LOCAL BRIEFS.

May Reduce Capital—The directors of the Continental Life Insurance and Investment company propose to reduce the company's capital stock from $500,000 to $375,000, making the share $75 instead of $100.

Democrats to Celebrate—The birthday of Thomas Jefferson will be celebrated by Salt Lake Democrats next Friday afternoon, at 838 Eighth East street, when Mrs. F. S. Richards will speak on the life of the great statesman.

Will Reside Here—The transfer was recorded yesterday afternoon, of the Salt Lake residence of Dr. E. B. Woodruff to P. A. Droubay of Tooele for $13,500. The house is located at Third and Q streets, and the transfer includes the furniture. The purchaser will make his home in this city.

Bad Boy Arrested—Deputy Sheriff Isaac Emery yesterday afternoon arrested Dayton Farnestmaker at Murray and will take the lad back to the industrial school. This was the second time the boy has escaped from the industrial school since his commitment by Judge Armstrong a month ago.

Visited the Dam—H. W. Shelley of the reclamation survey returned last evening from his trip to the site of the Strawberry Valley dam. Mr. Shelley made the 40 mile ride from Heber City in two days, on horseback, and says that the snow is the deepest that has fallen in 10 years, being four and five feet deep.

Will Meet on Thursday—The Daughters of the "Mormon" Battalion will hold their regular monthly meeting next Thursday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Philo T. Farnsworth, 135 east South Temple street. John H. Murdock of Beaver, one of the Italian survivors, will recite a few personal reminiscences, and there will be a musical program, and refreshments served.

Pioneer a Visitor—George Matson, aged 79, of Springfield, is visiting in this city with his son Clarence Matson. The old gentleman monthly meeting the original 47 pioneers, and was a member of the party sent by Brigham Young in 1849 to the Pacific coast to find a route over which supplies might be brought to Salt Lake from the ocean ports rather than depend on the plains route.

Completed by June 15—Local Agent C. O. Harris of the American De Forest Wireless Telegraph company states that the Salt Lake city station will be completed and in operation by June 15, and this will be followed by the erection of similar stations in various cities and towns of Utah and the intermountain country. The erection of the Salt Lake city station will complete the chain of high power transcontinental stations of the company.

Season's Organ Recitals—The free organ recital in the Tabernacle for the season of 1906 will begin Tuesday, April 24 next, at 5:10 p. m., and continue every Tuesday and Friday at this hour. The doors will be locked at the minute of commencement of the recitals, and not open until the close so that people who can not remain through the recitals would do well not to attend. Children under 6 years of age will not be admitted under any circumstances.

To Meet Tuesday—A meeting of the governing board of the Civic Improvement league is called for this Tuesday, evening in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., in accordance with the adjournment of the board of directors a week ago. A number of the committees have been aggressive in their work, and Vice President Hewlett, in the absence of President Stephens, expects that thorough consideration will be given to several matters of large interest to the city.

Church Chronology—A new edition of the familiar "Church Chronology," compiled in the historian's office, has just been issued with a supplement carrying the work from 1898 to the end of 1905. No changes occur in the earlier pages, but a supplement is added containing the years since 1899 and in addition to that a new index is made especially for the supplement. The new compilation is by Andrew Jensen, assistant historian of the church, and is carefully and accurately made.

Odd Fellows Election—The Veteran Odd Fellows association of this city will hold its annual election of officers on Wednesday evening in L. O. O. F. hall. A number of candidates will also be admitted to membership at the meeting. The association is the second one of its kind in America, the only other one being in St. Louis. In order to be eligible to membership the applicant must have been a member of the Odd Fellows lodge in good standing for at least 25 consecutive years. On April 25 the association will give its annual banquet in its hall.

Bananas and Scorpion—Mrs. L. M. Hickman who has a fruit stand at Fourth West and Second South streets, will be careful next time she handles a bunch of bananas. She was pulling one off a bunch yesterday afternoon, when a scorpion that had been packed in with the fruit at harvesting, came out and fastened on her hand. Mrs. Hickman did what most women would have done under the circumstances, she screamed and ran into the street. Dr. T. H. Hazel was called in, and dressed the badly swollen hand, so that it is believed she will recover. The scorpion was killed and is now decently interred—in alcohol.

ANOTHER ACTION AGAINST BROWN.

Serious Allegations Made in a Writ of Certiorari.

JURISDICTION IS ATTACKED.

Claimed Juvenile Court Sent Boy to State Industrial School Without Even Giving Him a Trial.

The action of the judge of the juvenile court in committing boys to the industrial school and depriving them of their liberty without any evidence being introduced against them whatever, is again to be brought before the courts. A petition for a writ of certiorari has been filed in the supreme court by Emil Hill, who asks that the proceedings taken by Judge Brown at the time he committed Albert E. Hill, the 13-year-old son of the petitioner, to the reform school be reviewed by the court and be set aside. The petition also attacks the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

It is alleged in the petition that the boy was accused of petty larceny last November, and placed on probation, and that on March 13 of this year he was again brought before the court upon a similar charge and without being granted any trial or any evidence being introduced against him he was ordered committed to the industrial school.

When the boy was first brought before the court, the petition recites the following conversation, which occurred and which was the entire proceedings in the case:

JUDGE USED SLANG.

"Come up here, Albert. Is your mother alive?"

"No, sir; my father is."

"You stole some cigars, didn't you?"

"No, sir; I did not, but the other boy."

"No, don't peach. You were there when those cigars were stolen, weren't you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you smoke?"

"No, sir."

"Have you ever smoked?"

"I smoked once, and it made me sick. I haven't smoked since."

"Then you stole those cigars just to get stealing?"

(No answer.)

"You have nothing to say. You admit stealing a thief. Here the court called another boy to him and addressing Albert E. Hill continued: Just look at this kid; this yellow skin comes from smoking cigars. First you smoke cigars, then you will smoke a pipe, then cigarettes and then you will smoke him and become a dope fiend. I could send you to Ogden, but I will sentence you to an indefinite sentence."

COMMITTED ANYWAY.

The boy was then placed on probation and was compelled to report to the court weekly. On March 13 the boy was again up before the court, when it is alleged, the following conversation took place:

The Court—Well, that's just where you are wrong, just the same. (To the clerk.) Make out his commitment papers.

Emil Hill—Well, judge, I did not expect anything like this. I do not want my boy sent to the industrial school.

The Court—Yes, you can start habeas corpus proceedings against this court, but you had better save your money, as the court is strong enough to withstand their money fighting this court. If Albert behaves himself he will get out in about eight months, and if you start proceedings against this court, you will be in the county jail in the meantime.

Upon such a proceeding, the petition alleges that the boy was sent to Ogden to the industrial school. It is asked that the proceedings be reviewed by the supreme court, and that they be set aside, certiorari, which is returnable before the court on April 14.

DENIED THE MOTION

Of Plaintiff to Set Aside Award in Case of Arbitration Agreement.

Judge Lewis of the district court has denied plaintiff's motion to set aside the award of the arbitrators in the case of Juan Castina against Joseph Smith and James Sharp in his representative on the board and the defendant chose W. W. Riter and John R. Barnes. The arbitrators decided that plaintiff had been defrauded and after the award had been filed in the district court plaintiff made a motion to set the same aside. This motion has now been denied by Judge Lewis and the award sustained.

ASKS $15,000 DAMAGES.

Juan Castina Makes an Allegation of False Imprisonment.

Damages in the sum of $15,000 for alleged false imprisonment are asked by Juan Castina in an action filed in the district court against the Davis Shoe company and Aaron Levitt. It is alleged that plaintiff was arrested on March 16, 1906, at the instigation of the defendants upon a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. He was kept in jail for seven hours and was then released upon bail in the sum of $100. The fact of his arrest and imprisonment was widely published and has resulted in great loss both in business and character. On March 17, he was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl and was discharged. Plaintiff was engaged in the general delivery business. By reason of the actions of defendant he claims that he has been damaged in the sum stated above.

COURT NOTES.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Varrell Dudley against Laura Dudley on the ground of desertion. The parties were married in this city on Dec. 13, 1904, and it is alleged that the desertion occurred over a year ago.

Suit has been filed in the district court by James M. Campbell against
