EVENING NEWS.

Monday - Sept. 27, 1886

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Religious services were held in the Tabernacle, Sunday, September 26th, commencing at 2 p.m., High Councilor H. P. Richards presiding.

The choir sang the hymn:

Praise to God immortal praise,

Elder James H. Anderson offered prayer.

The choir sang:

How firm a foundation ye Saints of the Lord.

The Priesthood of the Twenty-first Ward officiated in the administration of the Sacrament.

Elder Aurelius Miner addressed the congregation.

I trust that no little disturbances nor accidents of any kind will have the effect to draw our minds away from the objects for which we have assembled this afternoon. We give to the secular affairs of life an earnest attention, and it is profitable for us to occasionally call our minds away from those things and direct them to the things concerning our eternal welfare.

Our bodies are of the earth and pertain thereto, but our spirits came from heaven, and it is proper that we should seek their welfare. In doing this we should act intelligently, remembering that the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, and that it is exceedingly practical, just and equitable. It is a gospel of action, not of indifference or idleness. I will quote the words of the Savior, Matthew vii, 21: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." It is taught that faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is sufficient for salvation. This is a subtle and a dangerous doctrine. It may do for the slothful and indolent, but it is a doctrine that will land the soul in perdition. In order to do the will of God we must know what it is, and in order to know what it is we must place ourselves in line of communication with God. How can we get to know Jesus? Have we seen Him with our natural eyes? No. How many people on the earth have seen Him? Very few. I am not prepared to say there are none, but they are very few.

We are told in the Scriptures that no man knoweth the Son but by the Father, and no man knoweth the Father save the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal Him, and yet to know God the Eternal Father and Jesus Christ whom he has sent is eternal life. How then can we obtain this knowledge, or eternal life? Only in pursuance of the Gospel of action. By obeying the ordinances of the Gospel we receive of the Holy Spirit which speaks to us, revealing to us the truth.

At first we must take something on trust. If a person comes to me and says he has received a communication from heaven, I can know nothing of the truth of his statement. But if he tells me to do certain things and that I shall then know for myself, I have a basis on which to rest faith.

In regard to accepting the Gospel, we are asked to accept the testimony of our fellow men, who say to us, do thus and so and you shall know for yourselves. Thus knowledge does not come from faith direct, but from the works which are the fruits of faith. On being baptized we receive the Holy Ghost and by it a knowledge of the truth. No man can say that Jesus is the Christ but by the Holy Ghost. They may utter the words, but they do not really know their truth unless by the Holy Ghost. If a man will do the will of God, he shall know of the doctrine whether it is of God or whether men speak of themselves.

How much may we know of God and of the things of God? All that we desire to know. If we will cultivate the Holy Spirit it will lead us into all truth. It will unfold and develop the powers and faculties of our minds to an infinite extent.

We can obtain these blessings only by obedience to law. A man may be utterly irreligious, but if he is a farmer and conducts his work according to law, he will receive a harvest. Why? Because he has placed himself in a position to reap the benefits of the laws of nature. And so with every other condition in life. If men will seek blessings of God they may receive them under the operation of the laws on which those blessings are predicated.

The speaker read passages from the Doc. & Cov. in support of his teachings and continued:

We can obtain a blessing from God only by obeying the law on which it is predicated, and in no other way. But if we have obeyed the law the blessing will surely come. This illustrates again the law of action. Many people in the world object to the Latter-day Saints paying tithing, on the ground that it is oppression. It is no such thing. It is a matter of their own conscience and will. If I pay my tithing it is for the purpose of obtaining a blessing predicated upon the law of tithing. If we wish to enjoy the communion of the Holy Spirit how can we obtain the blessing? By purifying our own hearts, repenting of our sins, obtaining remission of them by baptism, and thus sanctifying ourselves by means of the ordinances of the Gospel.

One may object that by making salvation dependent on action we do away with the atonement of Christ. Not so, for were it not for that atonement the privilege of working out our salvation would not have been accorded to us.

Do we anywhere find in the Scriptures that if we will only say "I believe in Jesus," He will do all the rest necessary for our salvation? No. On the contrary we find the command, "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling." Jesus has done for us all that he can do consistently with the free agency of man. He will force no man to heaven, and if we attain salvation it will be by the eternal law of action.

Every man shall be judged according to his works and not according to what his faith has been altogether. Thus every man makes his own heaven or his own hell. There is no tyranny in the Gospel, for every man has the liberty to do just as he pleases.

If men are not forced to obey the Gospel, but if each person will receive just what he works for, is not the Gospel a perfect law of liberty? Is there any tyranny in it? Can a higher law of liberty be conceived? Because the deeds of mankind are evil they will not come to the light. But can they come if they will? Yes. And because they can come but will not, the judgment of God in their condemnation is justified.

The choir sang an anthem when benediction was pronounced by Elder James T. Woods.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE OF ST. GEORGE STAKE.

The quarterly gathering at St. George of the officers and Saints of St. George Stake of Zion began by the holding of the Relief Society and Y.L.M.I.A. conference on the afternoon of Friday, September 17th.

On the same afternoon the High Priests held their quarterly conference, which was followed by the Stake priesthood meeting.

On Saturday, the 18th inst., the general Stake conference began at 10 a.m., and continued its session till the close of the afternoon of Sunday, the 19th.

The Stake conference of the Primary Associations was held at the close of the afternoon session of the general Stake conference on Saturday, and on Sunday evening the Stake conference of the Sunday Schools and Y. M. M. I. A. was held.

We were blessed with the venerable presence and fervent testimony of Father Henry Harriman, of the First Seven Presidents of the Seventies, but he was the only one of the general authorities of the Church with us.

There was a full representation of the nineteen wards of the Stake.

The statistical, Relief Society, Sunday School, Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations and Primary Association reports were read.

The general authorities of the Church and the Stake and Ward authorities were presented to the people and voted for heartily, and without a dissenting hand.

In addition to Father Herriman, the Presidency of the Stake and several of the High Council, with young Elders Joseph Romney and David H. Morris, were the speakers at the General Stake conference. The spirit of instruction, plain and direct, was freely manifest in the teachings and exhortations of the brethren, and the waiting souls were nourished by the word of God.

JAMES G. BLEAK,
Clerk of Conference.

"Had a lame knee for two years which St. Jacobs Oil cured."—A. Shurtleff, Parker, Dak.

—They have a co-operative store in Laramie.

—At Butte last Monday evening, about 4:30 p.m., little Johnnie Moore, who is about 8 years of age, was stealing rides on the numerous wood wagons constantly passing up and down in front of his parents' residence on Arizona street, near the Halfway House, when he got hurt. The story as told by little Johnnie is as follows: "I was getting some good rides hanging on behind the wagons going up and down the road, so I thought I would jump on the big brake beam and steal a ride, which I did, and when I got off, slipped and fell, when the wheel went over my poor leg. Oh, but it hurts so!" Dr. Johnson was summoned and set the limb and made the little fellow comfortable.

—At Laramie on the 21st inst., Marshal Erisman was called upon to arrest a young man named Thomas Grimes, who worked in the Laramie rolling mills, the charge against him being repeated attempts on Monday night and Tuesday to outrage the person of his landlady, Mrs. Adams. It is said that on Monday night he entered the lady's room at a late hour and insisted on remaining for the night, but after a struggle she succeeded in putting him out, and thinking he was intoxicated, let him go. A half an hour later he returned and was again ejected and sent to bed. Still later he returned for the third time, clad in a night shirt and it was necessary to call help to get him out of the room. His offenses were overlooked until yesterday afternoon, when a repetition of his assaults led to the calling in of the marshal, who arrested him and lodged him in jail. Grimes has been drinking pretty heavily of late, and it is charitable to suppose that his offense was committed while he was crazed from liquor, as he was always considered an orderly and good-natured person.

—On the afternoon of the 21st, at Butte, a shot was heard in the diggings between the two ditches on Arizona street, when immediately cries were heard from little Maud Perkins, I am shot! I am shot!" The frightened mother, who heard the cries, ran at once to the little one's rescue, and clasped the child to her breast while the blood trickled down its face from its forehead. As soon as the child saw the tears falling from the eyes of the grief-stricken mother she said: "Don't cry mamma, I ain't hurt very badly," and stopped crying herself. M. C. Bonney, who was close by, took the child from the mother's arms and carried her to the house and summoned the father. Dr. O. B. Whitford was sent for, and on his arrival he probed for the ball, but was unable to extract it, as it had just struck on the center of the forehead and glanced along the top of the skull about two inches. He gave it as his opinion that no vital part had been touched. Fred. Scott, the boy who did the shooting was seen, and he said that he felt very sorry for having shot Maudie; that he was shooting at a tin can with some fine bird shot and after he shot that little Maud cried out that she was shot, which was the first he knew that she was in range of the gun.

At Sacramento last Saturday a man who gave the name of Owen Finnerty called at the station house and informed Chief Dillman that he wanted to get his money, alleging that he had been robbed by the police a year or two ago of $1,100 and sent to the insane asylum to be put out of the way. As it was evident from his general conversation that he was demented, local officer Nash was directed to take him to the county jail to be examined by the commissioners of lunacy. On arriving at that institution he begged the officer in charge not to kill him.

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and methodical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and —between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and grazing lands of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.
