

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET

William Craig Nominated for Mayor, Wins Over Dr. Condon In a Vote of 73 to 51.

STALWARTS ADOPT PLATFORM

Unity and Good Feeling Characterize Entire Convention Proceedings—Kuchler Was Chairman.

Ogden, Sept. 28.—The Republicans in the city convention yesterday afternoon nominated the following ticket:

Mayor—William Craig.
Treasurer—Thomas H. Farr.
Recorder—Ernest P. Brown.
Auditor—James H. Devine.
Judge—John D. Murphy.
Councilmen—
First Ward—George C. Wilson.
Second Ward—H. H. Moya.
Third Ward—J. B. Dorn.
Fourth Ward—H. E. Grant.
Fifth Ward—Dr. J. F. Snodder.

Radiophol Kuchler was the permanent chairman and under his direction the entire business of the convention was expedited from beginning to end. There was much harmony and good feeling throughout the proceedings. The defeated nominees taking their defeat good naturedly, pledging hearty support to the candidates who were named for the various offices on the municipal ticket. Only in the selection of one office incumbent was there any show of a scrap. The fight for treasurer was the main event of the convention. P. L. Woods nominated Thomas H. Farr. Seth Thomas was placed in nomination by R. Pincock. D. H. Wheelwright named F. J. Henderson and E. W. Wade presented the name of Fred F. Dalton. There was considerable scuffling during the nomination of candidates and five votes were taken before the delegates decided on the nominee. Farr won out on the fifth ballot by a vote of 22 to 50.

For mayor two names were presented to the convention—William Craig and Dr. A. S. Condon. It took one ballot to decide the choice of the convention. Craig received 73 and Condon 51. In a short speech afterward Condon said he did not believe being nominated for the nomination, but was glad that it took the best Republican in Ogden to bring it about.

E. T. Hulanski placed the name of J. D. Murphy in nomination for judge. Immediately the nominations were closed and the selection of Murphy was made by acclamation.

For recorder A. Power nominated W. J. Critchlow, the present incumbent, and J. B. McCracken named E. P. Brown. The fact that Critchlow had held the office for six years was the strongest argument used against him. One delegate put it: "Don't believe in establishing a kingdom." The vote was Brown, 35; Critchlow, 54.

J. S. Bagley nominated both Mrs. Florence O. Stanford for auditor and James H. Devine for attorney, and both were nominated without opposition.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The convention adopted the following platform:

The Republican party of Ogden City in convention assembled endorses and affirms the principles of our party as announced in the national and state platforms of the party. We commend the policy of the national Republican administration in protecting the rights and promoting the welfare of the general public inaugurated by that grand statesman, William McKinley.

"We favor an economical administration of municipal affairs in order that warrants of the city shall be worth their face value."

"We favor public improvements consistent with the needs of our growing city and with the ability of property owners and taxpayers to meet the obligations incurred."

"That under an administration, all Republican, we will be enabled to bring about a progressive and at the same time economical government of the city."

"We therefore deprecate any departure from the straight Republican ticket as named by its representatives in convention assembled and urge all voters to assist in replacing the credit of Ogden City where it was found by the present head of the city government."

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

For alleged desertion and non-support, Mrs. Ida Way has entered suit for divorce from Frank W. Way. The parties were married five years ago in Pocatello and the complaint charges that Way deserted his wife last May.

BOTH LEGS CRUSHED

Yesterday afternoon a Japanese section man was brought to Ogden and taken to the Japanese hospital suffering from having both legs crushed above the knees. He was a passenger on Southern Pacific No. 3 and attempted to get off while the train was moving at Rye Patch station. He slipped and fell and was thrown under the wheels. Both legs will have to be amputated.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

A marriage license was granted yesterday to C. K. Wales and Mrs. Anna Swan, both of Des Moines, Ia. Claude Wardleigh, son of H. C. Wardleigh, is suffering from an attack of spinal meningitis and his condition is serious.

A special train will be operated Oct. 3 between Montpelier and McConnaughy to connect with No. 10 at the latter point. This will leave Montpelier at 10:55 a. m. and arrive in Salt Lake at 7 a. m.

LAGOON ROAD'S SCHEDULE

The Lagoon road will have trains leaving Salt Lake for Layton and intermediate points at 5:50 a. m. and 9 a. m. and 1:30, 4:45, 7 and 11:30 p. m. This service will be operated as far north as Layton up until Thursday; the following day an additional train will be run to Riverdale, a suburb of Ogden. The Lagoon road offers six trains between Salt Lake and points to the north. The Salt Lake route is out for conference business also and is offering an attractive schedule.

UTAH'S LATEST HERO.

A. E. Watkins, Midway Man, Saves Auto Party in Los Angeles.

Archie E. Watkins, formerly a resident of Midway, Utah, but now employed at Los Angeles, Cal., is in a hospital in the latter city, suffering from a broken leg. Watkins' misfortune was due entirely to the fact that he attempted to save a party and saved the lives of others.

Watkins is a swimmer on the Santa Fe, and was riding on the foot of a switch engine when the locomotive crashed over an automobile that was crossing the track. In the machine were four persons. The driver, Henry Abbott, Sara Homestead, Ruth Sheriff, and Will Rogers, member of the Merchants National bank. Watkins could easily have jumped and saved himself, but he stayed right where he was, and when the rear seat of the engine was struck by the engine he buried the two occupants, Mrs. Homestead and Ruth Sheriff, to one side in such a manner that they escaped serious injury. He himself received a broken leg and a broken arm.

Watkins' leg was caught between the engine and the auto, and the driver was killed before he could get out. He was also badly injured.

BODY ARRIVES.

Mortal Remains of Matt Rhodes Reach Salt Lake Today.

The body of the late Detective Matt Rhodes arrived in Salt Lake this morning from Indianapolis and was taken to the undertaking parlors of S. D. Evans. The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Masonic temple on Second East and First South streets. The remains were brought home by Mrs. Rhodes and son.

The popular officer died at a sanitarium at Indianapolis where he was undergoing treatment for cancer of the ear. He had been under treatment for some time and hopes were held out for his recovery. Finally, the physicians decided that an operation would be necessary and one was performed, but the patient was unable to survive the ordeal.
