The Ogden Herald of yesterday says:

"From a telegram received by Mr Collinson this morning, we learn that Mr. Riser overhanded the guilty party at Cheyenne and most of the stolen property is recovered. It is understood that the thief is one S. Olsen, a man whom Mr. Riser has assisted in a friendly, generous way for some time past, and who seems to have known no other method of showing his gratitude than by robbing his benefactor's house. Mr. Biser will return to this city to-morrow evening, and probably bring with him the alleged culprit. The prompt apprehension of the thief was good piece of detective work, for which Mr. Riser deserves credit.
