Wilhelmina's Marriage Measures.

New York, Jan. 17 .- A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Amster-

The Amsterdam Gazette publishes wo of the measures contained in Queen Wilhelmina's marriage bill. The first gives the approval of the states general and the Dutch people to the marriage: the second provides £12,500 a year for Duke Henry in the event of his becomig a widower.

A third measure concerns the nation ity of the duke. Here is a difficulty r the duke wishes to become a Ne therlander, but at the same time to re-tain his own nationality. This is contrary to Dutch law, and should the duke persist all arrangements for the marriage may fall through. The duke is bound to conform to the law, which cannot be altered. In the event of his refusal a serious hitch will ensue, which ill at least postpone the marriage indefinitely.
