PETITION FOR A REPRIEVE.

Miss Lulu Johnson Intercedes With Gov. Wells in Behalf of Majors.

Miss Lulu Johnson of Des Molnes, owa, who has been unremitting in her efforts to save the life of young Abe Majors, petitioned Gov. Wells yesterday o reprieve the condemned youth, whose ntence is to be carried into effect on riday. August 17th. The Governor ndis informed the lady that he could grant the petition, and that the so far as he was concerned, would to take its course.

petition was a most pathetic ap-I for a reprieve. "In the name of d." the petition read, "I ask that this r be granted a reprieve in order that by be granted a represent house further oppor-ula friends might have further oppor-ulity to present his case, and to sub-nit convincing proof that he is not the lemon he has been pletured to be."

I bought some fine potatoes last week from him and they are almost ripe now. He has a good erop of wheat and oats.

NO MORE WINDY THAN UTAH.

Some people condemn this country on account of so much wind, but I have not seen any heavier winds since I came here than I have seen in Utah. It bardly ever rains here and the ground is very dry so when the wind blows there is a great deal of dust fly ing which makes it seem to blow harder than it really does. OPPORTUNTY FOR HOMESEEK-

ERS.

Persons looking for homes can find hem here, for the main essentials are tere: there is a good climate, free from frosts long enough to mature almost any kind of crop, plenty of good land and an abundance of water at all seaons of the year.

Any person wishing to know more about this country can write to Robert Baird, and he will be pleased to give them any information possible. Ad-dress: Lovell, Bighorn Co., Shoshone Camp, Wyoming.
