which runs on Fifth South between

Second and Third West streets, awoke

from his slumbers at 5:30 this morning.

he thought he would get up and see if any rain had fallen during the night,

so that he might know how many sprinkling wagons to send out today.

Ever since Peter was able to walk he has worn trousers. Those who know

Mr. Condie know him to be a very methodical man. He believes in having a place for everything, and insists that everything, that he has anything to do with, shall be put in its proper place. It will therefore not surprise his numerous friends to know that upon re-tiring at night he has made it a rule to hang his trousers right over the end of the bed on the side on which he slept.

As this was the last thing he did be fore closing his eyes last night the recollection of it remained clearly with him. Upon getting up this morning Mr.

"Maybe they've taken a walk," said Mrs. Condie. "I guess they have," replied Peter, and opening the bedroom door he peered out into the hallway.

STANDARD DICTIONARY

This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages each volume weighing 17% pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Deseret News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compliation of which Dr. James E. Talmage was engaged as one of the 200 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum:" 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is neces-sary for the legal transaction of business: unless otherwise ordered, a majority, 2. (Eng.) Certain designated ustices of the peace commissioned as USTICES OF THE QUORUM, without the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch. A council or organized body of the A council or organized body of the priesthood; as, an Elders' quorum; the quorum of the First Presidency. 4. Necessary constituents. (L., of whom, gen. pl. of "qui" (who,) from the Latin words "quorum unum-A. B. esse volu-mus" (of whom we desire A; B. to be one) forming part of ancient commissions, as of justices. This rare dictionary is offered at $12

I have just had o most backeting domonstration of a most interesting demonstration that fact. While a short distance east of the Eagle Gate, a reckless and meteoric scorcher bore past at a rate of speed that would easily exceed fifteen miles an hour. Now, that was not only upon the sidewalk but on the prohibited district as well. He came within an inch of my body and when I jumped aside and cried out after him he gave a hasty backward glance, laughed me to scorn and rode on like the wind only to narrowly escape riding down others in a similar manner. Put me down as being with the move-ment to abelish the bicycle from the sidewalk."

EVIDENCE AGAINST MORAN

He is Believed to be the Man Who Burglarized I. A. Clayton's Residence.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Ed. Davies ran onto a clue that connected Thomas Moran with the burglary of Isaac A. Clayton's residence which occurred a few days ago. Moran is now being held to await the action of the district court on the charge of attempting to burgiarize the residence of H. A. Foulger. Yesterday Davies ob-served that the hat worn by Moran fitted the description of one stolen from Mr. Clayton. Davies hunted up Mr. Clayton, and sure enough, the hat belongs to him. Among other things stolen was a pair of diamond cuff but-1008.
