Deceased was born in Meredith, New Hampshire, Sept. 10, 1828, was baptized when about 21 years old, and emigrated to Utah in 1861. He was a carpenier by trade. He built several important buildings in Salt Lake City: was a close friend of President Brigham Young and the authorities of the Church while he lived in Salt Lake. He was called by President Brigham Young is 1873 to go to Arizona; came as far as Johnson, Kane county, Utah, and met some re-turning from Arizona, and President turning from Arizona, and President Young advised him to locate at Kanab and help build up this part of the coun-try, thus becoming one of the early pioneers of this southern country. He was one of the presidents of the Eightyfifth quorum of Seventy, organized in Kanab in 1885; and was one of the most aithful in his labors, always at his post of duty: he was a meek and humble man, kind to the poor, had embraced all the laws of the Gospel, and was in-deed one of God's noblemen. He leaves a wife and nine children a number of grand children and friends to mourn his departure.

Fue ral services were held on the 28th uit, at the stake building. Elder Lars K. Larsen left on the 9th rist. to perform a mission in Scandina-via. Before leaving, his friends gath-ered at his home to bid him goodbye, and made him a substantial present, which was highly appreciated.

EVERY ELECTOR VOTED.

The recent election held here can justly be termed a model one; every registered voter cast a ballot; the scratching, however, was appalling, and in one district the judges did not finish the canvassing till 12 noon on the 9th.

SHOCKING CANYON ACCIDENT.

Alexander Kohler Instantly Killed-Death of Mrs. Jacob Kummer.

Special Correspondence. Midway, Wasatch Co., Nov. 12 .-

Yesterday afternoon, Alexander Koh-ler, a promising young man of 19 years of age, was instantly killed. While coming down Snake Creek canyon with a load of wood, the wagon reach broke and tipped the wagon over, and in the fall the young man broke his neck. Arnold Boss a boy about 11 years of age, was with him, but was not riding on the load, as the road was rough and rocky and on a steep grade, he was walking behind, and when he got to the scene of the sad accident, he tried to arouse Mr. Kohler, but he showed no signs of life. The boy managed to unhicth one horse, but the other was lying flat on the ground and he was not able to loosen it. He then got on the horse and came to town and reported the sad accident to the family, and in a short time his father and brothers with a good many others were speeding up the canyon with vehicles and on horse back. The boy while coming down, told the news to Nephi Huber, he and John Ruegsegger started right up, while the boy came to town about three miles further. Nephi arrived at the sad scene first, and found Mr. Kohler as stated above. They put him on a horse and started down the canyon, and shortly after met the men with a vehicle. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Any stock on which this assessment may remain unpaid on the 5th day of December, 1904, will be delinquent and will be advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold on Saturday, the Sth day of December, 1004, at 10 oclock a. m., at the Scoretary's office, to pay the delinquent assessment thereon, to-gether with the coast of advertising and expense of sale. By order of the Board of Directors, MARTIN S. LINDSAY, Secretary. Room 510 Templeton Building, Salt Lake City, Utah. this locality, for in some of those settlements farther north the wheat crops were ruined, but in the settlements south of Shelley the wheat, fruit, corn and in fact all other crops were very good. At the Bingham county fair, held several weeks ago, the display of fruits, beets, corn, melons, squashes, etc., was as fine as we ever saw anywhere.

The new sugar factory, owned by the Snake River Valley company, started up Nov. 9, and it is turning out an excellent quality of sugar. Work has been plentiful here this year and prosperity smiles on every hand. The great necessity in this section is more industrious people to assist in bringing into cultivation the thousands of broad acres which await the hand of industry to convert them into fruitful fields, and when the actual condition and advantages which are offered here are known, many people will be glad to come here and receive with us the benefits of this goodly land.
