POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Candidates to Be Voted for on the 3d of November.

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS.

States in Which There Are Straight Electoral Tickets and Where Fusion Has Been Effected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The Republicans have a straight electoral ticket in forty-four of the forty-five states, having effected a fusion in one (Texas) with the middle-of-the-road Populists and gold standard Democrats.

The Democrats have a straight electoral ticket in only fifteen of the states, having effected a fusion with the Populists and silver Republicans in twenty-eight of the others, a conclusion not having yet been reached in the remainder of the states. In some cases the Populists and silver Republicans indorsed the Democratic electoral ticket, but in others concessions of electors were made for their support of Bryan and Sewall. In two states (Oregon and South Dakota) the Democrats indorsed the Populist electoral tickets.

The following table shows the states with straight Democratic electoral tickets, and those in which a division of electors has been made. The figures for North Carolina are those embraced in the proposition of the Populists to the Democrats, who, however, have not yet accepted their offer of division in that state, but the Populists, it is understood, still have hopes of effecting a fusion in North Carolina.
