

Social Realms

Thursday afternoon, the decorations being in cherry blossoms, and about a dozen being present. A short program was given followed by social chat and refreshments. The guests were, Mrs. Alice John, Mrs. G. H. Buckman, Mrs. Frank Bailey, Mrs. J. W. Bush, Mrs. Will Backman, Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. T. Jones, Mrs. W. Ward and G. Van Gunton.

On Thursday Mrs. Bryan Connel entertained at a luncheon at the Country club the tables being decorated in pink carnations and covers laid for a dozen guests, including Mrs. Louis B. McCormick, Miss Anna McCormick, Mrs. Frank Judge, Miss Katherine Judge, Miss Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. A. V. Callaghan, Mrs. W. M. Ferry, Mrs. Edward S. Ferry, Mrs. Arthur Bird, Mrs. George Rose and Miss Gertrude McGrath.

Mrs. E. V. Silver entertained Thursday.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the informal reception given by Mrs. Bathsheba Smith on Monday, in honor of her birthday anniversary, the rooms being bright with a profusion of flowers, the gifts of friends, and about 140 being present.

On Tuesday Mrs. Smith was guest of honor at an elaborate banquet given by the general board of the Relief society of which she is president. A program of toasts being given with Mrs. E. B. Wells as toastmistress, and about 20 responding.

Mrs. Lewis B. McCormick entertains this afternoon at luncheon in honor of Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson and Mrs. Bishop, the decorations being in spring flowers, and covers laid for eight.

Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer entertained at a large dinner this week in honor of her mother, Mrs. Susan Wells.

Mrs. Hugo Druehl was hostess at a pleasant evening affair in honor of Miss Hattie Ferron and Nelson Dickerman of Chicago, whose marriage takes place next week.

A delightful affair of the week was the annual social given by the Authors club on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. W. W. Riter. An interesting talk on "Folk-Songs" was given by M. J. Brines, with interpretations by a quartet of young girls, comprising Miss Edna Young and Miss Edith Kingsbury, Mrs. Brines acting as accompanist. The details were in the hands of a committee consisting of the hostess, Mrs. Riter, Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury and Mrs. Eliza Bennion. A social hour followed the program.

Mrs. J. C. Hanchett entertained a number of old friends at bridge on Tuesday, the rooms being decorated in potted plants, and prizes won by Mrs. A. B. Hirth and Mrs. Clarence Warnock.

Miss Joy Witbeck was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Taylor, who leaves shortly for California. The table had a Battenberg lace spread over pink and white roses and lilies were used as a centerpiece, a cut glass bowl being filled with them and placed on a mirror, and the lace and place cards done also in the same color. Sprays of water lilies were also effectively used. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. Witbeck and Miss Alita Witbeck and a musical guessing game followed the luncheon with Miss Alice Spry and Miss Mary Taylor winning the prizes.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. E. D. Hammond was hostess at a Kensington, about 32 guests being present. The rooms were decorated throughout in yellow, wild flowers being used in prettily effect. A guessing game was among the features, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. George Ryan. The afternoon was spent in humming jingles, and the prizes were won by Mrs. Lewis Bowman, Mrs. H. Zerbe and Miss Mattie Zerbe. Wednesday Mrs. Hammond gives a card party, and on Thursday also will be hostess at a bridge tea.

Mrs. W. E. Lake was hostess Thursday afternoon at a luncheon and bridge party, about 48 guests being entertained. The luncheon was served in the ballroom upon the small tables after-ward used for the card contest, and the decorations were in violets, the fragrant flowers being used as a centerpiece, with place cards hand-painted in violets, and the bonbons, laces and other details done in the same color. In the other rooms green and white were used with carnations and green ribbon. In the bridge game that followed prizes were won by Mrs. George Brines, Mrs. E. D. Woodruff, Mrs. J. W. Currie, Mrs. George H. Raybould, Mrs. A. H. Snow and Mrs. J. T. Treasure.

Mrs. J. Fred Daynes entertained on Thursday afternoon the decorations being in pink throughout, with enchanting carnations for the flowers, and the tulle done in the same color. About 35 guests were present at the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. W. W. Snow, R. W. Daynes, Mrs. L. B. Hills and Mrs. G. D. Anson.

Mrs. T. F. Howells entertained the members of the Woman's Home club ing beautifully decorated in red and yellow tulips and pink and white carnations, and a number of other friends coming in to tea. Assisting were Mrs. William Ighehart, Mrs. Howard Stone, Mrs. M. L. Ritchie, Mrs. J. M. Banks, Miss Frances McChrystal. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. R. Wightman, Mrs. Mary Bailey, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Richard A. Keyes, Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett, Mrs. P. A. Vincent, Mrs. J. M. Banks and Miss Tinsman.

Mrs. Schuyler C. Snyder will entertain at an informal bridge party this afternoon, and at a luncheon for Mrs. Thomas Marionaux on Wednesday next.

Mrs. P. S. Keogh has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given at her home next week.

Mrs. Glen Miller was hostess at a second bridge party Thursday, the rooms being beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations, and tulips in red and yellow. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Howard Stone, Mrs. George Savage, Mrs. M. E. Lipman, Mrs. J. M. Banks and Mrs. Thomas Marionaux. Prizes were won by Mrs. L. A. Evans, Mrs. Mathe, Mrs. J. W. Houston, Mrs. Arthur James, Mrs. G. T. Brice, Mrs. A. Ritchie, Mrs. Sheehan, Mrs. Fred Sautter and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Miss Lydia White entertained at a luncheon at Whitehall Thursday, her guests being the junior class of St.

will leave shortly for the coast, to sail June 25 for Honolulu for a stay of a few months.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Kerr and Miss After Young are at home after a stay of several weeks in Chicago.

Miss Genevieve Becker, who has spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. Gilham, leaves shortly for her home in Adrian, Minn.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald and her son, Thomas, Jr., are home from a stay of several weeks in Long Beach with Mrs. W. E. Terhune.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lane are here from Belmont Park, Mont., visiting Mrs. Lane and Miss Ethel Lane. Mrs. Lane was formerly Miss Alice Foote.

Mrs. O. A. Whittemore of Denver is here for a visit of some time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weil.

Mrs. Dorsey and daughter, Miss Margaret, who have spent the winter in southern California, have returned, and are at home for a time with Mrs. Witherspoon.

Mrs. George R. Hancock returned Tuesday from Redlands, Cal., her mother and sister, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Allen of Park City, will be home early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Conner will leave in June for a six weeks' visit in the east. On their way home they will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Prinz of Milwaukee, Wis.

Mrs. L. White, who has been spending the winter in New York with her daughter, Mrs. Lockyear, has arrived and will be with Dr. and Mrs. John T. White at Whitehall.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shaver and daughters, Mrs. Susan B. Davies and Miss Vera Shaver, are at home to their friends at 913 east South Temple street.

Mrs. McKay of Los Angeles, Cal., who has recently returned from a trip abroad, is here to spend a week or so, guest of Mrs. M. A. Stingley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Taylor and daughter, Miss Meryle, left this week for southern California, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith have returned from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood

Mrs. Gus Becker and Mrs. Charles Hollingsworth of Ogden are here to spend a few days with their sister, Mrs. H. R. Macmillan.

Mrs. O. W. Ott left this week for the east to be away several weeks. She will attend the graduating exercises at Wellesley college.

Mrs. S. V. Derrah has gone to St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Derrah's mother will return with her to spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hampton and Mrs. George A. Lowe have as their guests, Mrs. William A. Gile and her daughter, Miss Gile, of Worcester, Mass., who will spend some time here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Griffin left Thursday for Washington, D. C., and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage will be at home to their friends after May 15 with Judge and Mrs. C. C. Goodwin, at 30 U street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Landley are home after a stay of several months on the coast.

WEDDING BELLS

On Thursday Miss Ora Holbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Holbrook of Provo and Miss W. Dixon of this city, were married in the Salt Lake temple, and afterward went to Provo, where a wedding supper was served at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will reside in this city and will be at home at No. 20 Kensington flats.

Duncan McAllister announces the engagement of his daughter, Christina, to N. L. Wilson of Brampton, Canada, the marriage to take place in June.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edna Davis of Oakland, Cal., niece of osteomaster A. L. Thomas of this city, to Erwin McNeice, son of Dean R. G. McNeice of Westminster college. The wedding will take place next month, and the couple are to live at Milford, Utah, where Mr. McNeice is in charge of the local electrical works.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cates announce the engagement of their daughter

On Thursday Miss Bell Crane and Homer Reed were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. B. Short at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crane, in the presence of the near relatives and friends and the bride leaving afterward for a short trip. They will be at home to their friends after May 15.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE FILES

OGDEN.

T. W. Walsh of Phoenix, Ariz., and Lamar Nelson of Ogden, entertained a party of friends at the Weber club Wednesday evening.

The marriage in Butte last Saturday evening of Miss Helen McDermott, formerly of Ogden to D. C. Cook, president of the Three Forks, Montana, bank, was surprised to many of Mrs. Cook's Ogden friends who hasten to extend their congratulations.

One of the enjoyable parties of the week was a dinner given at Byona by Mr. and Mrs. William Van Allen. The party left the city in a trolley and was the first party to cross the Viaduct. It included Messrs. and Mesdames A. A. Campbell, A. G. Horn, Charles Kirchner, John Lynch and H. M. Rowe.

Raymond M. Smith of the Wells Fargo Express company has returned to Ogden after an absence of a month on the coast with his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Whittemore have left for an extended eastern trip which will include visits to Chicago, New York, Boston and other points.

A very pretty wedding took place last Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. R. C. Roundy, when her sister, Grace Herne Porter, was united in bonds of matrimony to Robert S. Marshall. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. G. W. McCrory was witnessed by the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their future home in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson left during the week for Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Simpson goes as a delegate to the national convention of E. of P. T. Before returning to Ogden they expect to visit friends and relatives in a number of the eastern cities.

Mrs. W. Fred Gentach and son have gone to Omaha for a visit with relatives for a few weeks.

L. M. Higgins, of Jerome, Idaho, is spending a few days in Ogden, visiting relatives.

Miss Ethel Orth has returned from a visit with her brother at Phoenix, Ariz., and after a week's visit, she will act as one of Utah's hostesses at the Alaskan-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

Mrs. C. H. Goslin and Miss Emma Hirschler have returned from a four months' tour of Japan, China, the Philippines and Hawaii.

PROVO.

One of the most enjoyable features of the week has been the gathering of the first district convention in Utah under the Federation of Women's clubs. Among the distinguished visitors were Mrs. Byron Cummings, President of the U. S. W. C., and Mrs. George Hancock, directors in the national F. W. C. and Miss Binzel, state organizer, all of Salt Lake City. The convention was held at the Commercial club rooms, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. Delegates from Springfield, Spanish Fork, Payson, Eureka and Heber were in attendance and guests of the Nineteenth century and Soviet clubs of this city. An elaborate luncheon was served Thursday at the Hotel Roberts. The guests were driven about the city and visited the different places of interest. Words of praise have been heard on all sides for the excellent entertainment and manner in which the ladies carried out the undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr., entertained Monday evening at their beautiful home for the members of the Utah Sorosis and their partners together with a few invited guests. An interesting talk on "English Universities" was given by Rev. George Townsend. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening passed in taking part in the many interesting games introduced. A literary game of guessing the names of books from various objects was played and the prize awarded Mrs. C. O. Baker. A "Tack Driving"

Specials in MILLINERY for Monday

Beautiful Spring Summer headwear for the lady who wishes the very best seasonable goods to be obtained at the prices we are asking.

You are never disappointed in our goods.

BRANCH HOUSE IN MURRAY.

Mrs. L. Morris

65 East First South.

contest by the ladies caused much merriment and the prize was awarded Miss Allie Smoot. The feature of the evening came when the gentlemen entered the contest of "sewing buttons" on to a piece of cloth, all proving they were not experienced workmen, the prize was awarded T. McNeill.

The sixty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mrs. George W. Gee was fittingly celebrated by her children Wednesday afternoon at the home of the eastern lady. About 40 friends responded to the invitation. The afternoon was delightfully passed in games, and music and an elaborate lunch was served. A prize was given Mrs. Olive Boon for being able to throw the greatest number of sacks of beans through a hole in a board. Mrs. Ursula Gee carried away a prize on the wheel game.

Miss Mamie Beasley entertained a number of her young friends at her home Wednesday evening. Games, music and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance delightedly entertained at their home Monday evening about 30 young people, friends of their son Matt Roylance who left the next day for a mission to Great Britain. The guests were delightfully entertained with music, games and reading. During the evening the guest of honor was presented with a beautiful gold watch ring, a token of remembrance from 12 of his boy friends. The guests departed at a late hour with wishes for a pleasant and profitable sojourn and safe return.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Thurman announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss May, to Milton Thomas, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Knudsen gave a social at their home Tuesday evening in honor of their son Reed, who leaves Wednesday for Norway. About 100 guests enjoyed the hospitality of their genial host and hostess.

Prof. and Mrs. George Brimhall entertained at their home Tuesday evening the faculty and teachers of the B. Y. university. Readings, music and games all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. An elaborate lunch was served.

The class of 1909 high school graduates of the B. Y. university entertained at a very enjoyable dancing party at the university Friday evening.

A social was given Friday evening in the sixth ward meetinghouse in honor of Reed Knudsen and Jessie McCullough. Short speeches, music and a dainty lay luncheon were enjoyed by a large number of ward members.

Miss Ora Holbrook, daughter of President and Mrs. Lafayette Holbrook, was joined in wedlock to E. Dixon of Salt Lake Thursday at noon in the Salt Lake temple. A family dinner was given in their honor at the home of the bride the same evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon will reside in Salt Lake. A large circle of friends ex-

CABOCHON ARRANGEMENT OF ROSES.

The pale buff of tea roses is here combined with the soft dull olives of bronze green foliage. The hat is black straw of rather coarse weave, with a facing of satin in the tea rose shade. A cloud of pale yellow tulle encircles the crown and makes an artistic background for the mass of yellow roses in their olive green leaves. This hat was designed to accompany a coat and frock suit. The upper part of the frock is shown, the bodice being built over a gimp and sleeves of tucked net in the shade of the cloth.

day at a pretty luncheon for Miss Mabel Eager whose marriage takes place in June, and also for Miss Elsie who is visiting Mrs. W. H. Child.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lake have issued invitations for a card party, to be given at their home, "Cobblerest," Saturday evening, May 15.

Mrs. Charles A. Quigley will entertain 25 at a matinee party at the Colonial today, to be followed by a luncheon at Franklin's, in honor of Miss Emma Quigley of Chicago, Ill., who is here to spend the summer.

Major and Mrs. A. S. Rowan entertained delightfully at dinner on Thursday for Major Charles G. Morton of Denver, who is here on a round of military inspection. The table was prettily decorated in fruit blossoms and covers laid for eight.

The girls of the graduating class of the U. of U. entertained on Monday afternoon at the weekly reception, in honor of the boys of the senior class, who left this week for a surveying trip through the western states. Caps and gowns were in evidence and a delightful time enjoyed.

Mrs. Glen Miller has been hostess at two delightful bridge affairs this week, the first on Monday when about 50 guests were entertained, the room be-

Mary's academy. The class colors, green and gold, were carried out in the decorations and as the class numbers 13, "Lucky 13" place cards were used in the way of a horseshoe. Present were: Misses Adelia Sun, Angela Heckert, Nell Smith, Bertha Michael, Nimble Donough, Marie Hughes, Mary McDonough, Bernice Kohn, Lillian Broyles, Mary Sullivan, Florence Sullivan, Fern Sullivan and Mena Reno.

Mrs. Elwood Brown entertained her sewing club Thursday, giving an Orpheum party, followed by a luncheon at Franklin's. Present were: Mrs. John C. Daly, Mrs. William C. McCrea, Mrs. Fred U. Leonard, Mrs. Edward J. Roberts, Mrs. William Hunt, Miss Edna Daly, Miss Estelle Clinton, Miss Mame Sappington and Miss Winnifred Lynn.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Harvey expect to leave about the middle of June for a two months' stay in the Pacific northwest. Their son, Earl Harvey, who is in a military school in Pennsylvania, will be home the first of June.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Donohoe and little daughter are planning to leave late in the summer for Europe, where Dr. Donohoe will spend six months or more in study.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Walker have gone to Los Angeles. They will return by way of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Greiner and Mrs. Miller have moved from the Woodruff and are now at home to their friends at 4 Henry apartments.

Miss Mary Bishop expects to leave the last of June for Seattle, Wash., where she will spend the summer with her sister.

Miss Lillian Stevenson of Ogden is spending a few days here, guest of Mrs. J. Fred Daynes.

Miss Edith Bracken of Pasadena, Cal., is here, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Dugan at 82 J street.

Miss Kate Williams has returned from an extended visit in the east.

Dean and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster and children left Monday evening for Long Beach, Cal., for a three weeks' stay.

Mrs. Frank J. Hagenbarth and children have returned from California. Miss Brown of Montana, a sister of Mrs. Hagenbarth, is her guest for some weeks.

Mrs. Olive Gaylord, who has spent the winter months in California, has returned and is at home at the Ivanhoe apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glimmer of Chicago, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Glimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sadler.

Mrs. L. L. Park and baby are expected home from their eastern trip the latter part of the month.

H. L. A. Culmer with his son Wells Culmer, have returned from a trip to southern Utah.

Mrs. Harry S. Knight and children have returned from Long Beach where they spent the winter months.

Miss Kathleen Townsend, accompanied by her brother, the Rev. George Townsend of Provo, will leave during the month for their home in Dublin to spend the summer.

Mrs. J. M. Callow and her children have returned from a stay of several weeks in California.

Mrs. Small of Boston, Mass., is here, the guest of Mrs. Glen Miller, for a few days.

Mrs. Elbridge Thomas is spending this week in Logan, the guest of Mrs. Peery.

Glen Miller has gone to St. Louis, Mo., for a short trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gillette have come to Salt Lake to reside and will soon be at home in the Pauline flats.

Mrs. O. A. Honnold and children have returned from Santa Ana, Cal., where they have spent the winter.

Miss Mabel Corbin leaves at the close of the school year for a stay of some three months in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tuttle will have as their guest the last of the month Mrs. Tuttle's niece, Mrs. Ida Downing of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. L. L. Downing left Tuesday for her home in Waterloo, Ia., after spending the past two months here with friends.

Mrs. Will Green of Lewiston, Ida., is here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Treloar, in the Calhoun apartments.

Mrs. Von Knoblock and her little granddaughter, Ellen Landenberger, have returned from a short stay in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lee are now at home to their friends in the Progress apartments.

Miss Florence Wilson of Cincinnati, O., will be here soon to visit her aunt, Mrs. H. G. Williams, and cousin, Mrs. J. H. McMillan, for a few days on her way to Japan.

Mrs. Emerson and son of Warrenburg, Mo., left Wednesday for the east, after spending a few days here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gorham.

A quiet wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Mamie Lambert and James Smith, the ceremony being performed by the bride's father, Mr. George Lambert, at the family residence in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Mr. Smith is connected with the Orpheum and they will make their home here.

216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

25 Years

Kayser silk gloves have become what they are through 25 years of experience.

We alone have the infinite skill which is required to perfect them.

It was Kayser who invented the patent tip—the tip that outwears the glove.

It was Kayser fabric, the Kayser fit, that made silk gloves the summer gloves of the millions.

They are today, as always, the only silk gloves desired by women who know.

"The Kayser" Patent Finger-Tipped Silk Gloves

In every pair you get a guarantee, good for a new pair if they prove unsatisfactory.

In every pair you get the finish that comes through our fifty operations.

Yet Kayser gloves are just as cheap as the poorest silk gloves on the market. Simply be careful. Look for the name in the hem.

Short Silk Gloves
50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25
Long Silk Gloves
75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50
JULIUS KAYSER & CO., MAKERS
NEW YORK

In the cocoa bean nature has cunningly stored nutrition and health-giving properties which are released in their natural fullness in

Ghirardelli's GROUND CHOCOLATE

Rich, fragrant, nourishing.

Don't ask merely for chocolate—ask for Ghirardelli's.

Cocoa Fact No. 6

When cocoa was introduced into Central America by the Indians and found there when America was discovered, the seeds were valued so highly that they were sent into Mexico and used for money.