The franchises desired by the Oregon Short Line and Rio Grande Western Railroad companies for a union depot in Salt Lake City, passed at last evening's session of the City Council, There was some opposition to the passage of the ordinances granting the franchises, and when the final vote was taken it stood as follows: Ayes-Beatty, Buckle, Canning, Cottrell, Hartenstein, Hewlett, Howe (Edgar), Robertson, Thomas, Tuddenham, Whittemore-11. Noes-Howe (C. R.), Fernstrom, Reid-2. Absent-Gemmell-1.

The depot is to cost not less than $200.000 The site is on the two blocks bounded pose. The suggestion at once met with hearty approval and the ladies met on last Saturday and decided to start toby Third West on the east, Fourth West on the west, Second South on the north and Fourth South on the south. ments having already been advanced The main entrance will be on Third South street from the east, and the building proper will be in the center of Third South street, standing flush with Fourth West street, on which the railroad tracks will run.

The grant from the city embraces three separate franchises. One is to the Union Depot company, represented by W. H. Bancroft of the Oregon Short Line, and D.C. Dodge of the Rio Grande Western. Third South street, between Third and Fourth West will be closed as a public thoroughfare in order to allow the depot company sufficient track-age on the north and south sides to run trains into and out of the depot.

The second franchise is to the Rio Grand Western Railroad company, granting it an additional track on Fourth West and right of way over the intersecting streets and closing Third South street for a block and a half from Fifth West street to the middle of the block between Sixth and Seventh West street, at present occupied by railroad tracks. The third ordinance grants the Ore-gon Short Line additional trackage on Fourth West street and right of way over the intersecting street, additional trackage in North Salt Lake, and closes as a public thoroughfare South Te street between Third and Fourth West streets. While all the members were a unit on the depot proposition, there was op-position to the granting of additional trackage and the closing of streets.

LAIRD-ROACH CASE. Men Accused of Befouling Water Are on Trial.

The case against Edward Laird and William Roach, accused of befouling the waters of Parley's creek, came up before Justice Timmony yesterday af-ternoon. The defendants were represented by Attorney Waldemar Van Cott and Frank B. Stephens prosecuted. The witnesses for the city were Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield, and water Commissioner westerneid, Deputy Gibbs, City Physician King, City Engineer Kelsey, A. S. Geddes, F. M. Day and R. J. Jessup, The de-fense presented Edward Laird and son,

James Taggart, W. M. Roach, Martin

Garn and J. A. Smith. Wiltnesses for the city testified that the drainage from the barn yards of defendants ran into the creek, and on diferent occasions witnesses had observed stock belonging to defendant Laird in the stream. The testimony of City Engineer Kelsey went to show that the slant of the corral grounds toward the creek was at east ten feet to the one hundred. No effort was made by the defense to prove that the nuisance did not exist, but it was shown that every effort was made to clean the places up and prevent the drainage as much as possible. The argument of the attorneys will probably be made and the case be concluded by tomorrow.

TRIED TO ROB HIM.

J. P. Madsen Has an Exciting Experience With a Couple of Thugs.

About 8:80 last night as J. P. Madsen of 758 east Third South, was going homeward along Fourth South, between Third and Fourth East, two toughs attempted to rob him. He says that the men jumped from behind trees and endeavored to seize him. Although not exceed seventy-five pounds. taken by surprise, Mr. Madsen evaded his assailants and reached for his re-volver. The men became frightened and ran rapidly away, going in opposite directions. One of the would-be hold-ups lost his hat in his flight. Madsen secured the "sky-piece" and turned it ever to Chief Hilton this morning. The officers recognize the hat as be-longing to a tough character in town, and who is sure to be landed soon.

TRIED TO USE A KNIFE.

Drunken Man Whom Chief Hilton Arrested Shows Murderous Disposition.

While standing out in front of the police station this morning Chief Hilton observed a man named Bill Lenard, of South Cottonwood, staggering along the sidewalk and concluded to take him in. Lenard had imbibed a considerable quantity of murder-breeding whisky and showed fight. While Chief Hilton was searching him Lenard pulled a knife out of his pocket and would have undoubtedly reduced the chief's cloth-ing to mere strings had he not been too quick for him. He was locked up on the charge of drunkenness.
