PETITION IN FEDERAL COURT

A petition asking that G. S. Hoagland, proprietor of the Big Boston store, be declared a bankrupt, was filed this morning in the Federal court by Cosgriff-Enright & Co., the Romney Shoe Co., the Salt Lake Hardware Co., the Lambert Paper Co., A. H. Boxrud & Co., the Hammond Packing Co., and Morrison, Merrill & Co., to whom Hoagland is said to be indebted in the aggregate sum of $2,566.45. The petition recites that said Hoagland did commit an act of bankruptcy Oct. 23, 1902, in that he did transfer while insolvent a portion of his property to one of his creditors, with intent to prefer such reditor over others, and that he did conceal and remove a portion of this property with the intent to hinder, de-lay and defraud his creditors.
