CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, S.—A bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to redeem three millions per month of three per cent. certificates passed the Senate.

Several memorials were presented asking relief, by different parts of the country, from the hardships experienced under the revenue law relating to the manner in which seizures are made.

In the debate which followed, the manner in which signatures to such documents came up, and Anthony said one young man had told him he had received so much per day for going around and getting signatures.

Senator reported favorably on Cole's bill establishing a semi-monthly mail service between San Francisco, China, and Japan, and doubling the subsidy.

Brooklyn, from the committee on Territories, reported Ramsey's bill to establish the Territory of Oklahoma, and an amendment changing the name of the proposed Territory to Pembina. It is to consist of that part of Dakota north of the 46th parallel.

HOUSE.

The consideration of the educational bill resumed. A motion to reconsider the vote rejecting Burdard's substitute was tabled; yeas 111, nays 99; all other pending substitutes were also rejected, and the bill as amended passed, yeas 115, nays 95.

Brooklyn, of New York, presented a memorial of a committee appointed at the Cooper Institute meeting, asking that the surplus of the Chinese Education fund be devoted to the education of Chinese and American interpreters and to facilitate commercial intercourse with China. The fund now amounts to over $450,000.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

New York, S.—It is stated that the indictment against Hall is for conspiracy with Tweed, Swaney and Connolly in getting fraudulent city claims passed.

The district attorney's office complains that the several extensions of time of the grand jury has worked injury to that office, by reason of the consequent stoppage of business.

It is the opinion of Recorder Hackett and many eminent legal gentlemen that the indictments found by this jury against the "ring" are unconstitutional.

CAIRO, Ill., S.—There was quite a heavy shock of earthquake here at five o'clock this morning.

St. Louis, S.—The coroner's jury in the case of the victims of the railroad collision near Alton, Ill., yesterday rendered a verdict that they came to their death by the criminal carelessness of Frederick Baker, conductor of the freight train, and Pat Halpin, engineer of the same, as accessory.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, S.—About forty grocers have been indicted for selling unexpended matches, and twenty of them arrested.

The North Pacific railroad company have closed a contract with Maria county for building a railroad from Sausalito via San Rafael to Tomales for $100,000 subsidy recently voted, and will break ground immediately at all three points.

The total rain fall for the season is 25.88 inches.

The opening of bids for the surrender of San Francisco bonds did not show any anxiety on the part of holders to dispose of them.

The gambling halls all closed by the late raid of the police are again open and doing business nightly. Two arrests of gamblers were made to-day.

Private dispatches from Ogden and points further east, indicate an immediate opening of the Union Pacific, and it is thought probable that mail may reach here by Sunday night.

EUROPEAN DISPATCHES.

LONDON, S.—The steamship Colorado, which sailed from Liverpool yesterday, for New York, when just outside the Mersey was run into with great violence by the Arabis, a small steamer, and the Colorado received severe damages and was run ashore to prevent her sinking in deep water with all on board. The Arabis which was comparatively uninjured received all the passengers of the Colorado except five in the steamer, who it is supposed jumped overboard in the panic which followed and were lost.

The London press, although still moderate, finds fault with Gladstone for defending the treaty and maintain that parliament is unanimously in favor of the rejection of the demands.

PARIS, S.—Minister Waddington is about to return on a temporary leave of absence. Secretary Hoffman will act as charge d'affaires.

A number of Americans leave to-night for Florence, to join Lieutenant Grant and accompany him to Rome.

It is reported the Duke Nemours and Dr. Aumale claim the reinstatement of the former in his rank in the army; and that Prince de Joinville demands his commission in the navy.

LONDON, S.—The excitement over the Alabama claims continues. The speeches in parliament serve to keep the public mind agitated, and there is anxiety as to the manner in which the cabinet of Washington will receive the representations of the government.

On change, business for the moment is demoralized, and market for securities flat, with a marked decline in all quotations. United States bonds of 1862 and 1863 recovered a fraction, but did not continue to improve, falling off from a half to three-quarters from prices last night.

The market remains inactive in American railway shares. There have been no transactions there far to-day. A general uneasiness is also reflected in the quotation of consols, which declined from one-quarter to three-eighths.

Toronto, S.—In the budget to the Ontario legislature, by the government, are $3000 reward for the arrest of the murderer of Mr. Pratt; and $80,000 to promote immigration.

LONDON, S.—The new company which proposes to lay a telegraph cable direct to New York, has been registered. One feature of its prospects is the prospect of repudiating the admissibility of allowing claims for indirect loss; yet thinks Gladstone is not likely to induce America to withdraw the demands. It strongly depreciates verbal discussion of the treaty.

The Daily Telegraph criticizes the utterances of American journals on the subject, and says the English government is evidently favoring a proposition repudiating the admissibility of allowing claims for indirect loss; yet thinks Gladstone is not likely to induce America to withdraw the demands. It strongly depreciates verbal discussion of the treaty.

In the commons to-day, Milbanke proposed to call on Sir Charles W. Dilke to justify, before the house, his recent speeches against the crown, but he was ruled out of order.

A wagish journalist, who is often merry over his own plainness, tells this story on himself: I went to a chemist the other day for some morphine for a sick friend. The physician objected to giving it to me without a prescription, evidently fearing that I intended to commit suicide. "Pshaw!" said I, "do I look like a man who would commit suicide?" Gazing steadily at him for a moment, he replied: "I don't know; it seems to me if I looked like you, I should be greatly tempted to kill myself!"

Cattle in the highway are beginning in many places to be regarded as they ought to be, with indignation. Even in some out-of-the-way points cattle running at large are prohibited. Railroads have done much in keeping the country roads clear of them since the courts have decided that the owners of such cattle are liable for all damages done by trains. A gentleman from a neighboring county said to me the other day: "Why, see all the gates along the highways are left open here, and many of them led directly in beautiful lawns, flower borders, &c. Are you never troubled with road cattle?" We told him they were not allowed anywhere within the limits of the county of Philadelphia to run at large. He was much struck with the fact, and said he would get up a campaign in his own county against the very worst and most outrageous nuisance farmers had to contend against and thus far to submit to. "Why, sir," continued he, "the fear of the depredations of road cattle prevents farmers at certain periods from sleeping at night. They have actually to watch their crops all night, as these cattle are usually turned into the road again after being milked."—Germanstown Telegraph.
