WASHINGTON.

Democratic National Committee in Session.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The National Democratic Committee assembled in Willard's Hall at 1.20 o'clock to-day to select a place and appoint the time for holding the National Democratic Convention. Considerable discussion ensued as to the time to be allowed persons presenting claims of the respective cities for the place of holding the convention, and it was finally agreed to allow 20 minutes to be divided among three representatives, each delegation to present their claims. The roll was then called for the purpose of ascertaining the number of cities desirous of presenting claims for holding the convention.

At 1.45 p-m. recess was taken until 2.30.

In submitting a resolution for the date of holding the convention, McHenry, of Kentucky, moved to fix the date on Tuesday, June 22nd.

Eaton, of Kansas, moved to amend by inserting the third Tuesday in May; lost. The amendment being rejected, the original resolution of McHenry's was agreed upon.

M. W. Fuller presented Chicago's claims. She had a hall of fine quality, capable of seating 10,000 and standing room for 10,000 more. The citizens would defray transportation and the expenses of each member of the committee and his family. Twenty-three hotels would not increase rates. Air was pure and temperature even.

Col. Dorsey presented Baltimore. Mayor Brown, of St. Louis, thought Missouri, being doubtful, that State should have the convention. St. Louis was centrally located with abundant facilities of all kinds. There would be no advance in hotel rates and the committee would defray all expenses deemed proper.

Sayler eloquently invited the committee to Cincinnati which had all the advantages of other cities and some which they had not. The music hall had a capacity of 45,000 seats. Cincinnati would bear all the expenses of the convention. As Cincinnati named the man in 1856, it would name him in 1880.

Eugene City, Oregon, was advocated by Mr. Whiteaker, in a very humorous speech. He said there were no artificial facilities to be had in Eugene City, but members could find excellent camping grounds and advised them to bring a good supply of blankets.

Wm. L. Scott invited the committee to Philadelphia. The centennial hall was the proper building, would hold 30,000 people, other attractions were great, and there was no city on God's footstool which so much needed the convention to enlighten and civilize it.

Mr. Hutchins advocated Washington.

An informal ballot resulted as follows: Cincinnati 14; Chicago, 16; St. Louis, 4; Washington, 4; Baltimore, 2; Philadelphia, Jackson, Mississippi, Eugene City, and blank, 1 each. A formal ballot resulted: Cincinnati, 29; Chicago, 8; St. Louis, 4; Washington and blank, 1 each. The selection of Cincinnati was made unanimous. A committee was appointed to confer with the Cincinnati committee on arrangements. There was some discussion about harmonizing the New York factions, but without results. The committee will prepare a call to-morrow.

Interference of a Foreign Minister.

A writer in the Sunday Capital, who is known to be a gentleman of responsibility, asserts that Senor Don Juste Arasemena, minister resident from Columbia, has prepared and printed a pamphlet attacking the Monroe doctrine and urging against the policy which President Hayes is understood to have adopted on that subject and with reference to the Inter-oceanic canal. He says Senor Arasemena has caused copies of the pamphlet to be circulated among certain members of the House, and has had them sent to some Senators who are supposed to be advocates of the canal project, and in favor of the Monroe doctrine. The writer of this article severely criticises Senor Arasemena's action in intermeddling with our affairs. It recalls the case of the French Ambassador-General, who in 1793 openly and insultingly antagonized President Wasington's Franco-English neutrality proclamation. In that instance General Washington resented the French Minister's conduct, characterized it in a Cabinet meeting as an insult and disrespectful, and insisted that Genet be ordered to pack up and go home. The article also assails Secretary Evarts in pointed terms for his well known advocacy of a policy of delay in regard to an official declaration by President Hayes, reaffirming the Monroe doctrine in the furtherance of the construction of an Inter-oceanic canal under the auspices of the United States, and charges that the causes of Evarts' hesitancy in the matter are two-fold; namely, first, that his vanity would be offended by the President obtaining credit for a position on this subject, which he (Evarts) did not initiate; and, secondly and chiefly, that Evarts is an attorney for the Panama Railroad Company, whose property will be greatly depreciated if not wholly destroyed in value by the construction of a canal across any portion of the American isthmus.

The Selection of Cincinnati.

The selection of Cincinnati by the National Committee as the place for holding the Democratic Presidential Convention is generally considered an anti-Tilden victory. No such issue was openly made, but it is known that Tilden's friends would have greatly preferred St. Louis or Chicago, and the selection of either of these cities would have been claimed as a Tilden success. It is also learned to-night that the Jewett influence has been quite potent in the decision of the contest in favor of Cincinnati. Isaac Eaton, the committee member from Kansas, who was at first for St. Louis, finally voted for Cincinnati upon the receipt of a telegram from his brother-in-law, Jewett, requesting the change in the interest of his (Jewett's) Presidential aspirations. The Ohio delegation return home to-night in a special car, which bears upon its side the following inscription: "Cincinnati: Her Convention gave you the last Democratic President and will give you the next."

Capital Notes.

Before the Senate exodus committee, P. R. McCorkey, a life-long resident of Terra Haute, Ind., and a republican, testified to the surplus laborers and mechanics in his section of the State, and swore the colored mail agent Walker, in a conversation with him at Terra Haute, said that at a colored convention held in Nashville last autumn, he (Walker) had made arrangements to run 10,000 colored voters into Indiana to carry the State for the republicans.

A New York railway man, who has been active in urging upon the Secretary of State and others the propriety of allowing de Lesseps to construct the inter-oceanic canal, has given it out here that the intention of de Lesseps is to offer Grant the presidency or vice-presidency of his company, and that he expects, under cover of this offer, to secure the placing in the United States of one-half of his proposed capital stock.

Gen. Howard goes on Thursday before the Senate select committee on the Freedmen's Bank, Fred Douglass offered valuable assistance. The expense of running the bank was $25,000 yearly, $9,000 of the same going to the commissioners. It is now proposed to appoint the comptroller of currency the commissioner alone, at a salary of $1,000, and with authority to compromise debts.

Political Notes.

CHICAGO, 23.—The Times' Washington special says: Amid the discussions stimulated by the approaching meeting of the national committee it is noticed that the name of Samuel J. Randall is prominently and earnestly mentioned as the coming "dark horse." Tilden's friends freely admit that when it is clearly demonstrated he cannot secure the nomination, his entire strength will be cast for Randall, taking up the idea that the southern men admit Randall would not be objectionable to their section, and that he could easily unite the vote of the South in the national convention. New Yorkers express the opinion that Randall's nomination would harmonize the two factions in their State.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs that John Kelly's ultimatum is that he will not permit Tilden to carry New York should he be nominated. Kelly is determined that Tilden shall never be president, and will consent to the defeat of the democratic national ticket, or even the disruption of his party rather than see his enemy in the White House. He will support any other democrat who may be nominated and will even consent that Tilden may name the candidate, and whoever that candidate may be, unless it be Tilden himself, he will support him. This he told such members of the national committee as called on him on their way to Washington. It will probably be stated to the committee at a meeting to-morrow.

Conkling will not attend the Utica convention.

A Josephite Lecturer in Chicago.

CHICAGO, 23.—Elder Mark N. Prescutt of the Reorganized Church of Latter-day Saints of Jesus Christ, preached here yesterday on "The Danites." The Mormons have been holding services here for several weeks with a view to organizing a church, and this was Elder Forscutt's seventh sermon. He alluded to the charge which was raised in the play now running at McVicker's theatre, that the Mormons had a society known as the Danites. He was a Mormon, had lived in Utah and knew of the Danites. That such a society existed was incontrovertible, but he could not hold the Mormon church responsible for the crimes the order had undoubtedly committed. He took a very liberal view of Mormonism and denied that the Mormons were polygamists in Nauvoo or that Joseph Smith taught polygamy. Polygamy was not a part of Mormonism, and there had been a time when those who practiced it had been punished therefor by the Mormons themselves. He closed by asking his hearers when they heard attacks on the Mormon church to distinguish between the Reorganized Church of Latter-day Saints of Jesus Christ, of which he was a member, and the Utah faction.

A Jealous Lover.

BOSTON, 23.—The police are strongly of the opinion that Edward Lavice, found dead in a room at the South End, was killed by his companion named Hill, for whom active search is being made. It has been ascertained that Hill and Marshall, the latter being the name by which Lavice was known for several weeks have been paying attentions to a table girl at a saloon at Warren Avenue, and that a jealous quarrel took place between the two men on the day of the tragedy. Marshall's companion (Hill) wrote a letter to this girl a few weeks ago, and on its being compared with the note found near the dead man, it is said a strong resemblance was found. John H. Hill, the probable murderer, is a criminal well known to the detectives of the large cities of the country.

A Crooked Cheyenne Postmaster.

CHEYENNE, 23.—Gen. Adams, special agent of the postoffice department, arrived here to-day in accordance with orders from Washington, to investigate the affairs of the Cheyenne postoffice, resulting in the discovery of a deficiency in Postmaster Glaflckie's accounts of about $2,400. His sureties were placed in charge of the office, and will make the deficiency good. Gen. Adams further investigated the charges of Major Glaflckie's connection with the Great Western Distribution Co., and finds them sustained by proofs satisfactory to him. Major Glaflckie is the publisher of the Cheyenne Leader, in whose columns the recent assault on the characters of Gov. Hoyt and other citizens appeared.

Gen. Adams returned to Denver to-day, from whence he will proceed to Washington with his Ute prisoners.

An Oil Fire.

CLEVELAND, 23.—This afternoon the bottom fell out of a still containing 2,000 barrels of crude oil, at the Standard oil works, on Broadway. The oil caught fire and communicated the flames to another still, and the burning oil flowed down Kingsbury Run, threatening destruction to the Standard works. Five hundred men were put to work and a dam constructed across the Run, confining the fire in narrow limits and saving the property. The loss is estimated at $30,000 on machinery and $1,000 on oil.

The Gospel in Kentucky.

CATTLETSBURG, 23.—A genuine Mormon colony has been discovered on Big Sandy River, consisting of about 50 persons. Two young men are preaching the doctrine of the Latter-day Saints and making converts.

A Batch of California Miscellany.

SAN FRANCISCO, 21.—At a special meeting of the Board of Health to-day a report of the committee appointed on the 2nd inst., to investigate the condition of the Chinese quarters was read. The report details the state of affairs found to exist there, and in the disclosures of crowding, filth, disease, crime, and utter disregard of all consideration for the preservation of life, health and property is even more startling than expected. The report closed with a recommendation that Chinatown be condemned as a nuisance and calls upon the proper authorities to take the necessary steps for its abatement without delay. The report was unanimously adopted and it is expected immediate action will be taken to carry out the view of the board. The workingmen are greatly gratified at the action taken which is believed will meet with little opposition except from directly interested parties.

The Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce met to-day and appointed a committee to consider the best course to be pursued to alleviate the distress prevailing among the working classes.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company has ceded to the United States 300 feet on the line of the channel to Oakland Creek, declared by the United States engineer to be necessary to complete improvements to navigation already begun.

The Bulletin to-day publishes the result of a thorough canvass of the State, showing that the crop prospects are almost without exception, excellent, and that a greater area than heretofore is under cereal cultivation.

The mass meeting of workingmen in Union Hall was very largely attended. Mayor Kalloch was the principal speaker. His address was conservative, advising his hearers to avoid all unlawful measures in carrying out their efforts for local settlement of the Chinese question. The audience was enthusiastic, but orderly and attentive.

Late this afternoon a warrant was issued for the arrest of Tiburcio Parrott, of Parrott & Co., on the charge of employing Chinese in the service of the Sulphur Bank Quicksilver Mining Company, of which Parrott is president. The case is made up to test the constitutionality of the act recently passed by the legislature prohibiting corporations from employing Chinese.

A Reno dispatch says: Four men were buried by a snow-slide near Franktown, this morning. William Foul was recovered, badly injured. Samuel Kennedy, Alex. McLane and John Burney were not found.
