FOLK ON TWO-CENT FARE.

Kansas City, June 19.-Gov, Folk of Missouri, who has been in active sym-pathy with the attitude of Atty, Gen. Hadley in the 2-cent fare controversy, in an interview here last night said: "I am glad to see the 2-cent fare is to be tried and I believe the rationads mult e tried and I believe the railroads wil find, after a thorough test, that it is not unjust. If passes are dispensed with and every one made to pay fare, this, with the increase of travel incident to the reduced rate, should more than make up the difference between the 2 and 3-cent rates."

DISMISSED RESTRAINING ORDER

Kansas City, Mo., June 18 .-- As a result of the proceedings here yesterday afternoon in the circuit court, Atty. Gen. Hadley went before Judge Kirk in the circuit court and secured the disfulssal of the restraining orders ob-tained by the state last week ordering the railroads of Missouri to obey the maximum freight and the 2-cent laws. The court granted permission to renew the restraining orders again at the end of 19 days if the state so decides.

WILL MAKE FLAT RATE.

Columbus, O., June 18 .- According to notices received by local passenger men today the rallroads will make a flat round trip rate to Los Angeles for the National Educational association. Herefare for the rate always has been one fare for the round trip plus $2, the lat-ter being collected by the railroads and turned into the treasury of the asso-clation. The interstate commerce commission has held this extra money to be a rebate.

Braffett, and Mr. Christensen indulged in a lit-tle tilt, exchanging remarks of an acrimonious nature. After Winnovich had been bound over on the charge of murder, Aity. Christensen asked for a change of venue for the four re-maining defendants. No decision has yet been arrived at where the cases will be heard, but an agreement will probably be reached today in the matter.

Bandmaster Christensen Returns From Attending International Session.

Bandmaster P. L. Christensen reurned this morning, from Atlantic City, N. J., where he went to attend the annual convention of the international Dancing Masters' association. There were 65 delegates present. The burden of the discussions seems to have been the much mixed and much vexed problem of how to prevent hugging at dances. Mr. Christensen gave ging at dances. Mr. Christensen gave the convention quite a talk on this sub-ject, expressing the opinion that man-datory action in attempts to prevent it would not always work, and that the best way would be for the dancing masters to personally use their influ-ence against the continuance of the practise; although in their own halls there should be no difficulty in stop-ning it.

There should be no dimension in support The matter of quadrilles was brought up, when Mr. (Bristensen presented his "Rage" quadrille which he has used to supposed the old fashioned iancers. The convention heartily ap-proved of the new dance, and will use it in their work. The Sait Lake dele-rate was chosed to memberable in the It in their work. The Salt Lake dele-gate was chosen to membership in the board of directors. The convention also discussed way it was that the polite dancing master is losing his hold as compared with the much less elegant and desirable classes of instructors; and Mr. Christensen took the ground that it was because of a lack of knowl-edge in music, on the part of the for-mer.
