

EVENING NEWS. Monday, November 19, 1888.

FRAGMENTS.

The Beaver city election takes place next Monday.
 The Fourth Quorum of Elders met in the Seventh Ward tonight at 7:30. Lewis Cunningham was taken from the penitentiary to Ogden today, for trial.
 James Ferguson was fined $10 in the Police Court today for having been drunk.
 John Marvin and T. R. Goodman got drunk Saturday night, and forfeited $5 each in the Police Court today.

What bid fair to reach $1 per bushel within a short time. Flour is almost double the price that it was two years ago.

On Tuesday evening Charles W. Steiner will lecture in the First Ward meeting house, under the auspices of the M. L. A. Subject, "Babylon, ancient and modern."

The compensation asked for in the suits against the Church excites considerable interest in the public mind, and the effort is generally looked upon as a game of "grab."

On election day Montana, with less population than Utah, cast over 42,000 votes for delegates to congress. The republican candidate, Thos. A. Carter, received a majority of 3,002.

Wm. A. Robinson and James A. Chute have just filed their bonds, and hereafter will be the general agents for Utah of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of Portland, Maine, one of the oldest and best known companies in the United States.

J. D. Rowley has established a pottery at Lovelock, Blaine County, Idaho, that is turning out a good brown earthenware. He will commence the manufacture of brick there next spring, and he already has orders for 60,000.

A soldier named R. Rhoie was arrested on Saturday night for grand larceny. His hearing was set for 3 p. m. today, before Commissioner Norrell. He is accused with having tried to get away with a horse and buggy which he had hired from a lively saloon.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock Professor Wm. M. Stewart, county superintendent of district schools, will lecture in the Fifteenth District school rooms on the subject, "What we are doing in the school room of today." The subject is one of great importance to parents, teachers and all interested in education, and a cordial invitation is extended to all such to attend this evening.

This evening the long looked for production of Guion's famous Messe Solonelle will take place in the Salt Lake Theatre. Besides this production a beautiful vocal and orchestral programme will be rendered, when such artists as Mrs. V. M. C. Silva (who will make her first appearance in this city) Miss Jennie Hawley and Mr. Goralini will contribute solos. The orchestral numbers are especially fine. Schubert's "Andasch" symphony and many other gems will be given.

Out of Prison.
 Fred Yates, of Millville, Cache County was brought from the penitentiary this morning, and after a hearing before Commissioner Norrell was liberated. Yates served a term in the penitentiary for living with his wife, and remained thirty days in the jail imposed, as he was unable to pay it.

A Thief Nabbed.
 On Saturday night a coat was stolen from a friend of Lipman & Co's. The police were notified, and soon after spotted an individual named John Flynn. The latter was arrested, and at the trial this afternoon, he was convicted. The court sentenced him to 30 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $100.

Baby Drowned.
 A one-year-old daughter of Hartley and Emma Silars, of Fairview, Sanpete County, on the 13th ult., accidentally fell into a small barrel and was strangled to death. Five minutes before the child was a corpse, she was seen playing around in the doorway with her little sister. The barrel, as usual, was buried in the ground and filled up with water and brim, etc., for pig feed.

Third District Court.
 Proceedings before Judge Sanford today:
 United States vs. Archibald Parker; jury trial for the defendant.
 United States vs. D. & W. R. R. Co. et al.; dismissed as to defendant Tucker; verdict of $1500 against the railroad.
 In another case, of a similar nature against the D. & W. R. Co., a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff.
 The case of J. R. Nichols vs. N. B. White et al.; Crescent Mining Co. vs. N. B. White et al.; and United States vs. Charles Wright, were continued for the term, and court adjourned till tomorrow.

Organized.
 The Mutual Improvement Association at Brighton have organized for the coming season, with the following officers for the Y. M. M. I. A.: President, W. H. Gedge; first counselor, Nathan Gedge; second counselor, H. J. Walk; secretary, Jos. H. Schoenfeldt; treasurer, H. Gold; choir leader, Robert Hagan, Jr.; Y. L. M. I. A. President, Sister Ada Walk; first counselor, Horstane Jones; second counselor, Lottie Hagan; secretary, Maggie Gardner. Program committee: Chairman, Bishop Schoenfeldt; secretary, H. Schoenfeldt; Robert Hagan, Secy. G. M. Jones, Net to Jones, Sarah Gold, Bertha Schoenfeldt.

Obsequies.
 The funeral services over the remains of the late Elder Jesse West, Jr., were held in the Sixth Ward meeting-house yesterday. The building was crowded with friends of the deceased, and many were unable to gain admission. Bishops M. T. Seddon, of the Fifth Ward, presided, and the opening prayer was offered by Bishop James C. Watson. The speakers were Elder Elias Morris, Pres. A. H. Cannon, Bishop Seddon, Bishop Watson, Elder H. F. Turbott and President A. M. Cannon. The remarks were in reference to the consistent and honorable life of the deceased, which had won for him the love and esteem of his associates. Incidents were related which showed his integrity to the rich and poor in circumstances. The speaker expressed the deep sympathy of the people for the bereaved and offered words of comfort and consolation to the mourners. The closing prayer was offered by Henry Harrow, and a large concourse followed the remains to the cemetery.

A DISTRESSING FATALITY.

A Little Girl Meets Her Death from an Unusual Cause.
 A Birmingham, Bear Lake Valley, correspondent sends the following, under date of Nov. 15th:
 "A sad and singular accident occurred here this morning. A two-and-a-half-year-old girl, daughter of Brother and Sister Albert Danford, was playing with a beer bottle, which she had improvised into a doll. It appears that the little one dropped the bottle, breaking the neck, and after wards fell upon it, striking her in the region of the heart, severing an artery and causing death instantly. The little innocent was in the door yard at the time the accident happened. The mother picked her child up but she never opened her eyes or spoke. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood."

CONFERENCE IN ALABAMA.

Lusk, Choctaw, Co., Ala., Nov. 2, 1888.
Elder Deseret News:
 "A clear blue sky, on a silent, sunny morning, we wandered our way through the waving forest, over sparkling brooks, up hills and across fields, listening to the melodious songs of the mocking bird, till we were brought up before a large church, in which we were to hold our conference. There were present eight Elders from Utah, and three from Idaho. It reminded one of old times to see so many faces from Zion, all of which were glowing and smiling.
 At 10:30 a. m. there were about two hundred Saints and friends present, who were called to order by Elder Israel Barlow, Jr., President of the Mississippi Valley Conference.
 Singing, Prayer by Elder Wm. R. Lee.
 President Barlow stated the object of our conference which was to receive instruction from our President, and while doing so, or while in the presence of our President, to place in the advantage of a few meetings.
 Elder D. H. Wood addressed the conference in a most interesting manner, "the kingdom of God," at some length and in a very interesting manner.
 Elder Wm. R. Lee addressed the congregation in an intelligent manner. Was glad to find that the people of this neighborhood allowed all to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences. Said he had received a long letter from the hands of the people during his sojourn in their midst. Had labored here in this field for six months and found the people to be very kind and generous-hearted, and he highly appreciated this kindness.
 President Wm. Spry spoke very interestingly on the necessity of true repentance.
 Singing, Benediction by Elder Joseph A. Allen.
 The baskets were brought forth and the food was spread, and all partook of a delicious repast. There was plenty left for another table, hence if any were allotted the good people of Lusk were not to blame.
 Elder Wm. R. Lee was called to order again by President Barlow. After singing, prayer, and all interest in education, and a cordial invitation is extended to all such to attend this evening.
 This evening the long looked for production of Guion's famous Messe Solonelle will take place in the Salt Lake Theatre. Besides this production a beautiful vocal and orchestral programme will be rendered, when such artists as Mrs. V. M. C. Silva (who will make her first appearance in this city) Miss Jennie Hawley and Mr. Goralini will contribute solos. The orchestral numbers are especially fine. Schubert's "Andasch" symphony and many other gems will be given."

After rendering one of the good old songs of Zion, prayer by Elder Joseph A. Allen. Singing was followed by a discourse by Elder Israel Barlow on the personality of God and the personality of man. The speaker then gave a large, beech tree, where we were ordered to be laid down in the mud. Elder Wm. R. Lee spoke of the necessity of following the right way before us. His remarks were timely and interesting.
 Elder Wm. Spry instructed us for some time in the ordinary duties of life, and gave an impressive testimony to the truth of the Gospel. He thanked the people for the kindness and hospitality which they had manifested during our conference.
 Singing, Benediction by Elder Wm. R. Lee.
 We had several council meetings in which we received much valuable instruction which we hope to live up to, and profit by. One of our number was sick and not able to be with us, which we very much regretted.
 Elders Israel Barlow and D. H. Wood will return with the November company; also Elder John S. Bramwell, having been out two years and five months, and being the sick and weary traveler.
 I don't think it is necessary to make a record of our "pleasant" experience. I would suggest that the boys get it down in their journals if they are Christians and civilization left them on election day, but we know it now, and we will live up to it.
 Clerk of Conference.

At the Park.
 A weekly paper is to be launched out at Hatcher City soon by Wm. Bays and associates.
 Mrs. Byrne was found on a sick bed and her fatherless children in a destitute condition. The first of the week, but through the efforts of some kind hearted friends, the sick woman was nursed and the children furnished with food. The lady's immediate wants. It is a case that calls for charity.

Last Saturday evening a serious accident happened on the Crescent railway. Fifteen employees of the mine boarded one of the ore cars and started down the track. When about half a mile below the water tank the car jumped the track and fell into the water. The men were allowed to grip so tightly to the wheels and rails that they were not thrown out. It is a wonder that all the occupants of the car were not either killed or more seriously hurt. No doubt the snow into which they landed made a big difference as compared with the hard ground to be dumped on. Jake Kaley got a terrible bruised face and some teeth knocked loose. A man named Red Chase had three ribs broken; a fine came out with a broken arm, while the balance received only slight scratches and bruises. After this frightful experience they went back to the mine for another car and made the trip more cautiously, arriving in town at about 8 o'clock.—Park City Record.

Dangerous Fun.
 This afternoon three boys, Ben, Edler and two named Judson, were arrested on a charge that would be very serious if the accused were men. It is stated that on the 25th of September last the trio placed a pole across the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas railway track, in the First Ward, and derailed a locomotive. When the boys were taken today they admitted having put the obstruction there, but said they did it just for the "fun" of seeing the pole roll down the track in front of the locomotive until it was thrown off. Elder is 12 years of age, and the others are 10. They evidently know the title of the dangerous play they were engaging in.

Bear Lake Bids.
 A correspondence from this section of the country says:
 "The weather is cold and stormy; very little snow on the ground. Winter has not set in early. Bear Lake State Academy opened on the 13th, with George Osmond as principal and Oliver Danford, counselor."

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elder Wright and Apostle Grant at the Tabernacle Yesterday.
 Religious services were held in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, Sunday, Nov. 18, 1888, commencing at 2 p. m. President Angus M. Cannon presiding.
 The choir sang:
 Praise ye the Lord! His good to raise
 Your hearts and voices in his praise.
 Prayer by Elder Robert Morris.
 The choir and congregation sang:
 I know that my Redeemer lives;
 What comfort this sweet sentence gives.
 The Priesthood of the Seventh Ward officiated in the administration of the Sacrament.

ELDER ELIAS S. WRIGHT
 was called upon to address the congregation. He said he was pleased to meet with the Saints again, having been absent on a mission to the Southern States for about twenty-six months, preaching the Gospel. It has been suggested to me that I dwell upon my experience; though my sufferings have been small compared to many of you, I would not refer to my experiences but that, like that of other Elders, they are of interest to the traveling brethren. We have many ways and means. One instance I remember was a very pretty set of men to be engaged in such a manner. We were asked why they disturbed us instead of coming to bed and resting. Finally they seemed to realize their position, they were in, and left; after a short stay, they seemed to have changed their minds, and they fired off their guns.
 We went to another place, and found the other standing by our bed. There were a number of others, and we were asked why we were not to be engaged in such a manner. We were asked why they disturbed us instead of coming to bed and resting. Finally they seemed to realize their position, they were in, and left; after a short stay, they seemed to have changed their minds, and they fired off their guns.
