CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILWAY

Position of its central position and close relation to all principal lines East and West at initial and terminal points, constitutes the most important mid-continental link in that great system of transportation which affords such facilities for travel and traffic between cities of the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. It also the favorite and best route to and from points East, Northeast and Southeast, and corresponding points West, Northwest and Southwest.

The Rock Island System in its main line and branches, Chicago, Ft. Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Cameron, Plattsburg and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns, villages and stations.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees its patrons that sense of personal security afforded by a solid, thoroughly ballasted road-bed; smooth tracks of continuous steel rail; substantially built culverts and bridges; rolling stock as near perfection as human skill can make it; the safety appliances of patent buffers, platforms and air-brakes; and that exacting discipline which governs the practical operation of all its trains. Other specialties of this route are Transfers at connecting points in Union Depots, and the unsurpassed comforts and conveniences of its Passenger Equipment.

The Fast Express Trains between Chicago and the Missouri River are composed of well ventilated, finely upholstered Day Coaches, Magnificent Pullman Palace Sleepers of the latest design, and sumptuous Dining Cars, in which elaborately cooked meals are leisurely eaten, "good Digestion waiting on Appetite, and Health on both." Between Chicago and Kansas City and Atchison, are also run the Celebrated Reclining Chair Cars.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct and favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Close connections are made in Union Depots for all points in the Territories and British Provinces. Over this route, Fast Express Trains are run to the leading places, summer resorts, picturesque localities, and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. It is also the most desirable route to the great wheat fields and pastoral lands of interior Dakota.

Still another DIRECT LINE, via Seneca and Kankakee, has been opened between Newport News, Richmond, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and Lafayette and Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Minneapolis and St. Paul and intermediate points.

Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate With a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. FOOTE of New York, the well known specialist, an assumption which invites and facilitates. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an exposé made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the well known author. Mr. JOHN F. TROW, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex Governor FRANK FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAM WAKEMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surveyor of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of FOOT or FOOTE, excepting Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. FOOTE, JR., and Dr. HUBERT T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. FOOTE, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. FOOTE, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. FOOTE professionally or to order remedies should address either

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr., 120 Lexington Ave., New York. Consultation Free, in person or by letter. d&s 6mo

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday - December 10, 1885

CORRESPONDENCE.

SALT LAKE CITY, December 8, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

A short time ago there appeared in the NEWS a brief notice of the death of Elder Wm. J. Howell, of the Ninth Ward. His relatives and friends think his life and labors worthy of a more extended obituary, if consistent with the rules of courtesy governing the NEWS. In doing so you will confer a favor upon a number of your subscribers, who are personal friends of the deceased and the members of his family by giving space in your columns to the following:

Elder Wm. J. Howell was a native of Wales. Born August 25, 1816, near Caerphilly, county of Glamorgan: was baptized January, 1849, and labored faithfully as an Elder for a period of twelve years. He emigrated to Salt Lake City, September, 1859, where he lived until the time of his death, on the 13th ult. He was a resident of the Ninth Ward for upwards of 24 years. During this time he sustained with unwavering stability the worthily earned reputation of being an "honest man." True to his convictions and calling; faithful in the discharge of his duties and obligations to God and his friends. He was a positive man, possessing large individuality, but being above the average of the class of his fellow creatures with whom he associated; he never expressed himself in a manner to dispossess himself of prudence or reduce the number of his friends. He never courted prominence nor sought preferments; neither was he known to shirk responsibility or to weakly discharge his duties. His co-laborers esteemed him as a competent worker in whatever capacity he was called to act. The absence of personal vanity and self-praise was remarkable in his character. Whatever he did was done in a manner to secure greater interest for the work done than for the one who did it, especially when that one was himself.

Bishop Samuel A. Woolley speaks of him as a faithful member of his ward whose absence by death will be felt by all who knew him. That he was as liberal in his contributions to the cause of his divine Master as his circumstances would permit, and in many instances did more than he could have reasonably been expected to do. He has departed in peace, leaving behind him endearing memories of his exemplary life as a loving husband, an affectionate father and a faithful Latter-day Saint.

"Peace to his remains."

A STREET DIALOGUE.

A GENTILE AND A MORMON DISCUSS THE SITUATION.

We were amused by, and somewhat interested in a dialogue which transpired a day or two ago between a Mormon and a Gentile on a street corner. Here it is as near as we can remember it:

Gentile.—"The Mormons are foolish in thinking to hold out against the whole United States."

Mormon.—"I have always understood it to be foolish for a small boy to strike a boy much bigger than himself. But I do not remember to have heard that it was so very foolish for a small boy to resist the abuse of another; no matter how much bigger the rascal might be. And don't you think it rather mean and cowardly for a big boy to pitch into a boy much smaller than himself?"

Gentile.—"Yes; such a thing would seem to be kind of mean. But I fail to see the point."

Mormon.—"Don't you think it rather small business for 50,000,000 people to pitch into 150,000 without any cause or provocation? for you must admit that all this talk about the immorality of polygamy is pretty much of the same nature as that which the fox addressed to the lamb in Æsop's fable. And the people of these United States know that the Mormons are innocent of tainting the morals of this nation as well as the fox knew the lamb was not guilty of riling the stream. No doubt the fox had tasted mutton before, and was eager for another savory meal. Just so with the mobs who have several times plundered the people of God and are now ravenous for the blood and property of their honest neighbors."

Gentile.—"But, you admit that it is foolish for a boy to fight a bigger one. What is the good of your people holding out against such wonderful odds?"

Mormon.—"This is all very well; but we think the folly is on the other side; because we put our trust in God and He has said that inasmuch as ye did it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me! and, consequently, they are fighting against God. And in so doing they are striking some one much bigger than themselves."

Gentile.—"This is very good, but we don't regard God as having anything to do with this case."

Mormon.—"Neither did the Jews when they were persecuting our ancient brethren. But I will spell out their nation all the same."—Ogden Herald.

PANGUITCH STAKE CONFERENCE.

PANGUITCH, U. T., November 30th, 1885.

The Panguitch Stake Conference convened in the new meeting house in Panguitch at 10 a. m., on Saturday, November 28th, 1885.

Present on the stand, of the Stake Presidency, J. W. Crosby, Jr., M. M. Steele, D. Cameron, and leading men of the various wards of the Stake.

After the usual opening exercises President Crosby made a few remarks, congratulating the Saints of this Stake on the privilege they to-day enjoyed in having the new Stake house so far completed as to be enabled to meet in it and be comfortable.

The Conference was then addressed by Elder Meltiar Hatch, Bishop Wm. King, of Kingston Ward, and Bishop Culbert King, of Marion Ward, all dwelling upon the great necessity of the Saints remaining true to their covenants and keeping the whole law of the Lord. The latter two reported their respective wards as being in pretty good condition; some derelection of duties, however, with some of the members, but the majority were trying to keep the commandments of God. Choir sang. Conference adjourned to 2 p. m.

The morning service closed with benediction by Elder James Dickenson.

At 2 p. m. Conference reassembled, and the meeting opened with singing by the choir and prayer by Elder Samuel Henrie.

Elder Joseph Houston was the first speaker, who pointed out the difference between the Latter-day Saints and other religious denominations, and showed the necessity of keeping the channel of communication open between us and the heavens by observing the commandments of God and doing right.

Bishop W. J. Henderson of Cannonville, Joseph C. Davis of Panguitch, 1st Ward, and Hyrum S. Church of Panguitch, 2nd Ward, rendered reports of the respective wards, their reports being of the same tenor, all agreeing that some of the members of their wards were not keeping the commandments of the Lord, but that the majority of the people were alive to their duties and striving to do the best they could under the circumstances.

President Cameron followed, showing that we should try to keep the spirit, for without it we could do nothing that was useful or would tend to the building up of Father's kingdom; neither could we stand the test that was fast approaching us.

Prest. M. M. Steele then spoke of the duties of the officers in the Priesthood, instructing them as to their duties, exhorting them to faithfulness; also teaching the young the necessity of honoring their parents and attending the different associations in preference to so much dancing. The choir sang an anthem and conference adjourned to 10 a.m., Nov. 29th. Benediction by Elder Daniel A. Henrie.

At 10 a.m., Nov. 29th, the Conference resumed its session with singing and prayer by Elder Meltiar Hatch.

Elder James Dickinson being called to address the Conference, said he thought our religion should be an every-day labor with us, that we should seek first "the kingdom of God and His righteousness," etc.

Elder Rufus A. Allen, Bishop A. P. Schow, Elders J. W. Norton and Allen Miller all addressed the people in short but spirited and beneficial speeches.

Benediction by Elder Joseph Houston.

During the afternoon, after the usual opening exercises, the sacrament was administered and the authorities of the Church, general and local, were presented, and sustained with a large vote. Prest. Crosby made some explanations why some names were omitted, and gave a considerable report of his recent trip to Salt Lake City.

Bishop Culbert King and President D. Cameron then addressed the Saints at some length, giving a great deal of good instruction to the people, after which Conference adjourned for three months.

Benediction by President J. W. Crosby.

W. P. SARGENT, Clerk of Conference.

Sunday School Union Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Deseret Sunday School Union was held in the Assembly Hall on Monday evening, December 7th, at 7 p. m., Stake Superintendent John C. Cutler presiding.

The Deseret Sunday School Union Band played a selection at the opening of the meeting, after which the Fifth Ward Sunday School choir, who furnished the music during the evening, sang "The Bright New Year," from the Union Music Book."

Prayer by Elder John Vincent.

"Sowing" was rendered by the choir.

All of the city wards were represented with the exception of the 1st, 3d and 10th.

Brother Charles Ross, one of the pupils of the Twentieth Ward Sabbath School, gave an interesting lecture on "The Life of Brigham Young."

After music by the band, Bro. John Alford was called upon for a few remarks. He said our boys were to be the coming heroes of the world, and ought to seek the assistance of the Lord, and live pure lives. He considered that the Gospel of Jesus Christ was the best teacher of good manners.

Misses Annie Bird and Elizabeth A. Simpson sang a duet entitled "Our Home in the Mountains," with chorus by the choir.

Stake Supt. Cutler said that he believed a true Christian was always a true gentleman. If there was anything he liked, it was when persons came to meeting late, to see them seat themselves as quietly as possible. He wished these assemblages to be model meetings, and said he was certain that those who acted disrespectfully did not belong to the Sunday school. He was pleased with the improvement made by the Sunday schools. Advised teachers and pupils to attend to their duties, and not give way to small temptations, and be led into greater transgression.

Assistant General Superintendent George Goddard said he hoped none came to the Union meetings without a desire to learn. When any one was speaking in the stand the utmost quiet should be observed. Every one should come to listen and try to learn something. He was thankful to see so many present, notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather. Advised all never to forget their prayers, to live their religion and obtain a blessing. He said the present was a good time to repent and leave off bad habits.

The choir sang "Our Mountain Home so Dear" and Elder John Cowan pronounced the benediction.

Adjourned to the first Monday in January, 1886.

DAVID R. LYON, Ass't Sec'y.
