FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

Washington, 19.—The House bills passed appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Laramie; $75,000 for Hannibal, $600,000 for Detroit and $100,000 for Council Binifs. The Senate bill passed for $100,000 to LaCrosse.

The five-per-cent bill was taken up.
Vance's pending amendment was rejected, and the debate turned upon the amendment offered by Hoar to refer the question to the Court of Claims, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. The amendment was lost—yeas 24, nays 26.

An amendment was offered by Farley and advocated by his colleague, Miller, admitting California to the benefit bill and requiring the money of that State to be held as a achool fund. Adopted, yeas 23, nays 17.

beid as a school fund. Adopted, yeas 23, nays 17.

The offering and voting down of amendments was interspersed with motions to adjourn, then continued.

Morgan moved to provide that a sum of money, to which any State shall become entitled under the act, shall be retained by the United States on account of any tax remaining due or unpaid from any State to the United States under the Act of August, 1871. Adopted—ayes 34, noes 5. The bill then passed—ayes 23, noes 17.

Washington, 19.—The House resumed consideration of the Bank Charter Extension Bill, the pending question being on the amendment offered by Crapo as an independent section.

The Crapo amendment was adopted without division.

Crapo offered an additional section: That, on deposit of the bonds, the association making it may receive from the Comptroller circulating notes equaling ninety per cent. current market value not exceeding par of the limited States bonds. exceeding par of the United States bonds so transferred and delivered; that the total amount of such notes issued shall never exceed ninety per cent. of the amount actually paid in of capital stock, and repeals actions 5171 and 5176 of the revised Statutes. Adopted—100 to 82.

Buckner, of Missouri, offered as a new section, an amendment to increase the amount of reserve to be held by banks in large cities from twenty-five to thirty per amount of reserve to be seld by banks in large cities from twenty-five to thirty per cent, of the aggregate amount of its notes in circulation, and in other cities from fifteen to twenty per cent; and providing that the circulating notes of all banking associations shall be redeemed at the counters of the respective associations or at the Treasury at Washington, at the option of the holders. Rejected—yeas 57, navs 126.

Rice, of Missouri, offered an amendment for the substitute of legal tender Treasury notes for bank notes when the latter shall be withdrawn from circulation. R ce shall be withdrawn from circulation. R ce referred to the remark of Bland yestercay in regard to the greenback party as a gross perversion of facts. He would not charge that the gentleman made the remarks wilfully and maliciously, but would attribute them to ignorance of facts and a desire to make political capital. He pronounced the statement that the greenback members from Missouri had been pledged for a republican speaker if necessary to insure his election, as a bold and unwitting perversion without foundation in truth. tion in truth.

Bland said he had not charged that any ledges had been made, but had stated to that no independent or greenback candi-date would receive republican support until they had pledged themselves to ald in organizing the House under republican

Treasury to receive all desposits of gold coin and bullion in sums not less than twenty dollars, and to issue certificates therefore in denominations not less than wenty dollars corresponding with denom-nations of the United States notes. Coin and builion on deposit for or representing certificates of deposit shall be retained in the treasury for the payment of the same on d mand. Ruled not being germaine. A number of amendments were offered and considered as rending and A number of amendments were offered and considered as pending, and then the previous question was ordered.

Metrison, of Illinois, offered an amendment providing that Congress may at any time amend, after or repeal this act or acts, of which this is amendatory; adopted.

Other amendments and a substitute printed in the Record were successively voted down without being read, the Speaker merely indicating the proposition by name and offering it.

Murch, of Maine, moved to lay the bill upon the table. Lest—43 to 204.

Buchner, of Missouri, moved to recommit the bill to the committee on banking and currency, with instructions to report back some measure by which the power Other amendments and a substitute back some measure by which the power of the banks under all circumstances shall be restricted from causing undue contraction or expansion of bank note circulation.

The bill then passed as amended; year 125, nays 67.

A joint resolution was passed appropriating $16,000,000 to supply the deficiency in the appropriation for army pensions.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from ex-sergeant-at-arms Thompson, stating briefly the status of the case of Hallet Kilburn vs. J. G. Thompson. Referred to the committee on judiciary. Adjourned.

An Astamination Scelety. New York, 19.—A story is printed in an evening paper here to the effect that the murder of Cavendish and Burke was the work of a secret organization, composed partly of Irishmen, partly Frenchmen and partly Italians. One of the murderers is an Italian and the other an Irishman. Both were educated and in comparatively good circumstances. It is asserted that Burke had seduced a lady who was betrothed to the man who assassinated him. Burke had been intimate with her for two months. • When her lover learned of her ruin, he requested the privilege of taking Burke's life, acting as agent of the secret service.

La Chosse, Wis., 19.—The will of ex-Governor C. C. Washburne was opened to-day. Its contents are not held secret. Among the bequests is one of $50,000 for a public library here, and $375,000 for a memorial orphan asylum at Minnespolis, as a tribute to his mother. The bequests aggregate over $500,000. The estate aggregates $3,500,000.

LEADVILLE, Col., 19.—A fire broke out on the south side of East Chestnut Street this morning, about half past 3 o'clock, and before it was got under control had destroyed the buildings on that side, east of the First National Bank, for nearly a block, including the Windsor Hotel Academy of Music, Palace of Fashion, and a large dry goods house. Two bodies have been recovered from the ruins and more are thought to be builed therein. The loss of property amounts to $150,000 to $200,000.

FOREIGN.

Purported Confouton. DUBLIN, 19.- The "Freeman's Journal" publishes an eight column story—an anonymous letter bearing the London post mark, and professing to be a con-fession by one of the assassins. It intimates that the crime was committed in answer to the appointment of Lord Cav-endish, by the Irish Assassination Society which has branches throughout the King dom. Over twenty persons are said to be implicated in the crime, all having escaped to America in various disguises. The writer says they attended the funersls of their victims. The story created sensation, but Is considered a hoax.

ontains many gross absurdities. Resping Back Information. The Lord Lieutenant, replying to an address in the Dublin corporation, said he feared, notwithstanding the desire of the bulk of the people of the country, that the perpetrators of the murders would not be brought to justice. Some persons, actuated by fear or sympathy were keeping tack the information that might lead to the discovery of the criminals. The responsibility of administering the exceptional powers are very heavy, but it was his duly not to flinch from the task. He appealed for aid from ail loyal citizens that powers would not be used against them but against secret societies.

The New Secretary Speaks, LONDON, 19.-G. O. Trevelyn, the new frish Secretary took his sent last night and was received warmly by the liberal benches. The Home Rulers preserved a marked silence. Later on he arcse to de. fend the new ecercion act, which, in his preamble, he declared would not be used preamble, he declared would not be used against any constitutional effort to alter the existing institution. This announcement was received with ironical cheers by some of the Irish members. In defending and explaining the details of the measures, he adopted Mr. Forster's method of producing a decidedly unfavorable impression on those Irish members, who had looked for a more sympathetic attitude.
