

A "RESTAURANT" GOWN.

This beautiful gown is made of white crepe de chine, the lace being applied into the material and the seams all fagotted together. The lace is of cream silk, with some motifs of embroidery introduced, and Chantilly edgings. The yoke and cuffs are of tucked white mousseline de soie, with killed ruffles of the same trimming as the waist and sleeves. The underpiece is of salmon pink taffeta, the folded belt of satin ribbon being of same shade.

SOCIETY

The rooms were prettily decorated, and about 50 guests enjoyed the affair.

The plans for a reception at the Alt club this season have materialized and the date for the revival is set for Thursday, Jan. 14. The invitations will be limited to club members and their ladies.

Miss Mary Cowan entertained the members of her sewing club and their escorts at a "Proposal" party on New Year's eve, the affair being an unique and entertaining one. The game consisted of an interchange of rings, hearts and mittens, and prizes were given to the girl receiving the greatest number of rings, and the boy having the greatest number of hearts at the end of the contest.

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham entertained at the third in a series of luncheons on Thursday, the affair being a delightful one.

Mrs. William Reid will give a tea on next Friday for Miss Jane Mackintosh, whose wedding takes place on the 19th.

Mrs. W. W. Riter gave a watch party on New Year's eve, her guests being entertained in royal style.

Miss Lulu Penrose was among the hostesses at watch parties, on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Whitney entertained at dinner last night, covers being laid for 25.

Mrs. Winslow V. Rice entertained at luncheon today at the Knutsford, the appointments being most elaborate. On next Tuesday the second in the series will be given at the same place.

A delightful hop was given at the Fifth East hotel on New Year's eve, the guests being received by Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Winkling and the Misses Ross and Jennings. The entire lower floor was used, and rugs, divans, palms, flowers and colored lights made the scene a most attractive one. An orchestra, stationed behind a screen of palms, rendered delightful music for the dancers, and refreshments were served in buffet style in the dining room.

Among the interesting announcements of the week was that of the engagement of Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith and Mr. William H. Curtin of St. Joseph, Mo.

The wedding of Miss Lucy Austin Howitt and Sydney K. Hooper took place this week in Denver at the bride's home, and the newly married couple have arrived in Salt Lake to make their home.

The assembly halls are an assured feature of the post-holiday season and committees have been formed to take charge of the various details.

A pleasant affair of last night was the dancing party given by a number of the college boys at home on their holiday vacation. The affair took place at the Ladies' Literary club and was thoroughly enjoyable.

The Misses Stella and Elsie Cobb entertained at a luncheon on Monday, the prizes in the contest being won by June Whittemore and Ida Legg.

Miss Winifred Hardy was one of the week's hostesses, entertaining a number of her friends at a pleasant afternoon affair at her home in Darlington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Delano entertained at a winist party on Wednesday night.

Mrs. George Phelps Holman entertained the members of the card club at her home on Tuesday.

The Billie club gave an enjoyable dancing party at Unity hall this week.

Miss Bessie Croxall entertained at a leap year party at her home last night.

Miss Norine Thompson was hostess at two enjoyable dancing parties this week, about 20 of her young friends being present at each.

The Hesperian club gave its usual dance at Unity hall on Wednesday night.

Mrs. A. B. Wither entertained delightfully at a Kensington on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. J. G. Sawyer of Nevada. The afternoon was delightfully spent, and the guests enjoyed a "Welsh rarebit" supper before leaving.

Mrs. Slade entertained the Third Street Card club at her home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kimball held a family reunion at their home on Monday night, in honor of Mrs. Lydia C. Longbeir of California. About 40 of the family of the late Heber C. Kimball were present, and an enjoyable time spent.

Will Pischel has returned from a pleasant visit with Denver friends.

Miss Edna Dwyer left this week for New York, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ada Dwyer-Russell, for the coming month.

Miss McPherson of Park City is spending the holidays with Mrs. John T. Donnellan.

Mrs. A. B. Wallace of Denver is the guest of Mrs. Ferdinand Dickler.

Miss Kathryn Romney has gone to Panguitch canyon, where she will be the guest of Judge Lee's family for a few days.

Mrs. George M. Downey left Wednesday for Denver to visit Mr. and Mrs. George F. Downey.

Captain and Mrs. Guy Palmer have been stationed at Fort Crook, near Omaha. Captain Palmer has already gone to his post, and Mrs. Palmer will leave today to join him.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle are home from New York, where they have spent the past two months with their children there.

Miss Beth Dunbar is home from her school in Chicago, spending the holidays with her mother at Whitehall.

Miss Maud May Babcock is visiting in Philadelphia, and is not expected to return until the latter part of January.

Charles Dull returned yesterday from Chicago, where he has been spending the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Jr., expect to leave soon for a two months' visit to California.

Miss Elizabeth Cosgriff returned yesterday.

AT HOME.

JANUARY 2, 1904.

"I shall pass this way but once—any good thing, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it now. Let me not defer it nor neglect it for I shall not pass this way again."—Anon.

SOCIAL CHAT

The social interest of the week has clustered about New Year's day, and there were the usual numbers who kept open house, the day for the most part being pleasantly spent. Among the more elaborate and larger affairs were those given by Gov. and Mrs. Wells, Col. Hubb at Fort Douglas, and Miss Lillian Woodward and Miss Marian Rookledge in honor of Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Davis. Besides these were a large number of others more or less formal in nature, all helping to usher in the New Year with social cheer.

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham entertained at a delightful luncheon on Tuesday, her guests numbering 12. The table was beautifully decorated in red and green, red palm-trees being used with holly for the centerpiece, and sprays of holly for favors with the place cards, which were decorated also with the holly. Cardstickers with red and green, red shades completed the artistic effect. White was used in decorating the other rooms.

On Wednesday Mrs. Cunningham entertained at a second luncheon, this function being in honor of Mrs. Ernest Hamberger. The table decorations, as before, were in the holiday colors, and beautifully carried out. Covers were laid for 12.

The first large affair at the post this season took place on Tuesday night, and the event was a most delightful one. The dancing hall was effectively decorated in the holiday colors intermingled with military emblems, and a delicious supper was enjoyed at 11 o'clock at the officers' hall. In the evening party, Capt. and Mrs. Falls, and Lieut. and Mrs. Taylor. About 125 guests enjoyed the evening.

The largest and most elaborate event of the week was the Bohemian banquet given at the Commercial club on Tuesday night, under the direction of Messrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and J. J. McClellan. Flowers, feasting, music and song made up the entertainment, which was altogether delightful. The occasion deserves to be made annual.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth entertained at an informal dinner on Thursday.

One of the pleasant informal teas of the week was that given by Mrs. Whiteside O'Connor on Thursday in honor of Mrs. J. G. Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer entertained a number of their friends on Thursday night in honor of their silver wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moritz entertained at an elaborate dinner at their home on New Year's eve, covers being laid for 12. The table was decorated in red, carnations forming the centerpiece, and red shaded candelabra standing at either side. A large ball of carnations was suspended from the chandelier, and the New Year was ushered in, the ball opened, letting fall a shower of telegrams containing the season's greetings from the hosts, and also from distant friends.

Last night the young ladies of the Unitarian church gave a "coterie calendar" entertainment, followed by a dance. The affair took place at Unity hall, and was most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hegeman will entertain at a musicale next Tuesday night.

On Monday night Miss Nellie Lahnach entertained a number of her friends informally at her home, the evening being pleasantly spent with music and other pastimes.

Miss Mildred Ott entertained the "Jolly Chique" club at her home on Thursday night.

Miss Geneva Clark entertained at cards on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. C. D. Roberts entertained at an informal tea on Thursday in honor of her sister Mrs. Dockery of Boise.

MELLIN'S FOOD

If you want your baby to grow and be strong, healthy and happy, use Mellin's Food.

50 beautifully printed pages of helpful hints about "The Care and Feeding of Infants" bound in cloth, will be sent you free if you ask for it.

CLUB CHAT.

The U. W. P. club met at the Exposition office Dec. 25, President Lucy S. Clark in the chair. The meeting opened with prayer by Dr. Romania B. Pratt. Roll was called and answered by Bible quotations. Mrs. E. B. Wells read suggestions given by the program committee as to items of current events. Mrs. E. Wilcox gave current events dwelling especially upon the new element radium. An interesting discussion followed. A most interesting paper was read by the president, Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, entitled "Is the Absence of Religion in the Public Schools Responsible for Agnosticism and a Descending State of Morals of the Day?" A spirited discussion followed in which all members took part. Mrs. E. B. Wells then read an original poem, "Christmas Eve." Meeting adjourned to Jan. 30 which is the last Saturday in the month.

Next Tuesday will be Federation day meeting with the Cleofan, the club to meet at the home of Miss Emmeline Wells at 2:30. The program will include talks upon federation matters by Mrs. C. S. Kinney and Mrs. McMahon, president and secretary respectively of the Utah federation, and also a talk upon "Art in the Nineteenth Century" by Mrs. A. C. Ewing. The presidents of all the clubs are invited to be present and each member may invite a guest.

The Home Decoration section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet on Monday at 10:30 o'clock and Mrs. Plummer will give a paper on "Ancient and Medieval Architecture."

The meeting of the Poughkeepsie society was held Thursday afternoon, December 23, at the home of Miss Corbin.

The annual meeting of the Poet's Round Table club will be held next week.

The P. E. O. society met this afternoon.

The New York state branch of the National Society, United States Daughters of 1812, has had its attention drawn to newspaper articles regarding the neglected grave of John Paul Jones in Paris. Mrs. George A. Ludin has been appointed to confer with the secretary of the navy in order to find out what action, if any, the society can take in the matter. Last season the society passed a resolution regarding the patriotic work at Crab Island, where the dead of the battle of Lake Champlain lie in neglected graves, and they have lately heard with satisfaction that the secretary of war last summer ordered a dike placed on the island, giving a sort of promise of the ultimate completion of the work proposed there.

The children of Eureka gave a dance at I. O. O. F. hall on New Year's day. The hall was crowded with little folks who had a joyous time. The orchestra was composed of little boys who furnished very good dancing music.

The ball given at L. D. S. church on New Year's eve, under the auspices of Eureka Miners' union No. 13, was largely attended, and was a success in every particular.

The two dances given at the L. D. S. church for the young folks and at the I. O. O. F. hall for the married people on New Year's night under the direction of the Ladies' Republican club of Eureka were socially and financially successful and were largely attended. The ladies also served an excellent supper in the Poynter building during the evening.

Miss Mable Hopper is entertaining Miss Christina Johnston of Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. Mary Sanders of Gunnison, Colo., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dan Martin.

Miss Katherine Mathes of Salt Lake is the guest of Miss Katherine Kar Kendall at the Hotel Mammoth.

Miss Ira Thomas is the guest of Ogden relatives and friends.

Mrs. George Ryan of Telluride, Colo., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson.

Mrs. Joseph Phillips and children are visiting with Spanish Fork friends.

Mrs. Mary Lentshof of Salt Lake is spending a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tullbach.

Advertisement for F. Auercach & Bro. Dressmaking. Established 1864. One price to all. Never undersold. Special Prices Monday. Our Dress Making Department shall make special prices. On every gown for which we receive an order to be made at once. This applies to all kinds of Street, Party and House Gowns, to be made under the supervision of Madam Cawthorne in charge of our Popular Dressmaking Division.

and Dr. R. S. Joyce. The table decorations were very beautiful with lilac and white pink and red carnations. Each lady and gentleman received a carnation. At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jarvis, 354 Twenty-eighth street, Wednesday evening, a pretty wedding took place, when her talented young daughter, Miss Florence E. Jones, was married to Mr. R. J. Hart, Rev. Blair of the Methodist church officiating. There were present only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. A luncheon repast was served. The bride and groom are both very popular in Ogden. The groom is a well known Southern Pacific employe. They will make their home in Ogden. Thursday evening David Eccles, H. H. Rolapp, H. H. Spencer and Thomas D. Dee went to Logan to attend the annual ball of the Logan Sugar factory workers. The marriage of Mrs. Cora Snyder to Mr. Charles Cross was one of the leading social events of the week. The ceremony was performed at the house of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, 470 Twenty-fourth street by Rev. Ora C. Wright. There were present only the relatives of the contracting parties. A sumptuous wedding repast was served. The bride is one of Ogden's most popular milliners and a leader in social circles. The groom is one of the foremost civil engineers of the Southern Pacific. Mr. and Mrs. Cross will make their home in Ogden for the present but may go to California to reside. The concert given Wednesday evening at the Ogden tabernacle under the direction of Prof. Coop was one of the most pleasing musical events of the season. The artists who took part on the program were W. W. Walker, violinist, Charles Kent, baritone, Arthur Shepherd and Squire Coop, pianists, Mrs. Bessie Dean Allison, Miss Maud Dee Porter and Mrs. Alice B. Clark, vocalists. The chorus work done by the High school girls was well received. The entire program reflects credit on all who took part. The grand ball given by the Woodmen of the World Wednesday evening at Dignan's was a thorough success. The drill work done by the degree team was well executed. EUREKA. A very pleasant Christmas party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Love on Church street. The evening was very pleasant. Afternoon and evening were spent with music and songs. Among the guests assembled were Rev. Dr. Bain and family, Rev. James Stoddard, Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac E. Diehl of Robinson and Mrs. Hattie of Silver City. A delicious Christmas dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Love. The children of Eureka gave a dance at I. O. O. F. hall on New Year's day. The hall was crowded with little folks who had a joyous time. The orchestra was composed of little boys who furnished very good dancing music. The ball given at L. D. S. church on New Year's eve, under the auspices of Eureka Miners' union No. 13, was largely attended, and was a success in every particular. The two dances given at the L. D. S. church for the young folks and at the I. O. O. F. hall for the married people on New Year's night under the direction of the Ladies' Republican club of Eureka were socially and financially successful and were largely attended. The ladies also served an excellent supper in the Poynter building during the evening. Miss Mable Hopper is entertaining Miss Christina Johnston of Salt Lake this week. Mrs. Mary Sanders of Gunnison, Colo., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dan Martin. Miss Katherine Mathes of Salt Lake is the guest of Miss Katherine Kar Kendall at the Hotel Mammoth. Miss Ira Thomas is the guest of Ogden relatives and friends. Mrs. George Ryan of Telluride, Colo., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson. Mrs. Joseph Phillips and children are visiting with Spanish Fork friends. Mrs. Mary Lentshof of Salt Lake is spending a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tullbach. The young ladies of the Mutual Improvement association gave a basket

GET IN LINE! The Great SELLING-OUT SALE Starts Monday Morning at 9 o'clock at F. AUERCACH & BRO. Just Read Page 24.

CALL US UP at once and tell us what you want done. We do anything you can think of connected with the care of a house or office—not only cleaning but especially cleaning. National House Cleaning Co. 131 South Main St., Phone 1070 k.

DURING THE WINTER MONTHS Travelers will naturally want to cut the time they are en route to the East as short as possible. THE UNION PACIFIC AND CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL LINE Is the route to select on an Eastern trip if you are anxious to make your trip a short one. C. S. WILLIAMS, Commercial Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. 106 W. Second South St., Salt Lake City, Utah.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.