LAWSON'S PET MEASURE.

The new park ordinance, creating a board of park commissioners to look after Liberty Park and other public grounds belonging to the city, was read and on motion of Lawson was substituted for the present ordinance on Liberty Park.

WITHOUT CHANGE.

Chapters 29 on poll tax, 30 on prisoners, 31 on procedure, 32 on inspector of provisions, 33 on public lands and 34 on railroads were then read without further amendment.

RETURNED ELDERS.

Elder O. C. Dunford, of Bloomington, Bear Lake county, arrived in this city, on Sunday night from a mission to New Zealand. He left home on November 12th, 1889. The first six weeks were spent in the Waikato district; about three months were passed in Taupo, where Elder Dunford, assisted by his wife, taught school; and, next, he labored in the Mahia district of the period of a year and a half as a traveling Elder. During this time Sister Dunford was engaged in school work at Nubaka. From Mahia district Elder Dunford was called to go to the Wairarapa district, over which he presided up to the date of his release. He reports favorably on the result of his work in the mission field, and says he was well treated by the people among whom he went. He comes back home in excellent health, his wife having preceded him a year ago.

Elders Peter M. Folkman, of Plain City, Weber county, Utah, Harry A. Bramwell of the same place, and Joseph Seely, of Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, returned on the 19th inst., from a mission to the Southern states. They left home together on Nov. 4th, 1890. Elder Seely labored in Kentucky during the entire period. The first eight months Elder Bramwell spent in Mississippi, and the remainder of the time in Kentucky. Elder Folkman devoted his whole attention to North Carolina. Each of the missionaries named report favorably. They were well treated by the people among whom they sojourned, and while in some places there was found a desire among their hearers to investigate the true Gospel, in others the utmost indifference was exhibited. The missionaries come back to Utah in the best of health, and say they have had both a pleasant and profitable time.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The territorial board of canvassers, which body has been in session since November 17th, reached the end of their task Monday, Nov. 28th, Weber being the last county canvassed. The total vote of the Territory for delegate to Congress, as will be seen by the table given below, was an excellent one, namely, 34,577, against 23,785 at the previous election—an increase of 10,812. C. E. Allen, the Liberal candidate, received 94 more votes than those cast for C. C. Goodwin two years ago.

Of the total number of votes 34,577, Rawlins received 15,201, Cannon 12,390 and Allen 6986, giving Rawlins a plurality of 2811.
