THE EVENING NEWS.

Friday . . . August 26, 1870.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

REMEMBER THE REOPENING OF THE THEATRE.—The Theatre reopens to-morrow evening with a splendid bill,—"The Huguenot Captain, or the Bohemians of Paris," and the farce "Love in Livery." Messrs. McKenzie, Margetts, Bowring, Thompson, Mackintosh, Kelly; Misses Colebrook, Adams and Platt, and Mrs. Romney and others will appear. The price of admission to the second and third circle has been reduced,—all parts of the latter is twenty-five cents only; front seats in the former are seventy-five cents, back seats, fifty cents.

IN TOWN.—Among the guests at the Salt Lake House, at the present time, is his Excellency Governor McCormic, of Arizona Territory.

OBSEQUIES.—The funeral services of Mrs. Margaret Clayton, who departed this life yesterday, were attended to at the residence of her husband, Elder William Clayton, 17th Ward, at 12 o'clock to-day. A large number of the relatives and friends of the family assembled, and were addressed by Elder Geo. Q. Cannon and Henry W. Naisbit. Sister Clayton was fifty-one years of age, and leaves five children—three boys and two girls—to mourn a mother's loss. A kind, faithful and devoted Saint, she admirably filled all the relations in life as wife, mother, sister and friend, and bequeaths an example of virtue, honor and integrity to her offspring which they can dwell upon with pleasure and imitate with profit. Embracing the gospel at an early day she governed her life by its principles, and in the midst of afflictions and trials she never faltered in her devotion. Such women are Heaven's true nobility, and the day will come when they will shine.

SALT CROP.—Quantities of pure beautiful salt are now being gathered and brought to this city for sale. This is the season for all to supply themselves with salt; there is no better season to gather it than the present, while the lake is low.

RETURNED HOME.—President Joseph Young, Sen., and Elder Seymour B. Young, arrived home last night, after a short mission to England. They left this city on the 13th day of May and reached Liverpool on the 5th or 6th of June. They visited and preached in the Manchester, Birmingham, London, Nottingham and Sheffield conferences, and then returned to Liverpool. Their next tour was Northward, to Newcastle, and Glasgow; they reached Liverpool again on the 25th ult., and two days after, sailed for home, landing at New York on the 7th inst.. After staying there a day or two they started on the return journey, on the way visiting relatives and friends in various localities. They have enjoyed excellent health during their absence, and have had a splendid time on their mission, and we do not remember seeing Brother Joseph look so hale and hearty as he looks at the present time. We are glad to welcome Brother Joseph back. As long ago as the days of Kirtland it was predicted that he should take a mission to Europe, and he has finally accomplished it in his 74th year.

FIRE AT MENDON.—A. C. S., a correspondent at Mendon, writes on the 21st inst. an account of a fire at that place, on the 15th, caused by a child about five years of age, named Joseph Graham, son of James and Jane Graham. It appears that during the absence of his parents he took a notion to roast an ear of corn, and having obtained possession of a match, he went to the corral of a neighbor named Lars Larsen, to get a handful of dry straw to kindle his fire. He set fire to the straw while carrying it to the place where he wished to roast his corn, and it being very dry, it was all in a blaze instantly, and to save himself from being burned, the boy dropped it. The ground was covered with dry rubbish, and a big fire was instantly blazing. Plenty of help was quickly on the spot, but before the fire was extinguished Bro. Larsen's corrall and sheds were consumed. It was thought that all danger was over; but it appears that the fire smouldered unperceived, in the dry straw on the ground, and after two or three hours had elapsed, it broke forth with renewed violence some distance south of where the corral and sheds had stood, and this time burned up about thirteen tons of hay before the army of help, quickly on the spot, could extinguish it.

A meeting was called by the Bishop to obtain aid for Bro. Larsen, when some eleven or twelve tons of hay were donated, thus diminishing his loss very materially.

MORE BEE EXPERIENCE.—Brother John Morgan, agent of the NEWS at Mill Creek, writes on the 23rd, as follows, in relation to his experience in bee keeping:

"I sent for a hive of bees by W. D. Roberts last winter. I have had one swarm come off since I got them; they swarmed about the 17th of June. I weighed the hive last night, Aug. 23rd '70, deducting the weight of the hive and bees, leaving ninety-three pounds of honey. I also had Bro. Putnam transfer my old swarm, into Kidder's patent hive, about six weeks ago. When he transferred them he took about thirty-five pounds of honey from them, and they have at the present time, from forty to fifty pounds in the hive, and are working in the cap boxes. I also helped Brother Birch, to weigh a young swarm of his last night, that swarmed about seven weeks ago; deducting the weight of the hive and bees there were seventy pounds of honey."

The above is encouraging, and shows that with proper attention bees are a profitable investment; and besides this, the honey thus obtained is known to be the genuine article. We hope to see bee culture become more general.

In connection with the above we may say that Brother S. H. Putnam, the bee manager, left for Provo yesterday to be at the convention of bee keepers now in session there. He will remain a few days, and can be consulted by any desirons of information on the subject of bee keeping; and will also attend to transfering if any should desire his services. This is a very good time to change bees into new and good hives. As the nights are getting cooller, the comb can be removed without danger of daubing the bees. Brother Putnam has yet a number of swarms to transfer in this city; he has already changed over forty swarms here, and we believe has given entir satisfaction.

Died.

In this city, Aug. 25, 1870, William Burton, aged 72 years. He embraced the gospel in England in 1845; emigrated to Salt Lake city in 1852, and was respected by all who knew him.
