

REVIEW OF PREVAILING ATHLETIC SPORTS

ANOTHER RECORD IN THE BIG FIGHT

Jeffries Has Been In Four Ring Battles That Broke Record—One Punch Wins Fortune.

A fortune in one punch. There isn't any doubt that the winner of the Jeffries-Johnson fight will establish a new record in the amount of money won in a single encounter in the ring. The fighting game is the most lucrative vocation in the world.

Joe Gans went to Fort Erie, stepped into the ring with Frank Erne, shot out his right, and right there was created a new lightweight champion. That one punch netted Gans at least $100,000 worth of engagements.

Although never officially given out, it is said that the gate receipts for the fight between Jack Johnson and Tommy Burns, pulled off by Hugh McIntosh, the famous Australian promoter, at Sydney last December amounted to considerably over $100,000.

The coming fight will undoubtedly break all records in this country. It will be the fifth contest in which Jeffries has won.

That broke the record. When Jeffries fought Tom Sharkey in New York, the Coney Island club announced that the gate receipts totaled $66,000, of which the fighters received over $36,000.

The Jeffries-Corbett battle in San Francisco drew a $65,000 house, and their contest in New York City also drew a big house. The Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight for the world's championship also drew heavily, the receipts being $63,000.

Although in no way official, the following table of big purses received by the fighters will be found very interesting by the fight fans:

HORSES ARRIVING FOR CHICAGO SHOW

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Seven carloads of horses and rigs from the stable of W. H. Moore arrived at the horse show yesterday. Accompanying the private cars were more than a score of groomers who succeeded in unloading the blue blooded blue ribbon winners of the man who is called "America's best lover of horse flesh," without incident or accident.

T. W. Harrison, the New York rival of Mr. Moore in the horse show competition, is sending 17 of his blue ribbon winners for this show. The entries of C. W. Watson, another of the big show winners of this country, are expected today.

NAT CARTMELL, CRACK SPRINT-ER, NOW A COACH.

The University of North Carolina has secured the services of Nat J. Cartmell, the former crack runner of the University of Pennsylvania, as coach. Cartmell is one of the world's figures in athletics and served on the first American team that attended the Olympic games in London. Last year when he went abroad with the team Cartmell was picked to win several short distance events, but failed. Shortly afterward he improved wonderfully and showed his heels to the English cracks. Recently in a 200 meter event he defeated Reggie Walker, the South African speed marvel. He will take up his duties as coach next spring.

PILGRIMS LOSE ONE ON AMERICAN TOUR

The Pilgrims, the champion soccer team of England, has met with but one reverse on its American tour. This defeat was sustained at Philadelphia three weeks ago Thursday, when they were beaten 1 to 0. In the latter game the Pilgrims were minus the services of four of their players, who were suffering from injuries since their arrival in the country. Following is the complete record of the crack British eleven in America:

At New York, Oct. 2.—Pilgrims, 4; New York, 0.

At Baltimore, Oct. 5.—Pilgrims, 13; St. George, 0.

At Baltimore, Oct. 7.—Pilgrims, 14; Mt. Washington, 0.

EMERSON BASKETBALL.

At the Emerson school Friday afternoon the championship at basketball in the junior class was decided, the second team winning by a score of 11 to 10.

CVATARRH CANNOT BE CURED

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they can not reach the seat of the disease, Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal medicine.

Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. It is composed of the best known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

RICKARD COMING TO TALK FIGHT

Man Who Successfully Bid for Jeffries-Johnson Fight Is Due in Salt Lake Early Next Week.

"It's up to Salt Lake." That is about all one hears in local sporting circles with reference to the championship fight between Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson. It means that if Salt Lake does not want the big attraction San Francisco will get it.

Word has just been received here that "Tex" Rickard, the man who bucked powerful combinations and was the successful bidder for the big fight, will arrive in Salt Lake from the east early next week and will at once go into a conference with several prominent business men here who are anxious to stage the contest in Salt Lake. The sum of $25,000 was raised and taken by Rickard to Hoboken. The balance of the money can be raised in a short time, according to one of the men who is backing the scheme.

Upon Rickard's arrival all the details will be talked over and it will then be determined just what is to be done. It is not thought there will be any trouble about the location of the scene of battle as a big arena, capable of seating 20,000 persons, will be built if necessary. The saucer track can be made to accommodate about 20,000. Walkers field has been mentioned, as also have Saitair and Lagoon. San Francisco is still making a hard fight to take the event from Salt Lake.

SKATING SEASON OPENS TUESDAY

The roller skating season opens in Salt Lake Tuesday night and will continue for but two months, or until the big automobile show starts. Immediately after the close of the pure food show, a big gang of men will be set to work overhauling the building and putting it into shape for the opening. Sessions are to be held only on the evening except on Saturdays, when there will be matinees for children.

BATTLING NELSON'S STRENUOUS STRUGGLE

Time brings about changes in all walks of life and boxers, as a rule, have some very rapid changes. Battling Nelson, the lightweight champion, had some wonderful changes in his line during the past 10 years, in fact, Battling Nelson at times were very much like some of the heroes in Colliers Weekly. Now just imagine a young fellow without a penny in his pocket, not even enough to train on, with a good fight in prospect, and six years later able to sign his check for $100,000. Well, that about tells the financial history of the Battling Nelson during a period of six years from early in 1904 till the present time.

It was in 1903 that Battling Nelson was fighting around Milwaukee but only in bouts of second-class fights. Right after that the Badger club of Milwaukee was shipped up on a bout and then the matchmaker decided to see how the Battling would draw against a good man.

Jack O'Neill of Philadelphia at that time was a strong card in the east and was known as "The Champion." After the match was made, Nelson came to the writer and said: "Gee, I've got to get that fight because I need the money to help pay off a debt on our home at Hagerich and I must have some to train on." Well, the Battling borrowed $10 or $15 and got in good shape for the fight. He defeated O'Neill in a splendid bout and that was the beginning of his famous march through the west to the championship. Teddy Murphy, the boy manager, had the Battling in tow and his advancement after that is well known.

But did not forget to repay the loan and he remarked at that time that he had enough left to send to his mother. But had the right idea and he has kept pretty close to that path ever since.

It was a pretty good jump—from borrowing $10 to having $100,000—but that is what the husky Battling has done and he is still on the road to a great deal more. Only the other day in New York Nelson offered to put up a purse of $50,000 for Jeffries and Johnson to fight for and to deposit $25,000 cash at once. That is surely going some for a boy who was dead broke in 1904.

AMERICAN HORSES ON ENGLISH TURF

New York, Dec. 4.—A. J. Joyner, who trained H. H. Hall's Whitney in England last season, and who returned to New York yesterday on the Lusitania, is enthusiastic over the performance of American horses on the English turf. He says that on his return after the holidays he will take more of the Whitney horses abroad with him. Joyner says that he had more success with young horses. "They come to hand," he says, "much more readily. I find, then, on this side of the Atlantic and there was nothing new for them either in climatic conditions or in the grass courses over which they ran. A number of the older horses have been shipped back to America, but there is no intention on the part of American horsemen to curtail their English establishments."

HARRY HILLMAN, SENSATIONAL RUNNER, WHO QUILTS PATH TO HANDLE DARTMOUTH'S TRACK TEAM.

athletic fields in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy and Greece have been a keen observer. He was a close student of the game, and his knowledge and long experience aptly qualify him for his new position. Hillman has run 100 yards in 10 seconds and has stepped 220 yards round a turn in the great time of 22-5 seconds. He is the world's record holder for the indoor quarter mile flat, the indoor and outdoor 300 yard hurdles, the quarter mile low hurdles, the 220 yard hurdles and 550 yards on the flat. Hillman also is the holder of the Olympic records for the 200 and 400 meter hurdles and held the Olympic 400 meter flat record till last year, when Halswelle of England was credited with breaking it. Given the proper support, there is reason to think that Hillman will turn out the greatest track team that ever battled for the Green.

YOST'S CHARGES ARE BEING PROBED

Notre Dame, Ind., Dec. 4.—A representative of an eastern weekly was here yesterday probing the charges of inelegibility raised by Coach Yost of Michigan against Notre Dame university football players. A thorough investigation was made.

Full scholastic records for the last five years were shown and the identity of all players corroborated by means of their records, names and pictures. Dolan, Miller, Dimmick, Philbrook, Hamilton and Matthews, who have been hinted as not eligible to play under college rules, all made signed statements covering the full history of their football career.

CHICAGO HIGH VS. SEATTLE HIGH

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 4.—Arrangements have been completed for a football game between teams representing Englewood high school of Chicago and Lincoln high school of Seattle to be played here January 1. Negotiations have been under way for some time and yesterday the board of education of its stamp of approval on the proposed match, which is now assured. The Seattle team will guarantee the visitors $1,500.

KLAUS AND KELLY.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Hugo Kelly, the local middleweight, and Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh, were matched yesterday for a 12-round bout before the Army A. A. of Boston, Dec. 14. The men boxed a ground out at Pittsburgh last summer, with Kelly the victor.

ANNUAL MEETING OF I. A. ASSOCIATION

New York, Dec. 4.—Capt. Palmer E. Pierce of the United States army, who is president of the International Athletic association, has issued a call for the annual meeting of that body in this city on Dec. 28, and has announced that the subject of football revision will take up a considerable portion of the program. The association's recommendations as to the changes which it deems wise for the elimination of undue roughness and before serious accidents will be turned over to its rules committee, the members of which sit with the old committee to formulate the official code.

CAPTAIN ANSON WANTS THE JOB

Anxious to be President of National League and Asks Fogel to Vote for Him.

Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—For the first time since he became chief executive of the Philadelphia Athletics, Horace Fogel was besought for his vote by a candidate for the presidency of the National league.

When Fogel went to his desk yesterday he found a letter there from "Captain Anson of Chicago." In the letter Anson congratulated Fogel on his success in gaining control of the club and asked for his support in his campaign for the National league presidency.

"I am an active candidate," wrote Anson, "don't mistake that. I will poll a vote that will be surprising and am confident that I will be elected."

President Fogel was pleased with the letter from Anson, but he is not sure that he would not change his attitude in regard to the election.

"I am not sure up my mind just yet," he said, "but I will support and won't knock until I attend the meeting," he declared.

CALVIN DEMAREST WINS FINAL GAME

New York, Dec. 2.—Calvin Demarest of Chicago won the final game and the championship tonight, defeating George Sutton of Chicago in the world's professional series at 18.2 balls.

Demarest won the bank and blanked Sutton made four and missed an easy one. Demarest took 47 and Sutton retook 47. Sutton was visibly nervous and could not get down to his game. In the following inning his count of 21 was his highest run of the game.

Demarest went to accept two zeros, but took them unconcernedly, and in his eighth inning began a slashing run of 117. He played with what seemed reckless rapidity, but the precision of his control showed in the accuracy with which the balls tipped in and out of back into perfect position. Sutton was never in the running thereafter, and Demarest went out with an unfinished run of 82, in the fourteenth inning. The score: Demarest—0, 47, 19, 0, 51, 8, 117, 18, 3, 51, 22, 72, 82—average, 35.10-14; Sutton—4, 0, 21, 7, 14, 0, 7, 2, 3, 1, 0, 19, 9—average, 6; high runs 21, 14, 19. Referee—John J. McGraw.

Y. M. C. A. TEAM WINS FROM WEBER STAKE

There was an interesting basketball game at Ogden Friday evening between the Salt Lake Y. M. C. A. team and the Weber Stake academy five, the Salt Lake team winning by a score of 44 to 31.

Gunn of the Y. M. C. A. hurt his shoulder and had to retire from the contest. A large crowd saw the game. The line-up was as follows:

Y. M. C. A. Weber Stake.

Wilcox, Metcalf, L. F. Clark, Clark, Hammond, R. F. Norstrom, Anderson, R. F. Burton, Gunn, Gundorf, L. G. Roberts, Housington, R. G. Harris.

A READY MEDICO.

"While I was waiting to take the order of a merchant in a small town in Indiana," said the dry goods drummer, "I went prowling about his store, and a box fell against me. I regarded it as a trifle at the time, but an hour later I felt a severe pain in my side. I have always been afraid of appendicitis, and it occurred to me that it had come on to me bigger in a house. Away I rushed to the village doctor, and he felt my pulse, looked at my tongue, and shook his head and said:

"My friend, you've got it this time for sure."

"And I've got to be operated on," I asked.

"With that I took off my coat and vest to have a look at the spot, and a minute later I was a surprised and pleased man. A splinter from the box was sticking in my side. I looked from the splinter to the doctor and back, and he looked from the splinter to me and back. Then I asked:

"Doctor, how much to pay?"

"Five dollars," he replied.

"But how do you make that out?"

"Two and a half apiece for being the two biggest fools in the state!"

PUZZLED THE FRENCHMAN.

Sergeant Harry, who acted as usher in the White House during Cleveland's second term, told this story: "I will never forget the message President Cleveland sent to Secretary Olney one night. It was this way: There was an eclipse of the moon that night, and President Cleveland was very much interested in watching it. I don't believe Olney knows about it, said Mr. Cleveland, and he will be sorry to miss it. The president said, 'Harry, go telephone Olney to look at the moon.'"

"I went to the phone, and Olney's chief or butler or something, French answered. The president sends word to Mr. Secretary to look at the moon," I said. "To look at what?" answered the Frenchman. "The moon," I repeated. "Ze spelled, 'the moon.' Is ze president in his mind?" "Yes," he told Mr. Olney to go look at the moon. Give him the president's message. 'But vat for is dat?'—to look at ze moon." I then said a word or two and rang off.

"About an hour later the same butler called us up, and he said, 'The president has telephoned Mr. Secretary to look at the moon, and he is bewildered way, Meastaire Secretary desires to say to Meastaire President vat he is moomch obliged!'"

IT WASN'T CATCHING.

A kindergarten teacher tells the following:

"The rules require when a child reports illness in the family that the teacher shall find out whether such illness is contagious or not, and it is customary to send the child home for a statement of facts. One morning one of the younger boys reported from home that he was sick. He was sent home to find out the nature of the illness and soon returned with the information:

"Mamma says it ain't catching."

"That won't do," replied the teacher. "You must go home and find out and then come and tell me just what is the matter with your mamma."

Pretty soon the boy came toddling back into the room. "Teacher," said he, "mamma says it's all right. She says it's a boy and it ain't catching."

AMERICAN LEAGUE MEETING DEC. 14

Special Session of Directors—Johnson Says Two Days Will Clean Up Business.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—President B. B. Johnson of the American league said yesterday that at the meeting of his board of directors in New York business would be transacted in a hurry. He said the American league members will reach New York Dec. 13, and in the afternoon will mingle while the National commission is in session. Tuesday, Dec. 14, will mark the start of the American league meeting, a special session having been called for the directors. The meeting will continue on the 15th until time to catch the limited leaving for Chicago at 5:30.

President Johnson said two days and a little bit more would be sufficient time in which to clear up all the business to come before the league officials. President Comiskey of the Chicago club will accompany Johnson going and coming.
