The call for the meeting was read and its purpose thoroughly explained; a thorough discussion of the proposition was then gone into.

The maps now in use by the various counties do not agree, overlapping one another in many instances, and property is assessed in two counties, causing misunderstanding when the paying of taxes comes up. At present the various counties generally take their boundary lines along the water sheds, but at the meeting yesterday it was practically agreed upon that the countles adjoining each other should make their boundary lines along the section lines, using the water shed lines only when absolutely necessary, and that where any countles cannot agree on their line that their re ctive surveyors be sent out to strike line. The representatives will reporn the meeting to the commissioners of their respective counties, when some definite action will be taken to determine the various county boundary lines.

A man who gave the name of W. J. Baker, borrowed $175 from the State Bank of Provo Thursday, giving his note, signed by himself, and A. G. Johnson, of Provo Bench, as surety. Baker had suggested the name of Johnson at the bank the day before and as that was acceptable, he said he would get Mr. Johnson to sign with him, and when he brought the note with what appeared was Johnson's signature, no question was raised, but the money was paid over. He told the bank people that he intended to commence the implement business at Lindon. Yesterday, President Ray, of the bank, became suspicious and went out to see Mr. Johnson, and learned that he had not signed the note. The man had been at Mr. Johnson's place early in the week and had tried to sell a disk harrow; he told Mr. John-son that he was going into the lmplement business in Provo, and gave the name of White. The recent heavy rains have done considerable good. The severe winter has done serious injury to fall crops, both in wheat and alfalfa, many of the farmers being compelled to plow up great proportions of both, which will greatly lessen crops in both these pro-

A great deal of the dry farm grain that is being left for crops will be so badly mixed with that awful pest to dry farmers, sunflowers, that it is thought some will not be profitable to harvest.

He kept his word last night, and although the weather was a little cool, he spectators enjoyed a delightful evesing's entertainment. There were many of the old time favorites on the track as well as some new faces. There were scores of the old time cycle fans on hand and the old time enthusiasm prevailed. He Knocks Fitzgerald Out in the San Francisco, May 29.—The Gang-Fitzgerald fight at Mechanics' pavillon was an easy victory for the Baltimore wonder. It ended suddenly in the tenth, when the negro put in a terrific left to the jaw, dazing Fitzgerald. The New Yorker tried to fight back, but was too far gone, and a right cross to the jaw put him out for good. It was Gans' fight throughout.

Only in one round—the ninth—did Fitz have even a shade the better of it. Ir this round he put his left to the negro's stomach and body frequently, and Gans was guessing for the time being. The tenth round was all Gans' up to the time of the knockout. The New Yorker was ready and willing to mix it at every stage of the game, and really did good work against the Baltimore man, but the negro lar outclassed him in cieverness and landed upon him almost at will. Tenth Round.

To be tired out from hard work or bodily lation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of rervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nerailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exer-tion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weari-ness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circu-
