ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Despondent Woman Tried to Kill Herself With Poison.

Despondent from domestic troubles, Emma Jensen, or Pierson, as she is sometimes called, tried to end her life yester-day by drinking wood alcohol. She came to Salt Lake from her home in Murray, and at the solicitation of her mother, who believed that the daughter intended to do violence to herself, the police were asked to find Mirs. Jensen. She was located at a restaurant on West Temple street by Officer Burton, who started with her for the police station, with the intention of sending her home. — As the two walked together Mirs. Jen-sen lagged behind sufficiently long to while turned out to be wood alcohol. The officer knocked the bottle from her hand herore she could drink any considerable quantity. At the city emergency hospital antidotes were administered, and later Mir. Jensen was taken to her home in Murray. times called, tried to end her life yester-

CITIZENS PAYING TAXES.

In Four Days County Treasurer Carbis Received About $1,000,000.

During the four days just past County Treasurer Carbis has received about $1,000,000 in taxes upon property in this county for the year 1906. Ever since Monday there has been a great rush on and people have stood in line for several hours waiting their turn to pay their taxes before they become delinquent. Yesterday was the last day and the taxes are now delinquent but the usual advertising cost will not he collected from those who pay their taxes within the next few days as it will be several days before the treasurer can get started on making up the advertising list. The list will be made up and published by the first Monday in December. It is estimated that 2,500 per
