Last Sunday evening we had over 70 people present. A number could not get into our hall. Over one-half of them were investigators. We have several applications for baptism, and this into our hall. Over one-half of them were investigators. We have several applications for baptism, and this morning I received a letter from Elders Grow and Simons giving us the joyful news of 10 baptisms during the last two weeks at Bloemfontein. I am of the opinion that a good work can be done here in South Africa. I am sure we must have another hall in the near fu-ture I feel that the Lord is blessing our labors here. I do hope there will be more elders sent here soon. All the elders are very busy, indeed, and time seems to fly with them."

Hans Jensen, We were called to administer to a little boy whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, are members of the Church in the Butte branch. The boy had a large growth on his head, and the doctors said it could not be cured and gave it up. A short time after the elders ad-ministered to him the growth last blat ministered to him the growth left his head, and it has been three months since he was healed and he is still en-joying the best of health.

The following case of healing was witnessed in the same family: Presi-dent G. B. Wilson and myself were called to administer to their little girl, who had an abscess of the throat and ear, and the doctors said there would have to be an operation performed on the child or she would die. We admin the child or she would die. We admin-istered to her and at once she was re-lleved of the pain, and it was but a short time (ill she was enjoying good short time till she was enjoying good health. There were also people present not of our faith who witnessed the cases of healings and bore testimony to others of the fact. Curses of healing also occurred in Mr. A. L. Anderson's family. Chicago, Iils., June 15.—President H. S. Vance, writing from the Michi-gan conference reports the elders en-joying their company work. People are treating them splendidly. They hardly need to ask for a meal and are often invited to remain over night without asking. They have no trouble in getting crowds for street meetings, or notices in the newspapers. Never before have the elders been so blessed In disnosing of books. The same word n disposing of books. The same word mess from every conference in the mission. The people are glad to listen to the message of the gospel and friends are being made by every com-pany of elders in the field. Elder William D. Petty of the Wismission.

Elder William D. Petty of the Wis-consin conference, has been called to the office to assist in the work. The office force is kept busy and is doing its utmost to assist the elders in mak-ing the summer work a success. Elder George N. Curtis, of Logan, and Charles T. Pope, of Vernal, Utah, have been honorably released to re-turn home. Elder Curtis spent the first eight months of his mission tract-ing in the city of Chicago, acted as mission secretary for 20 months, then ing in the city of Chicago, acted as mission secretary for 20 months, then was called to Minnesota, where he has presided over the conference since the first of January. CHICAGO NOTES.

We were glad to see a numb summer school students at church Sunday. We hope to enjoy their as-sociation and support as we have those church sociation and support as we have those who attended school here last winter. Prof. John M. Mills leaves this week for Utah, where he will spend the summer. Success has come to him in his school work and as teacher and student he has been kept busy, yet Sunday morning has always found him at our Sabbath school, where he has been teacher of the theological class. We have been studying the Book of Mormon and every member of the class feels that it has been a privilege to study under such an efficient

His class numbers 167. He has first blace in musical pedagogy and has re-ceived many words of commendation from his teachers and associates. He has also taken out a diploma for plano. With his other work he has studied the pipe organ and has be-comevery proficient. He bids fair as a composer and has already written a number of excellent pieces. Brother Mann has been leader of our Chicago choir since the beginning of the year and the present condition bears evidence that his ability as a choir leader is equal to his other lines of work. We congratulate him upon his success.
