

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

For the Coast.—Hon. Wm. Jennings, accompanied by two of his daughters, left for San Francisco this afternoon. Pleasant trip.

Tasker the Murderer.—The Police Record says that the killing of "Dutcher" by Ben Tasker, who is now under arrest for the act, was justifiable and that it is therefore not likely he will be punished.

Holes in the Road.—The Supervisor of streets would confer a favor on many citizens, by filling up the ugly holes and ruts on Main Street that now make vehicular progress so extremely uncomfortable.

Attention, Firemen.—The members of the Pioneer Engine Company No. 1 are hereby notified that their regular monthly meeting is on Monday evening, at half-past seven o'clock. J. KILGUSON, Secretary.

Builder's Union.—We have received an invitation to a social reunion of the members and friends of the St. George Builder's Union, which will be held in that city this evening, at 8 o'clock p. m. If Mr. Edson finishes our flying machine in time, we shall certainly be there.

Floral.—At Mr. John Readling's well stocked greenhouse in the Thirtieth Ward, among other lovely and fragrant plants, may be seen several orange trees in full blossom. Handling does a rattling trade business and is always equal to the demand.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will be as follows: Sunday Schools in the various wards at 10 a. m.; general meeting in the Tabernacle at 2 p. m.; and ward meetings in the evening at the usual hours. Home missionaries will attend the night meetings.

From Chicago.—Mr. B. Smith, representing the extensive firm of Durant, Jacques & Atwood, dealers in chemicals, extracts, etc., of Chicago and St. Louis, has been in Salt Lake for several days, disposing of their goods to our leading mercantile houses. Parties who have used their extracts speak very highly of their quality. Mr. Smith will leave the city early next week.

"Watchman" Writings.—From the Beaver Watchman of the 2nd inst.:

The stage fare from Beaver to Milford is $3, and to Frisco $7.50. The railroad will hardly reach Frisco before the 4th of July. Meanwhile Milford is fast becoming the former's rival.

Tasker says he is anxious to stand his trial and prove clear, but he hates to lie in jail till July. He thinks Marshal Pratt ought to have put off his arrest for a month yet.

More of the Parker Murder.—Mr. S. K. Gilford, writing from Springdale, Kane County, under date of the 20th ult., gives a few particulars relating to the murder of Mrs. Parker, in addition to those already published. Our correspondent states that the story told by Dalton, the accused of his having met Samuel Parker, son of the murdered woman, in the mountains and been sent by him to fetch his mother is credited by many, and that with Dalton's representation to the reporter of the Miner, that young Parker was afraid to come into Springdale on account of having stolen a saddle and got into trouble with a girl before he left, have elicited considerable sympathy for the prisoner, from persons who are inclined to accept as true the theory that Parker outraged and killed his own mother. But Mr. Gilford stoutly affirms his disbelief in this horrible supposition, and deprecates the endeavors made to arouse sympathy for Dalton, whom he believes to be guilty of the heinous crime which he seeks to impute to the son of his victim. He says: "Samuel Parker had buried his wife and was paying attention to the daughter of his uncle, but being unsuccessful in love, he left the country. He took with him a saddle belonging to his uncle, with whom he had been living for some time, and as he passed through Toiyabe left some property to be transferred in favor of his uncle as payment for the saddle. Last January he came home in the night, and stayed a few days, going from one settlement to another in the daytime, and was not afraid to come again. Samuel and his brother, when they came in, said they had been robbed of a considerable amount of money they were bringing home to help their mother, stating that they were going out west again to make a little raise, and then were coming to take their mother to New Mexico, and keep a sheep herd. They left in January and have not been heard from since."

Their mother, Mary Elizabeth Parker, was the daughter of Alpheus and Anna Nash Gilford, who were baptized the year the Church was organized. She was the widow of Samuel Parker, a lame man, known by some as Doctor Parker. While on their way to the Centre Stake of Zion, Mary was baptized at Cincinnati, in the Ohio River, the ice being out for that purpose, in the winter of 1823-24. She was a strange woman and sometimes disagreeable in her manners, but was always true to the work of God. After she lived with Parker who were called a witch by many, who were foolish enough to believe it. She died strong in the faith of the gospel the day she was sixty-two years of age. Two or three years ago, her son Samuel had turned the road and a face of land that he claimed with a wagon, and followed the old road across the land. To this proposition Samuel objected, a few words ensued, and then he jumped upon the wagon, and beat him nearly to death. His mother (Mary E. Parker) interfered and saved her son's life. "This may be the cause of the murder."

Denise Kearney.—Yesterday morning's Central Pacific train brought to Ogden the notorious sand-lot orator, Denise Kearney, who, after a brief stay, passed on over the Union Pacific, on his way to Chicago, to attend the National Greenback Convention, to be held there on the 8th inst. A Junction reporter interviewed him briefly, to learn his views on the situation in San Francisco. Kearney thinks the De Young shooting was provoked, and a thing to have been expected; and that the affair has not hurt the Working-men's party, and that the men who attempted to impeach Mayor Kailoch were "a d-d set of villains."

He said in conclusion that he had been through Ogden four times and had not had time to stop, but that he would be back about the last of the month and intended then to visit Salt Lake and find out more about the people called "mormons."

Priesthood Meeting.—The general meeting of the priesthood of the Stake convened in the Assembly Hall this forenoon, at 11 o'clock, the presidency of the Stake present and presiding. The roll having been called, reports read and candidates recommended for various offices in the Priesthood, a circular letter was read from President Joseph Young, Sen., asking the aid of the presidency of the Stake in obtaining a list of all the Seventies of the Stake. This letter was accompanied by blanks for distribution among the several wards, to effect the desired purpose.

Counselor Joseph E. Taylor then arose and made remarks on the necessity of something being done to check the progress of the dreaded scourge of diphtheria. He suggested the advisability of the appointment of certain sanitary officers to attend to persons afflicted with this disease, and assist in helping them in the line of trouble. In the absence of these officers, however, the ward authorities should assume a watch-care. The teachers should see that aid and sustenance is furnished the afflicted, that sanitary measures are adopted to prevent the spread of the disease, and when death visits a household, be ready to lend encouragement to the bereaved survivors, and not desert them. The elders should go with the power of God into such places, fearing not the disease, but fearing God, and in his name rebuking the contagion. Such a man was proof against disease, and God would protect him. The speaker depicted the ravages of diphtheria in our midst, and closed by suggesting that the City Council be impetioned to inaugurate means to prevent its further progress.

Elder W. W. Taylor, of the presidency of the Seventies, in explanation of the circular letter referred to, said it was designed that the Bishops and their assistants be relieved of the labor of getting up the lists of Seventies in their wards, and that the duty devolve upon some of the prominent Seventies.

Bishop Edwin D. Wooley, expressed his satisfaction at the plan adopted in these meetings, of asking candidates for ordination as to their willingness to do their duty, magnify their offices, and bear a testimony before the assembly to that effect, previous to receiving a recommendation.

Bishop L. W. Hardy, of the presiding Bishopric, touched upon the subject of the Utah Eastern Railroad, showed how it would benefit the people of this city and the Territory, in the cheapening of fuel and the development of the country, and urged the bishops and all present to invest in the enterprise and encourage others to do the same. It was estimated that the road would cost $300,000, which represented double that amount in shares.

Bishop L. D. Young, being requested to speak, endorsed all that had been said, especially in relation to the disease known as diphtheria. Apropos of the counsel given to the Elders in regard to such things, the speaker related an incident that occurred in early days in Kirtland, when after a certain sick brother had been given up by three physicians, and was dying of quick consumption, the Prophet Joseph instructed the Elders to go to the house and not cease to pray unto God until they received a testimony that the sufferer would be healed. They did so, the man recovered and is alive to-day. The speaker dwelt upon the practice of having doctors and Elders in attendance on the sick at the same time, of trusting in the skill of man instead of the power of God, and he earnestly deprecated the course of those who refuse to go to administer to the sick, for fear that the disease may cling to them and be carried into their families.

President A. M. Cannon spoke of the advisability of the bishops presenting the names of the teachers and deacons of their respective wards, at least once in three months to the meetings to be sustained. He deprecated the bad habits of smoking, chewing and drinking prevalent among the Elders of Israel, the disorderly conduct of persons who attend meetings, and the actions of those, who when an Elder is preaching, instead of taking his remarks to themselves, are engaged in looking around the congregation to find some one to whom they imagine the criticism will apply. He also touched upon other subjects and gave much wholesome advice.

Elder Brigham Young continued the subjects mentioned by the previous speakers. He advised elders to go solemnly and in holiness of heart to administer to the sick, and not slight the sacred ordinance by performing it hurriedly and carelessly. As to the Utah Eastern, the speaker thought that the money expended in this stake, alone, for coffee, tea, whiskey, tobacco, beer and other stimulants, would run the railroad and furnish it with rolling stock.

And the money paid for patent medicines would double the grade of the road from Salt Lake to Coalville. The speaker mentioned these things to show the inconsistency of many, who complained of not being able to forward a worthy enterprise, and at the same time were wasting their means on things that would destroy their body and soul.

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Tablets. A standard toilet preparation. NOTICE is hereby given to all parties needing Furniture, Bedsteads, etc., that we have a complete stock. Two cars unloaded this date. Call and examine prices. Opposite Salt Lake House. BARRATT BROS.

Married.—Last Thursday, Mr. Moroni Wilcox of the 21st Ward, and Miss Ella Decker, of the 2d Ward, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the Endowment House. We wish our young friends health, wealth and prosperity.

The Mass Meeting.—The mass meeting at the Federal Court Room, last evening, was pretty well attended, and resulted in a renewed determination to go ahead with the celebration project. The money that has been heretofore collected will be returned, and a new subscription taken up, with the understanding that it is to be expended for a celebration on the "4th" which will be as general in its character as it is possible to make it. Some of the committee having resigned, a new election was held to fill vacancies.

A Little Lynch Law.—The Junction of last evening says that on Thursday night some unknown parties made a lively attack on a house on the corner of Franklin and Fifth Streets, in Ogden, which has for some time been inhabited by females of a more than dubious reputation. The windows were taken out, sash and all, so that the building presented a hollow-eyed appearance next morning. The whole affair sprung out of a sense of public indignation, provoked by the flagrant and flippant manner in which lewd women are carrying on their disgraceful vocation, of late, in that city.

Sunday School Notes.—Owing to the general election of school trustees taking place on Monday evening in every ward and settlement in the territory, our regular Sunday School Union meeting will be postponed until Tuesday evening, in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall, at half-past seven o'clock p. m. The superintendents will please announce this change in their several schools. Music will be rendered by the Eighth Ward choir. A full attendance of superintendents, teachers and others interested, respectfully invited.
