DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VI. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 19, 1873. NO. 254.

BY TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE "DESERET NEWS," PER DESERET AND ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TELEGRAPH LINES.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Decline in Stocks.

NEW YORK, 18.—There is a general decline of stock, of from one to ten per cent., under the rush to sell, and great excitement continues. The Western Union fell from 93¼ to 78½, N. Y. C. from 99½ to 87½, Wabash from 56¼ to 51¾, N. Y. from 53 to 49¾, N. W. Pref. from 78 to 74½, Rock Island from 102 to 99, Pac. Mail from 42½ to 37.

The Cause of the Suspension.

Jay Cooke & Co., make the following statement: "The immediate cause of the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., was a large drawing upon them by their own depositors during the last fortnight." Both houses suffered a large drain on their deposits in consequence of the uneasy feeling recently credited, which affected more or less all houses closely identified with new railroad enterprises. The Philadelphia house had previously been weakened by large cash advances to the Northern Pacific R. R. Co., of which they are the financial agents. The business of Jay Cooke, McCullough & Co., of London, is entirely disencumbered. That house is perfectly solvent, so that it will meet its outstanding drafts and letters of credit without inconvenience to travelers, and have a large cash surplus, to apply to an American house. The firm of Jay Cooke & Co., and its members have a large amount of real and personal property, upon which, however, they cannot immediately realize, but they are confident that their depositors will be paid in full."

More Suspensions.

Richard Schell and Robinson & Suydam have suspended.

A Philadelphia despatch says that E. W. Clark & Co., have suspended.

The Loss by the Fire.

CHICAGO, 18.—It is now ascertained that the first reports of the losses by last night's fire were exagerated. From official sources the amount is now fixed at $125,000, insured $62,700. Six dwellings were destroyed, besides a large packing house and a plow factory, the two latter being insured for $30,000.

Another Fire.

Another fire here, to-night, consumed the extensive school furniture factory of Sherwood & Co., at the corner of Jefferson and Washington Streets; loss about $20,000.

Suspension.

WASHINGTON, 18.—The banking house of Jay Cooke & Co., of this city, was closed shortly after noon to-day, and a notice was posted that in consequence of the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., in New York and Philadelphia, the doors would remain closed for the present. There is much excitement, and a large crowd is in front of the banking house. The First National Bank, which suspended, also occupied the same building.

Appropriation Wanted for the St. Phillip's Canal.

The congressmen in the Mississippi and Missouri river valleys have, it is understood, been very generally urged to unite their efforts to secure an appropriation for the St. Phillip's canal, at the outlet of the Mississippi river. It is estimated that twelve million dollars will be necessary to make a ship canal which will enable ocean vessels to reach New Orleans without being obstructed by the bars. It is claimed that with the completion of this canal ocean going ships during four months of the year can proceed as far north as Cairo, Ills. Some of the western members state that the people of the Mississippi valley seek a solution of the transportation question mainly in that direction.

Suspension of Jay Cooke & Co.

PHILADELPHIA, 18.—Jay Cooke & Co., promise a statement this p. m. They say their suspension was as great a surprise to them as to the public.

Railroad Accident.

PITTSBURG, 18.—The southern express, going west on the Pennsylvania railroad, on which the President was a passenger, met with an accident yesterday, a mile east of Tyrone. The Cincinnati express ran into the rear end of the train, doing considerable damage to a sleeping coach, and smashing the engine of the Cincinnati express. The engineer and fireman were severely injured, but the passengers escaped with a few slight bruises, except one lady, who had her hand crushed.

WESTERN.

Missing—Jumped Overboard.

SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—Henry Mc-Cue, of San Rafael, a real estate speculator, has been missing since last Saturday. He had about $3,000 with him, with which he was to pay a note. At the room in the Lick House, where he slept on Friday night, was found a note, not directed, making an appointment with some unknown person for a meeting that evening, in order to settle some outside land matters.

On the passage of the Alaska from Panama, J. E. Hart, a passenger, jumped overboard and was drowned. The cause for the act was unknown.

Chilian Independence—A Libel Suit.

A salute of sixty-three guns was fired at six o'clock this morning at the market street wharf, to signal the commemoration of the independence of Chili. A similar salute was fired at noon, and another salute was fired at sunset.

Goodall, Nelson & Perkins have brought a suit against the publishers of the Guide. The former are owners of the steamships Vesta and Constantine. The defendants are charged, in the complaint, with maliciously trying to injure the plaintiffs by omitting the names of some of the ports for which the Ventura and Constantine would sail on certain days, thus preventing them from carrying freight or passengers to those ports.

Sales of Stock—The Costa Rica a Total Wreck.

The sales at the San Francisco stock board, this week, were $2,500,000, an increase of $400,000 over last week.

At the Sacramento meet to-day the running race, mile heats, was won by Thornhill, in two straight heats, time 1:44 and 1:43.

The latest news from the wreck is that the Costa Rica will be a total loss, and that very little of the cargo will be saved. The passengers are all on shore safe. The vessel is valued at $200,000.

A historic character recently died at Lancaster, N. H., in the person of Julia A. Miller, who was the great-great-great-grandchild of king Philip, and whose great-grandfather on her mother's side was Mettalue, chief of the St. Francis or Abanaka tribe of Indians, whose hunting grounds were in the region of the Connecticut valley. Her grandmother, the daughter of Mettalue, and her husband, an English-American, are still living.

WESTERN NOTES.

Travel to Yosemite is on the increase.

Taxation for State purposes in California this year, half of one per cent.

Fifteen car-loads of emigrants from the east arrived in California in five days.

The "infant wonder," a baby which weighs but two pounds, is holding levees at Sacramento.

Astoria has nearly 1,000 inhabitants, and the Astorian says that Astoria is out of debt and there is coin in the treasury.

Trumbull & Jones are paying sixty-five cents a bushel for wheat delivered at Wallula. The old figure—forty cents—is paid for wheat delivered in Walla Walla.—Portland Oregonian.

The Carson Tribune is informed that the waters of Marlette Lake, which is intended to be used by the Virginia Water company to increase the supply for the consumption of the citizens of Storey county, is poisonous in the extreme. So is strychnine.

U. S. Nye, a prominent farmer near Kanawha, has just got through shearing his sheep, and the yield is seven pound to the sheep, six months' clip. Nye has also sheared from one ram, ten month's clip, twenty-four and a half pounds of nice clean wool.

From a letter written from Baker county we learn that times are good—better than for several seasons past; all the mines are being worked and pay good dividends. Men are wanted at $65 and $80 a month to drive teams; but, says the letter, no "sooners" are wanted (that is, men who would sooner loaf around and drink whisky than work.)—Portland Oregonian.

A party of gentlemen, all friends, were having a good time at the Union Hotel Saturday night, when a little misunderstanding took place, and in a very brief period the whole party were indulging in circus performances, gymnastics, building mounds on the floor, etc. When the police, who promptly arrived, called the assemblage to order, it was found that the damages were light.—Sacramento Union.

Governor Newton Booth, in a recent speech at San Francisco, said: "If I have read history aright—if I have interpreted human affairs correctly—oppression in some form is a rule; popular liberty is the exception. It is just as true as it is trite, that 'eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.' It is a price that must be paid day by day, and every day, if we would preserve that inestimable boon. Under a republican government political parties grow up for the purpose of giving form and expression to public opinion. At length there comes a time when designing men manipulate party machinery in order to defeat a fair expression of the public will. When that time does come, parties must be reformed or they must be destroyed."

Witness the talk overheard by an emissary of the American Sunday-school Union when trying to establish a Sabbath-school in the far southwest: "I know there's a bug under the chip, sure as you is born. That is some trick 'bout this thing, or that man wouldn't come way down here and make that Sunday-school for nuthin' and gin us books. Just as sure as you're a foot high that's suthing' dead; mind what I tell you. That'll be some fellar round here 'sessing taxes for it arter a while, just like they do with the deestrict schools. I's been long thar."
