clared." Kingston, N.Y., 10.—In regard to the fraud in the Fifth ward, no coatest will be made to-morrow by the repub-licans. The Freeman, the leading re-publican paper, this morning, savs: The vote in the Fifth ward, having been represented throughout the State as fraudulent, it is only fair to both parties that the whole truth concern-ing it should at once be made known. The full electoral ballot box was found to contain 91 ballots more than were cast according to the poll list, and that excess of votes were drawn out by a man blindfolded, in accordance with the laws of the State. If fraud was in-tended the parties failed to accomplish what they desired. The republican party have no reason to find fault with the result of the vote as it gave Cleveland only 200 majority, which is the ordinary vote: Albany, 10.—The democrats of Alba-Lesses by Fire and Water. Trial of a Bank Teller.

Tammany Hall committee on organiza-tion to-night the district leaders, al-most without exception, reported that their ticket was beaten by trading on the part of the County Democracy of Cleveland for their local ticket. In one instance only Tammany members were reported disloyal. It was claim-ed that Tammany was next to univer-sal in its honest allegiance to the na-tional ticket. Register Rellly said that Blaine men were wearing the county democracy badge in his district. Mr. Reilly also charged that Maurice B. Flym, a prominent county democracy man, had given a young man named Gorman, a bar-tender, $400 to desert Tammany. Other members made specific charges. Civil Justice Kelly and Police Justice Power, who have begun an investigation concerning the trading of votes in the Sizteenth Ass-ambly.District on behalf of the county democracy, say they have discovered eleven cases of disloyalty to the ma-tional ticket on the part of Tammany Hall members, and will place the evi-dence before the National and State democratic coundities. Trial of a Bank Teller. PETERSBURG, Va., 10.-W. W.White, late teller of the Planters' & Mechanics' Bank, in whose case the jury failed to agree on Saturday night, and which was continued to the next term of court, was arrigned for trial in the Hasting Court to-day on another separate indictment.
