PROPHET'S CENTENARY.

Daughters of Pioneers Will Join in Celebrating This Event.

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers was held at their new room, Friday, Oct. 20. The committee on celebration of the Prophet Joseph Smith's birthday reported, and it was decided to send the following letter to the general boards of Relief society. Y. L. M. I. and Primary associations:

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 20, 1905. To the Presidency and General Board of Relief Society, Y. L. M. I. and Primary. Dear sisters: The Daughters of the Pioneers view with deep interof the Pioneers view with deep interest and concern the approaching centenary of the birthday of the Prophet Joseph Smith. While the great Prophet of the nineteenth century was never permitted to reach the Bocky mountains, toward which goat he had assuredly set his face, yet he was the great seer of this westward movement. So we are very anxious to express our

So we are very anxious to express our mense of loyalty and gratitude to his memory. Yet we do not feel ourselves strong enough as an organization to do this subject justice alone. Therefore we appeal to the sister organizations for co-operation. We will be glad to follow any plan you may suggest, and to join with you ail, in a general relebration of this auspicious occasion. This committee will be ready to confer with anyone you may name.

Bishop Presion spoke of the importance of the society and urged the gathering of relics, compiling historical da-ta, etc., in perpetuating the memory of the Pioneers; assured the members of his sympathy and support. Remarks were made by Brother John

After the program, delicious refreshments were served and a delightful social hour spent.

NOT A MEMBER.

D. H. Gustaveson Says He Was Discharged Before Encampment.

D. H. Gustaveson, a member of troop A. First cavalry, who is named to be court-martialed for absence from Camp Taft, called at the "News" today to state that his name was not properly one of those belonging in the order. According to his statement he thought that he was discharged from the guard a considerable period before the encampment, and did not consider himself obliged to go, or affected by the order calling it. "I gladly would have responded," he said, "had I known I was member of the great has a member o have responded," he said, "had I known I was a member of the guard, but some months ago I received a position which required my absence from Utah, and applied for a discharge on account of leaving the state. I made out the papers, and gave them to Capt. Caine of the troop. He subsequently ordered md to turn in my equipment, and I did this in compliance with orders, considering that my application had been granted. Since then I have considered myself out of the guard, and thought the record go showed. I was not here when encampment began, and only returned a few days ago, on account of the illterms.
