FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

DIED.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon, of inflammation of the brain, William Alfred, son of John and Martha Needham, aged fifteen months and twenty-two days. The funeral obsequies will take place at the house of its parents at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning. Friends are invited to attend.

DEATH OF A NOTED CHARACTER.—There was a rumor last evening of the death of Bro. John Sanderson, of Springville, but it was not at all authentic. Since hearing the rumor we have learned that Bro. Sanderson died of lung fever at his residence in Springville, in the early part of the present week. This takes from our midst a somewhat singular character. In his early days he became an earnest student of the so-called science of astrology, having studied at the same time and under the same teacher as the individual who now goes under the name of "Zadkiel" in London. Bro. Sanderson has been a resident of Utah Territory for quite a number of years, and has obtained some notoriety among the credulous portions of the community by his professions and pretensions with regard to astral and other mythical occult matters.

DIED.—In this city on the 8th ult., in her 39th year, Lydia, wife of Elder George B. Wallace, and daughter of Edward and Sarah Davis. She was born in London, England. She embraced the gospel in that city in the Spring of 1849, and emigrated to this country in 1852. She has been a true and faithful saint and wife. She leaves five children and numerous friends to mourn her loss.

PAYSON.—Bro. H. W. Barnett writes that the weather at Payson is fine, that the farmers are sowing grain, and that peace and prosperity is general. On the 26th ult., a party was held to further the objects of the Female Relief Society; it was well attended and was a very pleasant affair. The citizens of Payson have commenced business on the Co-operative principle, and had opened their store a few days before the date of our correspondent's letter.

SUDDEN.—By telegraph from Ogden city we learn with great regret that bro. Chas. Widerborg, late President of the Scandinavian mission, died very suddenly about 2 o'clock this afternoon. This will be a great shock to his family and friends. It was only a few days ago we saw him in this city apparently in good health.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

DIED.—Of decline, in this city, March 10, 1899, Arthur Charles, son of William Henry and Sarah Ann Fowler, aged 4 years and 5 months, late of London, England.

Mill. Star please copy.

NAVAJOS OR NAVAJOES.—A correspondent, writing from St. George, says a controversy has arisen between several parties as to the correct method of spelling the plural of Navajo, some maintaining that Navajos is the correct method, while others are as positive that Navajoes is the correct form. Our correspondent wishes us to decide the matter, which we now propose to do. If the word Navajo is, as we suppose, of Spanish origin, the correct form of the plural is Navajos, as the rule for forming the plural in that language is by adding "s" to the singular of all words ending with an unaccented vowel.

MONTPELIER.—By letter from bro. Chas. H. Bridges, of Montpelier, Rich county, we are pleased to learn that the people of that settlement are feeling well and striving to the best of their ability to live their religion. They have a flourishing Sunday school in the settlement. The weather, in that region, has been very mild, this winter, and there has not been half the usual quantity of snow, up to within two weeks of the date of his writing, the 4th instant; from that time it had been much more severe.

INFORMATION WANTED.—John Seartliff at No. 11, Sarah Place, Old Street Road, London, E. C. England; would like to hear from John Slater, who emigrated to this country from Grantham, Lincolnshire, England, about the year 1892. The same party is also desirous of hearing from John Bird, also from Lincolnshire, and who, we believe, is now a resident of this city. If either of those two persons will call at this office they can peruse the letter we have received from John Seartliff.

BOUNTIFUL.—Bro. Wm. Thurgood, writing from Bountiful on the 12th inst., informs us that a Co-operative Mercantile Institution had been formed in Bountiful, and will commence business in a few days. Bishop Stoker has been elected President, and Wm. Brown vice president. Anson Call, William Atkinson, Daniel Carter, Joseph B. Noble and Edwin Pace constitute the Board of Directors. Wm. Thurgood is Secretary and Treasurer.

The Co-operative Agricultural and Manufacturing Society, organized last December, is flourishing, the members of the Society doing their utmost to further the objects for which the Society was organized.

The members of the Female Relief Society are indefatigable in their labors, and are doing a good work.

We regret to learn that scarlet fever and influenza have prevailed to a considerable extent, causing much sickness and some death in the settlement.

DIED.—In this city, this morning of inflammation of the lungs, Joseph, son of Joshua and Jemima Midgley, aged 1 year and 7 days.

The funeral obsequies will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.

CAUTION.—The house of Mr. Samuel J. Brown, of the 5th Ward, was broken open one night in the early part of last week, and a sack of flour, branded with the Fort Birch Mill brand, a black cloth undercoat, and several articles of jewelry stolen therefrom. The suspected thief has left this city, and it is supposed has gone in the direction of Coalville. This is to caution the people of that neighborhood against buying anything of this kind if offered for sale in any unusual or surreptitious manner.

BIGGEST SNOW STORM OF THE SEASON.—A telegram was received, yesterday, by Mr. Tracy, General Agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., from their agent East, stating that they were having the heaviest snow storm of the season in the Black Hills. The trains, in consequence, were again blocked. A through train was due at Wasatch last evening with Eastern dates to the 9th instant, which are expected here this evening. Passengers which left last week for the East had gone through.

THE LATE BLOCKADE ON THE U.P.R.R.—Several gentlemen have recently arrived in this city from the East who were among the number detained by the recent blockade on the Union Pacific Road. They are unanimous in describing the time of their detention as a rather uncomfortable period of their existence, but still nothing of a very serious character. The experience of some going East was of a far more uncomfortable character according to the account given in the Cheyenne Leader, which in a recent issue says:

"A number of parties have arrived here who walked over and around the snow blockade, reaching from Rawlins Springs to Wyoming, a distance of one hundred miles. Some with blistered feet, frosted ears, etc. The road will be cleared this week and kept clear for the future. About six hundred passengers are delayed at various points by the snow blockade, which has lasted two weeks, and some of them are in a destitute condition, having expended their available funds for meals and lodgings. A subscription was raised at Laramie, for the relief of the destitute passengers. Ladies who left Salt Lake two weeks ago for the East, are detained at Wasatch, paying three dollars per day for board, two dollars per night for lodging, and one dollar per day for the privilege of sitting in the sleeping car. At some places a dollar is charged for the privilege of sleeping on the floor or table. Provisions are scarce; a cup of coffee, a biscuit and small piece of poor meat, costing a dollar, and difficult to get at that. Of fifty-seven passengers that started from near Percy Station, and walking to Wyoming, but four arrived with boots on their feet, the feet of the others being covered with old overshoes, slippers, rags, tops of old boots, or whatever might ease their blistered feet."

BLOOMINGTON.—Brother James H. Hart, writing from Bloomington, on the 7th inst., says we have had a very pleasant winter, very little snow; considerable sickness among the children, but no deaths. No monsters here this winter, and no merchant kings and calico princes.

OBSEQUIES.—From the Millennial Star, of the 6th ult., we learn that Elder John Mace died in Leeds on the 19th of January, and was buried on the 24th. Elder Mace emigrated to Utah in 1835, and in 1867 returned to England for his family. He labored in the ministry, mostly in the Leeds Conference, until his death. He was 63 years old.

ARRIVED AT OMAHA.—Mr. George Dunford, of the firm of Dunford & Sons, of this city, received a telegraphic dispatch yesterday from Mr. George A. Alder, stating that he and Mr. Daniel Grenig had just arrived at Omaha.

GONE EAST.—Yesterday afternoon a number of ladies and gentlemen left this city for the eastern States, via Ogden, some on business, others on visits to relations. Among the number were Hons. Joseph A. and John W. Young and Ladies, Mrs. Amelia Young, Miss Nettie Young, Hon. A. O. Smoot, Charles Chrismon, Esq., wife and son, J. F. Little, Esq., and sister and Rob't. Pierce, Esq.

ST. JOSEPH.—Bro. Charles Hogg, formerly of Centerville, called to go South last Fall Conference, writing from St. Thomas, on the 1st instant says peace and, as a general thing, good health prevail in the settlements on the Muddy. The people are busy making water ditches, planting vineyards, building and other improvements. Bro. Joseph W. Young is constantly traveling from settlement to settlement trying to do the people good, and takes the lead in all matters of public improvement. The fall and winter wheat looks promising in that region.
