CONWAY IS NOT YET FOUND.

More Frauds Discovered in Missing Broker's Accounts.

FORGED NAME TO DRAFT.

Investigation of Conway's Affairs—Sheriff Howells Presumably Has a Clue—He May Have Gone East.

The report that P. J. Conway, the absconding broker, who left here last Tuesday evening, had been apprehended at Pocatello, was an error. It is said, however, that a conductor on one of the northern trains had conversed with him, and that Conway had told him that he was going to Omaha. The particular conductor cannot be located.

Sheriff Howells has left for the East, and although he merely stated that he was going on official business, it is supposed that he has a clue as to Conway's whereabouts, and has gone after him. Conway has a brother at Cheyenne, and it is possible that he has gone there. It is not probable that a very strenuous effort will be made to apprehend the defaulter, as most of those who have suffered losses at his hands seem to have no disposition to pursue him.

All day yesterday Conway's office was filled by insurance agents and those who are investigating his accounts, and as the research progresses more fraud is unearthed. It now appears that Conway forged the name of W. H. Boothe Jr., to a draft for $17,500, sent here by L. G. Lautenheimer to pay off a mortgage on County property that he was buying. Conway cashed the draft and represented to Boothe that the owner of the property was traveling, but that as soon as he returned he would tender him the draft and release the mortgage. This is thought by some to be the main cause of his flight, but there is another case of forgery discovered in the files of the county recorder's office, bearing date of January, 1899. It was a mortgage for $1,600, executed to S. H. Fields of Atlanta, Illinois, father of S. H. Fields Jr., who is now in the city, and purporting to have been signed by four parties named Newball. The property is described as lot 1, block 33, plat B. The acknowledgments purport to have been taken by C. S. Simpson, an alleged notary whom no one knows to exist, or to have ever existed as a notary.

Some of Conway's friends say that it is a mistake to suppose that he was an extravagant liver, and they go so far as to say that he was almost miserly with his means, and was not conspicuous as a lady's man. But the latter is refuted to some extent at least by the entries in his private cash book which indicate frequent payments of money to divers females, and here and there the purchase of a diamond. Conway's legitimate income was adequate to have kept him comfortably, but in money speculations he made blunders and began to invest with other people's money. He met with further losses; he tried to recoup by resorting to fraud, until he was hopelessly involved. There is no telling how long he would have gone on in this way had not a little curiosity revealed his forgery of a mortgage, which led to his arrest a week ago last Sunday.

Special Agents Manning and Alverson of the Atlas company of London have appointed Jay Rogers to succeed Conway as the resident agent of the company. Mr. Rogers has been installed in his new position.

NEIGHBORS HAVE TROUBLE.

John Albrand and William Walker Want Each Other Arrested.

More trouble was stirred up in the Third precinct last night, which found a partial settlement in the office of Police Clerk Dietl this morning.

William Walker of 445 North, Fifth West street, sent for the police twice last night, and complained that his windows were being demolished by rocks. He also said that his neighbor, John Albrand, was drunk and disturbing the peace. Officer Simpson proceeded to the scene of strife and found a wedding party in progress at Albrand's. The guests poured out on the street and all tried to explain at once. The windows in both houses were broken and the fence was torn down in several places.

This morning, Walker and Albrand called at the police station, and each wanted the other arrested. Walker claimed that he saw Albrand throw rocks at his house, but Chris. Dietl would not believe his statement, and refused to issue a warrant of arrest. The rocks were probably thrown by a crowd of boys, and Walker is the chief sufferer.

CITY PRECINCTS NOT COMPLETED.

Last Night's Canvass Left Several Districts to Consider.

SOME BECAUSE OF ERRORS.

County Attorney Asked for Opinion—The Count as It's In Other Places.

The Salt Lake canvassing board had expected to complete the canvass of the city precincts last evening, but fell short seven districts. Three of these were owing to errors made by the election judges in districts 23, 33, and 34. The election judges had been called in and explained how the discrepancies came to be made. The canvassing board was about to fix the count according to these explanations, which seemed to reach the fact of the matter, but Assistant County Attorney Ray Van Cott said he thought the commissioners had not the right to proceed that way, so it was decided to refer the matter to the county attorney's office for an opinion as to what was the legal procedure. In each case, the judges had tallied up for some of the candidates more votes than were cast, but their own sheets showed what should have been done. Owing to this reference to the county attorney, the count in the Second and Third precincts was not completed, but that in the Fourth was, and the Fifth will be completed this evening. It does not now appear likely that the full count will be made before Monday.

In the districts canvassed up to and including last night, the following changes from the unofficial returns were made:

No. 32—Harris lost 1.
No. 33—Henry N. Hayes lost 1, George N. Lawrence gained 1, Love gained 3, Joe Y. Smith gained 9, Evans lost 40, Fox lost 1, H. A. Smith gained 10.
No. 35—McMillan lost 5.
No. 36—Breedon lost 100, Axton lost 9, N. L. Morris lost 1, Anderson gained 6, No. 37—Hammond gained 20.
No. 38—Spencer gained 5, J. C. Hayes lost 1.
No. 39—Woolley gained 1, Sherman lost 1, Morris gained 5.
No. 40—Woolley gained 1.
No. 41—R. X. Smith gained 1, Wood gained 40.
No. 42—Land gained 20, Joe Y. Smith lost 6, Alston gained 1.
No. 43—Woolley lost 2.
No. 44—McGurran gained 5, S. W. Stewart lost 1, Rideout lost 21.
No. 45—Hammond gained 2, Weber gained 20, Henderson lost 1, Hansen gained 1, Harker gained 1, Dale gained 5, H. N. Hayes gained 1, Christensen lost 5.
CONGRESSIONAL COUNT.

In the canvass of the Salt Lake county returns last night, Sutherland lost 17 in district 47, reducing his probable majority to about 140. This is on an estimated majority against him of 50 in Grand and 100 in San Juan county.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Returns coming in show that the proposed amendments to the Constitution have been carried. Weber county's vote on these is as follows:

Indigent tax amendment:
County.....For. Against.
Ogden.....1,304 88
Majority, 733.

School tax amendment:
County.....For. Against.
Ogden.....238 1,395
County.....2,130 50
Majority, 423.

Initiative and referendum:
County.....For. Against.
Ogden.....1,171 62
County.....1,935 555
Majority, 1,380.

THIRD DISTRICT CONTEST.

The Third senatorial district contest has not yet been instituted, but is expected to be soon. In addition to the charges that illegal votes were cast for the Democratic ticket, it is now claimed that in Randolph, Rich county, twelve votes were cast illegally for the Republican ticket. The truth regarding all these allegations is being ascertained out in the course of investigation.

E. B. WELLS HONORED.

Chosen as Investigating Commissioner to Philippine Islands.

At the National Council of Women, that is being held at Minneapolis, it has been decided by the women to investigate the social and domestic conditions in the several island possessions of the United States. In accordance with that decision the council honored Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, of this city, by naming her as investigating commissioner to the Philippine Islands. Word of the appointment being brought here in a dispatch to the "News" of yesterday evening.

The naming of Mrs. Wells probably does not make it obligatory upon her to visit the islands. She is in the east, however, and has not announced her intentions in this regard. But in view of her health and the wishes of her family she may not entertain an idea of taking the long journey. If indeed, it would be at all necessary to the work assigned her. She will probably return to Salt Lake on Monday next when she will express her intentions.

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

When Christ was born in Bethlehem, 'T was night, but seemed the noon of light.

The stars, whose light was pure and bright, Shone with unwavering ray;

The spotted leopard fed; In peace, the calf and bear, The wolf and lamb reposed together there.

As shepherds watch their flocks by night, An angel, brighter than the sun's own light, Appeared in air.

And gently said, Fear not, be not afraid, For I do bring you good news, Earth has become a smiling paradise.

Contented for the carol may use their own taste and discretion in the employment of the above words, omitting or repeating at their pleasure.
