SUNDAY.

A new church will be built in Hader-mo, Denmark.

A new church is to be built in Mota.

The Rosby Institute in the little city of Hadermoen seems to be quite success.

The Maschinen brewery has now been rebuilt after the fire which destroyed it some time ago.

Wolves are very numerous in Norwich, and many cattle are being killed by them.

The almanac for 1894, which has just been published, contains the new regulations for the sky.

Many petitions from conscripts who wanted to emigrate to America were examined at the last vestment meeting.

Captain C. G. W. Wenzelius of the Göta artillery has been appointed chief of the Stockholm artillery corps.

The grand wedding was celebrated by H. Lundberg, a prominent merchant of Göteborg.

Mrs. Victoria Appelquist of Land-holm has been appointed teacher of sight at a public school in Naples,

Italy.

As in the last, Informations 75 free lectures to politicians and leading members of the lower house of the riksdag.

The papers have contained long ar-icles about the principles of the Swedish singer Lundquist in the United States.

A rumor that the crown prince should have said to several constituents: "Give me 20,000 men and I will teach the Norwegian rebels."

has created a great commotion.

At the death of John Peppas, of Oslo, Jamtland, thick-skinned "Grand Johannes" thousand known, were found sewed up carefully in his old hat. His relatives had no idea of banking business.

The Jeannette Africa is wishing for a Scandinavian Diamond. "What is needed now," the paper says, "is a statesman who can make up his mind what to do with Norway and Denmark, can unite both people in one."

The English papers say that the new four heavy Swedish ironclads will not be the largest war ships in the world, but the most solid of the best material.

Swedish iron, renowned the world over, has, of course, something to do with this fact.

When the Duke of Sandham-Wulff

visited Stockholm, he brought with him other one hundred men to church.

Archbishop Lundquist

repeated the sermon and the king recited the whole of it in German.

In the grand duke's audience, he came from the pulpit.

The paper quotes:

"I suffered several years ago because I took Hood's Saraparilla and after taking two bottles of it each day for six months, I was soon well again."

W. H. Bailey, F. C. D.

Hood's P.M. cure bottle, six bottles per dozen, 50c.

Oranges and lemons.

Orange juice, 50c.

Woodpecker, 50c.

Other goods.

The entire area of Sweden is now covered with the country twelve per cent, wove down to forty per cent, and uncollected land interests per cent. The net 31 per cent of interest is deemed still larger in extent than the ground already under culture.

As yet President Cleveland has not signified his successor in this, W. F.

Thomas, the popular American minister to Sweden and Norway, and the belief here is that Mr. Thomas will be his own successor. The whole Swedish people, from the king to the poor peasant, like the man who was not retained. It is believed that that man is independent, but Minister

Thomas may prove an exception to the rule. One thing is sure, and that is that Minister Thomas is not at present so popular in the Swedish capital and in account of his great work

"Sweden and the world." From this outlook it has made himself dear in every Swede's heart.
