

REVOLUTIONARY PROPAGANDA.

Russian Editor Charged With Inciting Strikes and Promoting Revolutions.

CORKY IS PROBABLY INVOLVED.

Those Who Have Been Released Are Still Under Charges—Zemski Sobor Question Undecided.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 17.—Membership in a secret organization formed in 1903 to incite strikes and promote revolution is one of the charges brought against M. Annensky, editor of Russian Wealth, and also probably involving Maxim Gorky and the other members of the delegation who were arrested with Gorky and Annensky.

M. Annensky, whose five terms in the fortress under arrest have made the interior of the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul thoroughly familiar to him, told the Associated Press yesterday that he had also been required to plead to the charge of formulating anti-governmental proclamations, the penalty for which offense is banishment for life to Siberia, but that no proof was offered of either charge.

M. Annensky said the prosecutor showed him the draft of an address to the people, alleged to be in the handwriting of Maxim Gorky, and alterations in another hand, alleged to be Annensky's. Annensky declared that he could not identify the document or the handwriting.

Only four of the original delegation remain in custody. One of these is the workman, Kuzin, who for a long time escaped arrest because his identity could not be ascertained by the police; but the authorities continue to make occasional arrests of others in connection with this matter. Those who have been released are still under charges.

In the seclusion of Tsarskoye-Selo the struggle over the question of creating the zemski sobor is being fought out. Rumors have been going about the public that one of the main factors in the present situation tending to influence the government to convene the zemski sobor is the increasing difficulty of mobilizing reserves to replace troops bound for the front, the belief being that if the zemski sobor were assembled it would either arouse a wave of patriotism in the country and itself facilitate the government's task, or if defeated in favor of peace the responsibility therefor, however disadvantageous to the terms might be, would rest with the nation's representatives, and not with the ruler.

The report of M. Witte's resignation from the presidency of the council of ministers is still in circulation, but cannot be confirmed. M. Witte was busy last evening on routine work with the director of the tax department. It is well known, however, that a campaign is being waged against him by men of influence who fear that his will may become dominant in the present crisis. It is claimed that his voice will be for peace.

It is also asserted that M. Witte has incurred enmity on account of his intervention in favor of some of the Liberals who have been arrested. M. Witte is steering a cautious course in order to avoid entanglements. Undoubtedly he will be the mainstay of the hour if sweeping reforms must be granted.

Drudgery And Worry Sap Woman's Nervous Vitality.

There is nothing more nerve wrecking than household duties and the care of children. The drudgery, worry and petty annoyances of the day, and broken rest at night soon exhausts her vitality and she becomes nervous, irritable and restless. If allowed to continue, it ends in Sick, Nervous Headaches, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, and those terrible Periodical Bearing-down pains, which come from nervous exhaustion.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a never-failing remedy for such cases. It builds up and soothes the nerves, and brings the sweet, restful sleep, so much needed.

No other medicine is so pleasant or so curative in every case of female weakness, nervousness or general work-out condition.

Try it at our risk. Cost refunded if first bottle fails to benefit you.

"I had been sick several years with indigestion and nervous prostration, which kept me almost constantly under a physician's care, and while I had been treated by four doctors, I received only temporary relief. I was very weak and helpless, and unable to attend to my household duties. After reading about Dr. Miles' Nervine, I concluded to give it a trial. The first few doses brought restful sleep at night, and an appetite for food. Continuing the treatment, I rapidly improved, and now I am well and able to do all my work."

A GREAT MEDICINE BRINGS HEALTH TO THREE MEMBERS OF SAME FAMILY.

Cures a Wife's Debility After Malaria, a Husband's Rheumatism, a Daughter's Nervous Prostration.

The claim of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be a genuine household remedy is based on the fact that they make the blood sound and the nerves strong and so overcome a variety of diseases. "I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people," said Mrs. Gossett, "because I have seen such good results, time after time, right in my own family. There are three of us who do not need to take anybody's word on the subject, for our own experience in the past 10 years has taught us how well they deserve the praise given them by so many others."

"It was just about 10 years ago that I first read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in a newspaper article which gave the testimony of some woman who had been cured by them. Her symptoms were so much like mine that I thought I would try them, and I then bought my first box."

"I was at that time all run down in health. I was weak and nervous and without ambition. I couldn't walk any distance on account of shortness of breath and palpitation of my heart, and I had no appetite. I had been doctoring all summer for malaria and stomach trouble. Everybody thought I was going into consumption, as my mother had died of the disease."

"Thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now alive and hearty. I began to improve as soon as I began to take them. The first box roused up my appetite, so I got three more boxes, and when those had been taken I was a well woman. I always take a few as a tonic every spring and fall, and I have found them of great benefit just before and after confinement. Everyone wonders how I keep so well and am able to care for my home and six children without help. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills explain it."

"My oldest girl's health began to fail when she was about 14, as the result of too close application to her school work. She was nervous, complained of sharp pains in her head, would get drowsy sick and have to leave the school room to get fresh air to revive her. I gave some pills to her. She took only a few boxes, and cured her troubles and caused her to develop into a perfect picture of health. Then my husband took them for rheumatism and found that they would cure that, too. So you see we have all got great good from using them and that is why we recommend them to others."

Mrs. Minnie B. Gossett lives at Unionville, Tenn. She is 40 years of age, and is well known, as she has resided in the same neighborhood for more than thirteen years. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists everywhere. They have cured other diseases also, such as anemia, neuralgia, partial paralysis, irregularities and all forms of weakness in women. They have also cured the most stubborn cases of dyspepsia. They agree with the most delicate stomachs and rapidly strengthen them. They are indispensable for growing girls.

IN SHOUP'S MEMORY.

Status of Him to be Placed in Statuary Hall, Washington.

Boise, Ida., Feb. 16.—The joint committee passed a resolution to carry out the terms of the resolution for the statue of the late Senator George L. Shoup to be placed in Statuary hall, Washington, held a meeting today and decided to present a bill appropriating $6,000. Senator Dubois in his letter said the statue would cost $6,000 and the other expenses in connection would amount to $200. The senator in his letter said: "I am exceedingly glad that the Idaho legislature has incorporated in the bill and an effort will be made to retain it in the senate and finally in the house."

BIG BANKS MERGED.

The Nevada National and Wells Fargo & Co.

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—The Nevada National bank has announced the terms of the merger of that institution with the Wells Fargo & Co. bank, the proposed amalgamated bank to be known as the Wells-Fargo-Nevada National bank of San Francisco. The capital of the Nevada National bank is to be increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000 in 100,000 shares, thus leaving 30,000 shares to be disposed of. Twenty thousand of these shares are to be delivered to Wells Fargo & Co. in exchange for $2,000,000 in cash or its equivalent, and the transfer by Wells Fargo & Co. bank of its good will, trade, and banking business in the state of California to the Nevada National bank. The other 10,000 shares are to be disposed of at not less than $30 a share.

From the proceeds of these transactions the capital of the bank is to be increased to $5,000,000 and the surplus to $2,500,000, making a working capital of $7,500,000. It is supposed to increase the number of directors from 11 to 13.

It is understood that Isabella W. Holliman, president of the Nevada National bank, will be president of the new bank, and that F. L. Lipman, now president of Wells Fargo & Co.'s bank, will be the cashier.

NOT A UNIONIST SCHEME.

Dunraven's Plan to Aid Irish Nationalist Aspirations.

London, Feb. 16.—Explaining the alleged sympathies of Sir Anthony MacDonnell under secretary to the lord lieutenant of Ireland with Irish nationalist aspirations and the under secretary's connection with Lord Dunraven's scheme, advocated by the Irish Reform association, Mr. Wynham, chief secretary for Ireland, said in the house of commons today that Sir Anthony, at the request of Lord Dunraven, assisted in the formulation of the scheme under the erroneous belief that it was in accordance with Unionist principles. The government, however, has such misapprehensions involving the creation of a separate financial board and delegation of certain legislative powers, were altogether inadmissible. It is so informed Sir Anthony, who wrote Lord Dunraven refusing to have any further connection with the scheme. The cabinet informed Sir Anthony that his action was indefensible, but the ministers were satisfied that his conduct was not open to the imputation of disloyalty.

SHEEPMEN QUARREL.

Suspicion of Partners Results in A Killing.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 16.—Pedro B. Salazar was shot through the head and killed last night at Ortega's sheep shearing camp, 10 miles north of Phoenix, by Maximiliano Lucero. Ortega and Lucero, prominent sheepmen, were partners, but lacking confidence in each other, Ortega installed Salazar as a commissary clerk with instructions not to give Lucero access to the books. Frequent quarrels finally resulted in the tragedy.

INFRRING ON HOUSE PRIVILEGES.

Payne Offers Resolution on Action Of Senate Interpreting the Dingley Act.

APPLAUSE GREETED READING.

Democrats as Well as Republicans Applauded When He Championed The Rights of the House.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The naval appropriation today further occupied the attention of the house for a major portion of the session, but the bill was without particular incident and no material amendment was adopted. Its consideration had not been concluded when adjournment was taken.

The bill to ratify and amend an agreement with the Indians of the Shoshone or Wind River reservation in Wyoming was passed, after eliminating the provision granting a preferential privilege to Asmus Payson to select 640 acres of mineral and coal land within that reservation.

Rising to a question of privilege, Mr. Payne, New York, offered a resolution regarding the action of the senate in adopting an amendment interpreting the Dingley act with reference to drawback on wheat. The resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, That the amendment No. 206, attached to the senate bill No. 18,329, in the opinion of the house, contravenes the first clause of the seventh section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States, and is an infringement of the privileges of the house, and that the said bill, with the amendment, be respectfully returned to the senate with a message communicating this resolution."

The reading of the resolution was greeted with applause. In explaining the senate's action, Mr. Payne said the amendment abolished the drawback clause in the Dingley bill on wheat imported into the United States and afterwards manufactured into flour and exported. He said he did not intend to discuss the merits of the amendment, whether it was wise or unwise. He was loudly applauded by both Republicans and Democrats when he asserted that the main question was "whether that clause in the Constitution which declares that all bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house shall be cherished by this house as one of its privileges." The question, he said, also was "whether we will permit any infringement from any source of that clause of the Constitution."

Mr. Payne called attention to the fact that the house uniformly had insisted on its rights as guaranteed by the Constitution and read a number of precedents in proof of his assertion. He said the right to originate revenue legislation was a sacred one of the house.

Mr. William (Miss.) the minority leader, alluded to the action of the senate "in engaging in a strenuous effort to prevent a real or supposed attack by the executive, a usurpation in the opinion of the house, of its own function and dignity" and said it was a peculiarly inappropriate time for the senate to attempt "to make a plain, plausible, obvious and aggressive attack upon the dignity of the house." Except in connection with legislation affecting the revenue, Mr. Williams said, the house stood today as a body composed of a great many house committees, and that all it did was to prepare legislation in some shape or other and send it over to the senate, as was done with the rate bill. "To be put into the shape that even a majority of the house desired."

Mr. Williams charged the Republicans with being afraid to touch the Dingley law. The resolution was adopted on a yeas and nays vote, 281 to 5. The Mann bill to provide a government for the canal zone was passed without further discussion. The bill gives all the right of government of the canal zone to the president. It abolishes the isthmian canal commission and places the work of the construction of the canal in the hands of the president and such persons as he may appoint and employ. It does not undertake to determine whether the canal shall be constructed as a sea level or lock level waterway.

It is also provided that the persons appointed by the president, both in the government of the canal zone and in charge of the work of construction, shall make annual estimates in detail as far as possible of the items needed for the ensuing fiscal year and says that after June 30, 1906, no money shall be expended on the canal or canal zone government except in accordance with appropriations hereinafter made, thus doing away with the lump sum appropriation carried by existing law. Frequent reports to the president and to Congress of the progress of the construction as well as of the expenditures of money are required.

While the bill abolishes the canal commission so far as the law is concerned, it authorizes the president to retain the commission as a commission or its individual members as consulting engineers if he shall so desire.

Authority to condemn 1004 shares of stock in the Panama railroad now in the hands of private owners is carried in the bill, and the president is authorized, when full and complete control of the railroad is acquired, to operate it through such persons as he may select in order that the road may be used as far as is necessary as a part of the construction work on the canal.

MEXICAN INDIANS.

Said to Have Been "Working" Government Schools.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 16.—H. B. Pearn, agent for the United States Indian bureau, reports that Mexican children have been sent to the government Indian school at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., from various parts of the country on false affidavits that they were of one-fourth Indian blood. It is claimed that hundreds of children have been selected recently from the Oklahoma school for this reason, while others, it is said, are to be found in all the Indian schools.
