

San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake, and Judge Kelly of the Union Pacific, are registered at the Knutsford preparatory to participating in the arguments before Judge Talbot regarding the answer to the demurrer in the condemnation proceedings brought by the Oregon Short Line in the matter affecting the sale of a certain piece of grade sold to the San Pedro road by the commissioners of Lincoln county.

When seen this morning Mr. Gibbon stated that he was well satisfied with the outlook for the San Pedro and reiterated the statements on former oc-casions that the road was going to be pushed through just as soon as it was possible. He went on to say that the company was experiencing some diffi-culty in securing shipments of ties, but that matter would be all straightened out in the near future. Continuing he said:

"We are getting along nicely with our road. It has taken time to get right of way privileges, but we have already accomplished much. There is not a prettier nor better stretch of railroad on the coast than our line between San Pedro and Los Angeles. The road-San Pedro and Los Angeles. The roat-bed is fine and seventy-pound rails have been laid the entire distance. Con-tracts will be let in Los Angeles on Monday for thirty miles more and the construction work will be pushed from that end as quickly as possible. The country through which the new road runs at that end is extremely valuable and is owned in small lots. As a conse-quence much money and time has been spent in securing right of way priv-iledges through it. Surveying parties are out working from both ends and considerable work has been done on the

mr. Gibben also went on to say that the first new steel bridge had just been completed at Pittsburg and now that strike was practically over steel would commence to arrive at an early date. The equipment already re-ceived consisted of two engines, ten-wheelers and of the latest pattern, wheteers and of the fatest pattern, while the eight passenger conches al-ready ordered from the Pullman com-pany, said Mr. Gibbon, were ranked among the very finest vestibuled coaches on the coast. In addition to the several hundred freight cars that have also been ordered by the dust have also been ordered by the Clark road a new steam shovel has been purchased and is now in active operation near Los Angeles.

Mr. Gibbon will in all probability re-turn to Los Angeles at the latter part of this week.
