kohn would take him home as soon as he felt well enough to make the journey. Mr. and Mrs. Kohn will board with friends in the city during the holidays, but will retain their home in the country.

Seventeen elders made their way to Gotham one day last week, only two of them remaining in the Brooklyn conference: Elias E. Higgenbotham and Chas. N. Owen. Elders D. L. McBride, W. W. Farver, E. Kohler, D. M. Layton, C. Duffin, W. F. Butterfield, D. D. McEwen, J. V. Facer, W. J. Hatt, A. L. Loubwick, M. A. Thomas, A. Jones, J. B. McQueen, J. Miller, O. D. Harris, will all labor in the Eastern States mission.

Sunday, Nov. 15, at the rooms of the Brooklyn Philosophical association, Bedford and Third streets, South Eighth street, Preston D. Richards will, on invitation, speak on the "Message of Mormonism." He will be assisted in a musical way by R. C. Easton, who will sing, "O My Father," and other selections. Mr. A. M. Durham acting as accompanist. This society is an equivalent to the New York "Sunrise club," in which former President J. G. McQuarrie often took part; he is very pleasantly remembered by the club. Subjects are freely discussed by all members at the close of the speech and it is thought Mr. Richards will have to put on double armor to withstand the attack of firing he will meet in the way of questioning. The society is composed of thinking men and women, well up on vital questions of the day, religiously, politically and intellectually. Mr. Richards' friends are confident he will show himself capable of maintaining the side he has chosen to advocate.

At chapel services today, Mr. Robert Patrick of Z. C. M. I. was a visitor. His brother, W. G. Patrick, representing Scoville Bros. of Ogden, was also present, both here in the interest of their firms.

The illness of Mrs. T. West, mother of Mrs. A. C. Boyle, has occasioned much anxiety on the part of her family and friends here, but today there has been a decided change for the better, and everyone is rejoicing with her daughter and son in the good news. Mr. and Mrs. Boyle are living at the Washington on West One Hundred and Twenty-third street.

The election has come and gone, and once again the tin whistle and feather duster are laid aside, and the small boy is looking forward to Thanksgiving, which day is all his own, to bringing them into use again. The entire Utah contingent made their way to the region of Times Square and Herald Square to see the fun of an election night. All were well repaid for the venture, as a presidential election is a sight not to be missed in New York.

PROF. MARK HARRINGTON.

After Years of Search Found in An Asylum a Hopeless Lunatic.

New York, Nov. 13.—A search lasting the greater part of 10 years and extending from one end of the country to the other, ended a few days ago when Prof. Mark W. Harrington, once chief of the United States weather bureau, and one of the best known scientific men in America, was found, a hopeless lunatic, in the New Jersey asylum for the insane at Morris Plains. Until last Monday Prof. Harrington was registered as "John Doe Number Eight." Picked up in a park in Trenton 18 months ago, unable to give his name, and with no papers on his person to disclose his identity, Prof. Harrington was sent to Morris Plains. There he might have remained for the rest of his life had not his son, Raymond Harrington, grown to manhood since his father's disappearance, this now traveling through the west collecting curios for Columbia university, read in a western paper three weeks ago a description of a mysterious patient in the Morris Plains asylum.

Cultivating Slimness

Fat women must take this injunction to heart if they want to be in style for the new modes will not drape over a fat figure.
The fat has got to come off quickly but without harm, of course, and this means only one thing can be depended upon. Exercising or dieting are too slow. The fat woman who wants to wear a form-fitting gown must make an immediate trip to her druggists and get a case of the famous Marmola Tablets, which will cost her about 75 cents.
Taking one of these after each meal and at bedtime should be enough to bring her to the desired slim figure. It is hardly believable that such demerol results can be obtained without harm and for such a small sum of money, but then, fact is, stranger than fiction.
Test the effect of these tablets by getting a case yourself, either from the Marmola Company, Detroit, Mich., or from any druggist. They are made in exact accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription and, consequently, can not have any ill effects.

COLUMBIA STUDENTS.

Petition Pres. Butler for "Just One Game" of Football.

New York, Nov. 13.—Students of Columbia university who have never become fully reconciled to the abolishment of football at that institution, have been unable to stand the strain of the present season any longer. They have broken forth with an appeal to President Butler for "just one game" this fall. To strengthen their appeal the students point out that a deficit was incurred by the varsity crew last year and that with the receipts from a football game this could be wiped out. Sixty undergraduates who have played in interclass games have affixed their signatures to the following appeal:

"We, the undersigned, all having played in interclass football games held this fall do hereby petition to be allowed to play one football game with a small college, which may be decided on later.

"We petition this, first because we of our own accord wish to play, and second because we believe the receipts of the proposed game, when played, will materially assist the rowing club to pay off their present indebtedness."
The varsity eleven which play in the first intercollegiate football game at Morningside Heights in three years, if the game is played, has been selected from the 60 men signing the petition as well as a scrub team.

DR. THOMPSON'S FUNERAL.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—The most impressive funeral service which has been held in Evanston since the burial of John McCaleb, took place yesterday in the First Methodist church over the body of Dr. D. D. Thompson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, who died in St. Louis, on Tuesday, from injuries received when he was run down by an automobile.

Those who made addresses at the church include Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, a fellow alumnus with Dr. Thompson of Ohio Wesleyan college; Bishop William Prudden, D.D., of the Chicago district, and another Ohio Wesleyan man, Bishop Joseph F. Berry of Buffalo, N. Y., and Rev. A. J. Nast, of Cincinnati, editor of the Christian Apologist.
