RUSHFORD WAGON MANUFACTURED BY THE

WAGON

Our General Manager, H. M. KINNEY, has spent two seasons in Utah, for the special purpose of learning the needs of the Territory in the Wagon line; and now after carefully preparing to meet them, we offer the Rushford Wagon to the trade. It is made of thoroughly Seasoned Timber, of the best quality, strongly ironed, and we know it will stand. We fully appreciate the severe climate and roads of this market, and have made a Wagon with special reference to them. A full assortment can be found with our General Agent, J. W. LOWELL, at Salt Lake City and Ogden. Hoping to merit the patronage and confidence of the trade of this country,

Yours truly, WINONA WAGON CO...

Hewitt, of New York, in discussing the bill referred to a large number of workmen as refusing to work and considered the causes of the strikes now in progress. The general de-mand was for an increase of wages and the ground on which the de-mand was placed was that the work-man found himself unable to sup-port himself and family with the wages he is now receiving. This grievance was well founded. The rise in the prices of the necessaries of life in the last year has been so great that the working people had found that they were being reduced from a condition of comparative from a condition of comparative comfort to one of comparative want.

Employers were willing to concede it. They would be glad to pay higher wages if they were able. They refused, because the concession would simply destroy their capital. Relief must come from some where. If Congress could show there was a heavy hand, like the hand of the bandit, taking out of the earnings of labor and capital unnecessary contributions; if it could find that such a levy was made on and that such a levy was made on the products of industry, then, so far as it has power, it should proceed with speed. It should go on the express train of legislation, in order to remove evils which were sapping the ways roots of comfort and the the very roots of comfort and the peace of the people, demand for a reduction in taxation to be made It must be heeded. Washington, June 25, 160.

Sir:—I understand a circular sign ed by you has been sent to a large number of persons employed in the service of the United States, advising them to refrain from complying with the request of the Republican Congressional Committee for contribution to its campaign funds. In this circular you state that "in the time men are adopting very un wise treatment, which kills many patients. with the request of the Republican Congressional Committee for con-tribution to its campaign funds. In this circular you state that "in the opinion of the counsel as members of the Republican Congressional Committee are officers of the United States Government, all persons mak-ing contributions to such committee ing contributions to such committee will render themselves liable under Section 6, Chapter 297 of the United States Statutes, if it be a law, that the person paying become thereby liable to a penalty. I being a member of Congress and Treasurer who received payment am also liable. I am willing to meet you on this question anywhere or at any time and to unite with you in requesting the President to ask an opinion of the Attorney General. If you desire any other action in any tribunal which can give immediate consideration of the point I will join you in testing the soundness of the circular and I invite you to this mode of settlement as both more manly and more honorable than your attempt to confuse the action or alarm the minds of the employee referred to. The anis mis-stated in the circular and the alarm you seek to create is without in a critical condition.
