

Green River. He was taken into custody this morning and placed in the city prison for present safe keeping. He says the only thing he regrets in connection with setting fire to the White House is that in doing so he betrayed the confidence of Dr. Thompson, who obtained and paid his lodgings there.

Mr. Romney is singularly unfortunate in the matter of fires, having had a number of buildings destroyed immediately south of the White House, about a year ago, and which have been since replaced by him with a row of handsome brick structures.

The loss is also severe on Mr. Podlech, the lessee of the premises, his damage amounting to in the vicinity of $3,000, on which there is $1,000 insurance. He was doing a thriving business, and was just recovering from his losses by the fire of last year, which were considerable.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 2.

In Town.—Mr. Crandall, business partner of Mr. E. W. Tullidge, is in town, accompanied by his sister.

"Utah and Its Founders."—A large quantity of copies of this new and interesting work is on the way and will soon arrive.

Postmaster Appointed.—Henry P. Pace has been appointed postmaster at New Harmony, Kane County, Utah.

Box Rents.—The experiment of reducing the box rents to $1.00 per quarter proving unsatisfactory to the Post Office Department, the old rate of $1.50 per quarter has been re-established.

Arrived.—Last evening Bishop Edward Hunter, Bishop John Sharp and John W. Young, Esq., arrived from the east. They were accompanied by the last named gentleman's aunt, sister to his mother, whom she had not seen for forty years or more. Mrs. Pollock was also with the party.

The Emigrants.—The following is a special from Ogden, by Deseret Telegraph, received this afternoon—

"The emigrants will arrive at Ogden to-morrow. They are on a special train. The hour of their arrival at Salt Lake is as yet uncertain."

Delicious.—From Brother John Osgathorne, who resides at the mouth of Mill Creek Cañon, we have a quantity of peaches, which for general excellence we have never seen or tasted any fruit of the kind to surpass them. They are free-stones, of the orange kind, and some of them weigh half a pound each. They are exceedingly juicy and of surpassing delicacy of flavor.

Continued for the Term.—On Saturday afternoon, owing to two days having been spent without succeeding to obtain a jury to try it, Judge Shaeffer continued the Englebrecht case, or, as it is now entitled, the suit of C. Rhemke vs. Jeter Clinton et al, for the term. There being so much business to be attended to during the term, his Honor considered that no more time could be afforded for this case at present.

Broke His Arm.—This morning Henry Love, of the Sixth Ward, was unloading a quantity of castings at the Idaho Bakery, corner of Commercial and Second South streets, when his team took fright and ran away. He caught them by the head, when one of the animals made a plunge, throwing him down, causing one of the wagon wheels to pass over his temple and one of his arms, breaking the latter. He was attended to by Dr. Jos. Richards.

Transit of Vulcan.—Leverrier, the famous French astronomer, says that the transit of the planet Vulcan over the face of the sun will be visible Oct. 2 and 3, to-day and to-morrow. The New York Herald says, "Of all who have lived on the earth it is probable that not half a dozen men have ever seen this mysterious planet that hides itself in light, yet was found by those laws of pure mathematics by which the astronomer discovers facts of the solar system which would otherwise remain forever unknown."

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

Home Manufacture—A Capital Move.—A meeting of the Directors of the Provo Manufacturing Company was held in that city on Saturday. It was there determined to immediately open a store in Salt Lake City for the sale of their products—cloths, flannels, lineys, blankets, shawls, yarns, &c., so that the public may have a reasonable understanding of the progress that is being made in the manufacture of woolen goods in Utah. President Young tendered them the use of the Old Constitution Building gratis, during Conference, which offer was at once accepted, and arrangements were made to commence business without delay in order to take advantage of the Conference trade. We regard this a step in the right direction, and hope our citizens will give the establishment such support as will warrant the directors in making it a permanent institution.

Ogden Relief Society.—On Saturday evening last an entertainment was given for the benefit of this society in the Ogden Theatre. Misses Carrie Cogswell, Susie Marden and Edith Clawson, and Messrs. Forster and Clarke of this city, Mr. Alfred Thorne, and members of the Ogden Dramatic company, produced the play of "Camille," which was followed by an "Olio," and concluded with the "Tower Scene" in the play of "King John," in which Miss Clawson gave her clever rendition of "Prince Arthur." There was a "packed" house, and the general opinion given was that it was an excellent dramatic entertainment.

President F. D. Richards thanked the performers, musicians, etc., all of whom had generously given their services gratuitously, and the audience, on behalf of the Relief Society.

Credit is due Sisters Richards and S. Herriek, the instigators and managers of the entertainment, from the proceeds of which the Relief Society will be benefitted.

Third District Court.—Monday, October 2nd.

Cora Conway vs. Jeter Clinton et al; by consent of the attorneys for the respective parties it is ordered that this cause be continued for the term.

Leonard I. Smith, vs. W. H. Lee; cause passed.

J. N. Drainer, vs. Bradley et al; dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Mary Admire vs. Robert T. Burton; leave given to open deposition of C. M. Stevens.

Mary O'Brien vs. Hanks and Sleater; C. H. Morgan appointed a referee.

Wines and Kimball, vs. Stevens and Shurtliff; on application of plaintiff's attorney, and affidavit of plaintiff Kimball, a continuance was granted, and the case set for trial on Monday, Oct. 9.

Sol. J. Despain vs. Flagstaff S. M. Co.; leave given to open deposition.

Tabernacle Meeting.—Elder Wilford Woodruff addressed the congregation, showing in his discourse the antiquity and unchangeableness of the gospel, being eternally the same. He also treated upon the nature of its gifts and graces, which were enjoyed by those obedient to its requirements. After describing the character of the plan, principles and ordinances that existed among the ancient servants and people of God, he bore a powerful testimony to the restoration of the same divine system through the instrumentality of the prophet Joseph Smith, who received the authority to stand at the head of this latter-day dispensation, and the keys pertaining to its opening, by the ministration of holy angels and by revelation from Jesus Christ, the knowledge of which fact was the cause of so many thousands of people leaving the lands of their nativity and gathering to this place, in accordance with the predictions of the prophets and the designs of God.

He was followed by Elder John Nicholson, who spoke briefly upon the causes leading to the gathering of the thousands of people of various nationalities, characterizing it as the turning point in the history of this creation, to check the tendency to misrule and corruption that was rapidly spreading in the world and deteriorating the race, and would, in its beneficial operations, establish the principles and sentiments of universal brotherhood. He concluded by testifying to having received a knowledge that God had restored the gospel in its fullness to the earth in these latter times.

Re-Arrested.—On Saturday afternoon William G. Williams was arrested at the instance of the Deseret National Banking Company, on a charge of stealing railroad bonds amounting, in the aggregate, to $3,000, which had been forwarded, through Wells, Fargo & Co., to the banking company named, and were a portion of the property of which the express car was robbed a short time since, while Williams was in the employ of Wells, Fargo & Co., as express messenger. He was taken before U. S. Commissioner Sprague and released, on giving bonds amounting to $3,000, to answer to the grand jury.

Williams' bonds now amount to $13,000, those on the first charge being $10,000.

We understand that the cause of his arrest the second time was the finding of an additional clue to the perpetrators of the robbery.

COLFAX SMILING AROUND.

A SOUTH Bend, Ind., correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of Sept. 17, represents Mr. Charles H. Murray as saying of a quondam political notability—

"Colfax could do no good for the republicans by being here. He has degenerated fearfully and his chief ambition now is to preside over a ward or hose company meeting, where ten or twenty men come together. He is fast losing his head and is thought very lightly of. He lives well, however, and is delighted that people pay for his cigars and give him his meals for nothing, never dreaming that they do it from the sentiment attaching to the fact that he was once Vice-President of the United States. Colfax has come to be a regular bumner and spends most of his time knocking about the country. He left here lately because, as he said to Mr. A. B. Wade, the postmaster, there was no use remaining, as the democrats would surely carry the State, so he went to the Philadelphia Exhibition, a convenient retreat for most of the alarmed republicans."
