By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-Carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

Marshal Meade Released.

TUCSON, Ariz., March 19.—Marshal Meade and posse, who have returned from Janos, where they were arrested on the 29th of February, while pursuing the Stein's Pass train robbers on Mexican soil, state that they were released on the 14th, but their arms and horses were retained because they refused to sign a statement exonerating the officials from blame in their arrest, which they claimed was made for the violation of certain laws. The posse complain of ill treatment during their detention, and have forwarded a statement to the Department at Washington.

LONDON, March 19.—The Lincoln spring meeting opened today. The principal event was the race for the Balthyany stakes for three-year-olds and upwards, distance about five furlongs. The race was won by a length and a half by Mr. Mayler's aged horse Fullman, Lord Hasting's three-year-old filly Maiden Belle second. Fourteen horses started.

Still at a Standstill.

LOS ANGELES, March 19.—No word has been received by the officials of the Santa Fe road here in regard to the end of the strike, and traffic on that line in this section is still at a standstill. No trains will be moved until orders to that effect are received from the east.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The following bills were reported and placed on the calendar:

For the erection of public buildings at Salem, Oregon, and to increase the appropriation for the public building at Sacramento, California; also a bill to divide a portion of the Sioux Reservation in Dakota into separate reservations, and to secure the relinquishment of the Indian title to the remainder.

Cowen introduced a bill to establish a park in Colorado, to be known as Royal Arch Park.

The Senate then proceeded to consideration of bills on the calendar in their regular order:

The bill to reimburse the depositors of the Freedmen's Bank, went over without action.

The following bills were passed:

To amend Article 103 of the rules and articles of war in relation to desertion.

Authorizing the appointment of a superintendent of Indian schools, and prescribing his duties.

To construct a railroad to the National Cemetery at Corinth, Mississippi.

To enable the State of Colorado to select indemnity lands, and for other purposes.

To settle and adjust claims of any State for expense incurred by it in defense of the United States during the war of the rebellion.

Authorizing the appointment of a delegate to the fourth international Prison Congress at St. Petersburg in 1890.

Appropriating $100,000 for the erection in Washington of a monument to the negro soldiers and sailors who gave their lives for the preservation of the government. Yeas 31, nays 19.

For the relief of certain settlers upon the school lands of Washington Territory.

To establish an additional land district (the Harvey District) in Oregon.

To amend the act for the admission of Colorado into the Union.

To establish a public park at Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

There were altogether fifty-five bills passed. Among them were two bills pensioning volunteer female nurses during the war at $25 a month.

Blair, from the committee on civil service, reported a bill providing that whenever persons who were not loyal to the United States during the war shall be appointed to office in the civil service, these who were not dishonorably discharged from the military or naval service of the Confederate States, and who are suffering from wounds or disabilities resulting from such service, shall be preferred to other persons not known to have been loyal to the United States during the war.

Platt objected to the second reading of the bill and it went over till tomorrow.

Teller introduced a bill for the admission of the State of Wyoming into the Union. Referred.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Anderson (Iowa) offered a resolution in the House today for the appointment of a special committee of five members to investigate the railroad strikes and to report what legislation is necessary to prevent such obstruction to commerce and disturbance of the public peace. The resolution is accompanied by a long preamble reciting that the strike of the locomotive engineers on the C., B. & Q. road resulted in an obstruction to inter-state commerce and put in jeopardy the public peace; that the management of that road claims to have supplied with competent men the places vacated at the time of the strike, and to have restored the company to the proper discharge of its obligations and duties as a common carrier; that it is alleged that the new men are incompetent and unfit to discharge duties of locomotive engineers; that a strike of substantially similar character is in progress on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and that such conflicts between officers and employes of the companies being common carriers, are matters of great national concern, demanding prompt and careful consideration by Congress. Referred.

Under the call of states, the following bills and resolutions were introduced and referred:

By Felton (California), for the free admission of machinery for the manufacture of beet sugar.

By O'Neill (Missouri), to create boards of arbitration for settling controversies between officers and employes of railroads engaged in interstate commerce.

Morrill (Kansas), offered resolution setting apart the 2d and 3d of May for the consideration of the general pension legislation. Under the rules this resolution would go to the committee on rules, but Morrill moved its reference to the committee on invalid pensions, and it was agreed to. Yeas 135, nays 100.

Wiggins (Ohio) moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill authorizing the issue of fractional silver certificates. After a long debate the bill was passed—yeas 178, nays 17.

The following is the text: That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby is authorized and directed to issue silver certificates of denominations of twenty-five, fifteen and ten cents, such certificates to be redeemed, paid and reissued in the same manner as silver certificates of larger denominations, and to be exchanged for silver certificates of other denominations. And the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to make such negotiations as may seem to him proper for distributing and redeeming the denominations of silver certificates herein authorized.

On motion of Bland, the rules were suspended and the bill passed discontinuing the coinage of $3 gold pieces and gold $1 pieces.

Adjourned.
