FRAGMENTS.

THERE are messages at the Western Union office for Frank Arbogast, G. R. Reed, J. T. Cherry.

THE third quorum of Elders will hold their regular meeting in the Second Ward meeting house on Monday evening, May 12, at 7:30.

T. J. ANGELL, Clerk.

THE sixteenth quorum of Seventies will hold their monthly meeting on Monday evening next, at 7:30, in the First Ward meeting house. A full attendance is desired.

JAMES VINCENT, Clerk.

IT has been definitely arranged that the formal opening of Garfield Beach for the season shall take place on Tuesday, May 20th. A number of visitors to the city as well as residents are already taking trips to the lake daily.

THOSE parties who were present at last Wednesday's session of the High Council of the Salt Lake Stake are requested to be in attendance again on Monday evening, instead of Wednesday, as it has been necessary to change the date of meeting.

BATTERY F of the First Artillery, arrived from San Francisco today and will be stationed at Fort Douglas. Battery G, Fifth Artillery, which has been stationed here, will leave in a few days for California, where they will be stationed at the Presidio.

TODAY, on South Temple Street, an express wagon ran into a buggy, tearing one wheel off, and throwing the occupants to the ground. Fortunately the gentleman and little girl in the buggy escaped serious injury. The driver of the express wagon passed on, unmindful of the damage he had wrought.

CITY SCAVENGER HOWELL gives notice to people not to put ashes, rubbish, etc., on the streets, as it is against the city ordinance. Special care will be taken to prosecute those who throw broken glass, tin cans, etc., into the roadways, in view of the fact that persons have recently been injured by this class of obstructions.

SOME of the old patrons of the late Mr. O. S. Walsh, tinner, store dealer, etc., have had the impression that the business ceased shortly after his death. This is a mistake, as it is conducted by the widow and her sons, the latter being competent workmen, at the old stand, on the south side of First South, near the corner of West Temple Street.

MISS WELLINGTON CAPTURED

Hoffheimer Gives Her Warning, but She is Overtaken.

The young lady who about two weeks ago so mysteriously left her home in Salt Lake has been in Ogden for several days and left here last night for Hot Springs.

Henry Hoffheimer and Clarence Eberly were arrested in Salt Lake on Thursday for the alleged abduction of Myrtle Wellington.

Mrs. Wellington came to Ogden for her yesterday, but the girl had left the city when the mother arrived.

Hoffheimer, who was out on bail, discovered the fact that the mother had started for Ogden and he immediately telephoned Myrtle. The young lady replied that she would go to Brigham. She left the Lincoln Hotel, a fashionable up town boarding place, and started for the depot, but she got there too late and returned a block or two, where she was met by a carriage and taken to the Springs.

At about 8 o'clock last night Chief of Police Metcalf and United States Marshall Bowman took a team and went after her.

At about one o'clock this morning word came from the Springs that the officers had started back; at about 11 o'clock, and that they had been there only about half an hour.

The roads were very rough and it was feared, however, at that time that something may have happened to them. But while the officers were anxious about the matter the girl was safe in custody in this city, having arrived here at two o'clock. The understanding was they were to take her to Edmonds hotel.

The evident purpose of taking her to the Broom hotel instead was to keep the newspapers from knowing that she had been captured. The Standard kept informed, however, and states the above as facts.

Mrs. Wellington was seen at the Lincoln hotel and she was very much distressed about her daughter's actions, but when informed that she had been captured, was much relieved and talked freely of the affair.

She said that Hoffheimer had been paying a good deal of attention to Myrtle and she had warned her daughter against him and that she had heeded the warning.

Mrs. Wellington could not understand how the man had attained such influence over her daughter. When she approached him, he said that had he intended to marry her he would have taken a more honorable course.

The girl will be taken to Salt Lake this morning, and it is said there will be some pretty strong evidence against Hoffheimer, who visited the girl here last Saturday night.—Ogden Standard.

Miss Wellington was brought down today, by an officer. She will be held as a witness against Hoffheimer.

This afternoon W. F. Hoffheimer was re-arrested. He was released yesterday on $1000 bail, and his arrest today was made because of a fear that he would jump his bonds. Mr. Critchlow asked that the bail be increased to $2000, and the order was made.

Meetings in Sugar House Ward.

Heretofore Sabbath meetings have been held in the Sugar House Ward at two o'clock in the afternoon; but in future, and until further notice, the hour of meeting will be six o'clock in the evening instead.

MAY MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

It Will be Given by the Choral Society,

IN THE LARGE TABERNACLE.

The Dates Selected are May 30th and 31st.

The Salt Lake Choral Society will give a public festival during the latter part of the month, and the inhabitants of Salt Lake and vicinity will have the privilege of enjoying one of the most glorious musical events that has transpired in the West.

The dates agreed upon are Friday and Saturday, the 30th and 31st of May.

The Society has been working steadily and effectively for months. The best musical talent of the city is included among its members, and there has been an earnest desire to have the Society give a concert that the public might enjoy a rare treat of a programme rendered by Prof. Evan Stephens and his large corps of able assistants. As an expression of this wish, the following was sent to Mr. Stephens:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
April 18th, 1890.

Evan Stephens, Esq.:

Dear Sir—We, the undersigned, having heard that you are desirous of giving a musical festival sometime during the early summer, and believing that your large chorus, and the musical works to be rendered, demand a building containing a great organ, also one perfect in acoustic arrangements and vast seating capacity, suggest that you endeavor to obtain the large Tabernacle, where everything can be given on a scale that will justify the pride of our music-loving citizens. In order that the festival may be extensively patronized, we would suggest that the profits after defraying all expenses, be devoted to some charitable purpose. We take great pleasure in subscribing ourselves to this paper, and in lending our aid to make it a complete success, believing that you will secure the best home talent.

Very respectfully your.,

W. H. Rennington,

Prof. Stephens, in harmony with the suggestion in the foregoing communication, wrote the following letter:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
April 25th, 1890.

Prof. Woodruff and Council:

Gentlemen—The enclosed document, with names attached, came to me by today's mail.

In compliance with this expressed desire of so many of our leading citizens, as well as in the interest of the Salt Lake Choral Society (representing over three hundred of Salt Lake's best vocalists and musicians), and also the advancement of music in its highest form, I hereby appeal to you to grant us the use of the only adequate building in the Territory, the large Tabernacle, wherein to hold our first "May Musical Festival."

I will guarantee that the programme shall be made up of the noblest, highest class of music; that nothing low or trivial shall be sung to desecrate the house of worship; and furthermore, that the proceeds, after all necessary expenses are paid, shall go to charitable purposes. One of these we earnestly desire to be a musical educational one, namely, the furnishing of the district schools of this city with more of the music books now generally in use, for the special benefit of children whose parents cannot well afford to purchase such text books.

Trusting that in the interest of art, charity, and the music-loving community of Utah and vicinity you will be able to concede to this request,

I remain, respectfully,
EVAN STEPHENS,
Conductor of Salt Lake Choral Society.

Today the following reply was received, granting to the Society the use of the Tabernacle and great organ for the use of the festival:

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
May 9th, 1890.

Evan Stephens, Esq., Salt Lake City:

Dear Brother—Your communication of April 25th, with enclosure addressed to you by Mayor Geo. M. Scott, J. E. Walker, Esq., W. S. McCornick, Esq., and other leading citizens, in relation to the holding of a grand concert by the Choral Society in the Tabernacle, in this city, is received.

In answering we would say that we have frequent applications for the use of the Tabernacle for the same or similar purposes, with proposals for large monetary considerations, which we have always declined; but in this instance we have decided to grant the request, on the condition named in both communications, that after the expenses are paid the balance shall be devoted to charitable purposes. We are always pleased to lend our aid in every consistent manner for the promotion of music and the kindred arts, that will tend to the elevation and instruction of the people.

You will please confer with Bishop John R. Winder, whom we have authorized to act in our behalf in making the necessary arrangements.

Very respectfully yours,
WILFORD WOODRUFF.

Three entertainments will be given—two evening and one afternoon. At the evening concerts only operatic and oratorio selections of the best order will be given.

In these at least 15 of the best soloists in Utah will have numbers. On Saturday afternoon 1000 school children will take part, and the programme will consist of choice popular songs and music. There will also be present a large and capable orchestra, in addition to the great organ, for accompaniments. Three distinct programmes will be rendered. The knowledge that the whole is be under the personal direction of Prof. Evan Stephens, and that the Choral Society will render the programmes, is sufficient assurance that everything will be of the most ennobling and enjoyable order, and will be rendered in magnificent style. The May Musical Festival will be a great event in the history of the divine art in Utah.

EXCITING EXPERIENCES.

Mobbing in South Carolina of "Mormon" Elders.

A private letter dated Clifton, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, from Elder D. T. Le Baron, now laboring as a missionary in South Carolina, addressed to relatives in Santaquin, Utah, gives the following account of the violent treatment inflicted upon him and his companion by a mob:

"It occurred March 28. Elder H. S. Tanner of Payson and myself were staying for the night with a Brother John Gordon. About 9 p.m. we heard a noise outside and Brother Gordon went out and found a man standing by the house. They talked awhile, when the stranger proposed going into the house to warm. Brother Gordon took him. He acted very strangely and told of his experience in Ku Klux times, how he had been obliged to go into Texas to keep out of the reach of the officers, etc. We did not like his appearance nor actions. While he was in the house someone whistled outside and he left and we began to prepare to go to bed. We had got nearly through family prayers, when there were kicks against the two doors and almost immediately the front door was burst in. Brother Gordon rushed to the door, but was instantly stopped by several pistols being shoved in his face and the "Mormon" preachers were ordered to come out. There were about a dozen men wearing slouched hats and with blackened faces. Half of them were armed with pistols and the others with sticks and clubs.

"Pistols in the hands of desperate fools were arguments we could not disregard, so we did just as we were commanded and were hurriedly marched about a quarter of a mile into the forest where there were others waiting to take part in the exercises. Here we were told to halt and undress. We did take off our coats but decided that we would go no further in that matter unless compelled to. We were told that they were going to whip us and compel us to leave the country; that this country belonged to them; they had just the kind of preachers that suited them and did not want any of our doctrine. When they would ask any decent questions we would attempt to reply, but our answers would condemn them. Then with terrible oaths they would shove the pistols in our faces and order us to "shut up." I never listened to more vulgar, low down talk. We were finally told that we could have twenty-four hours to get out of the country, and to skip lively, which we were glad to do. Some of them followed close behind for a ways, striking us with sticks and when we got out of reach of sticks they threw stones at us, then fired their pistols and yelled.

"Brother Gordon, being a citizen of this country, felt so aggrieved at the manner in which his home had been taken into, etc., that he went to Gaffney and consulted an attorney in regard to the matter, and was advised to bring action against the criminals. In the meantime we Elders had got several miles away. So Brother Gordon and Brother Blackwood (who was interested with him) sent word to me to meet them and their lawyer at Gaffney on a certain day to counsel them what to do. Elders H. S. Tanner, Reeve and I went and held two or three hours' consultation with them. I explained to the attorney our business in this country, and how the Elders and Saints have suffered violence in times past by lawless men but could never have their wrongs redressed nor receive protection under the constitution and laws of our country, because of the deep prejudice existing among the people of this nation, etc. I also told him he would bring coals upon his own head if he took up our cause and led us to start out and fail would add to the fury of our enemies, besides encouraging them in their lawlessness. He informed us that he would show us and the people here that there was one man who dared and would see that the "Mormons" rights should be respected in South Carolina.

"The eyes of the people were now upon us to see if we would run away in a cowardly manner or stand up for our rights. The attorney said he knew our people had been treated shamefully in the past and it was time that some of our enemies were made to feel the rigor of the law. He knew a good, solid, unprejudiced justice of the peace before whom he would bring the case, and insure success if we would advance $10 to defray his expense in starting the case for us. We finally accepted his proposition with the understanding that he and Brother Blackwood should visit the justice of the peace on the following day with the affidavits, etc., properly made out. The latter part he performed, but did not visit the justice of the peace himself. He got Brothers Gordon and Blackwood to take the papers.

"This justice of the peace it seems belonged to the Baptist Church and saw some names of his brethren as defendants in the case and quite a furore among the good Christians was the consequence. Whilst hesitating between duty and love for fellow church members the wife of the justice of the peace suddenly died and he returned the papers to Brother Gordon. So ended his part in the drama.

"We elders had to keep shaded while this was going on and could not take part in the matter. This, as we expected, emboldened the mob and they made another raid in search of Elders at Brother Blackwood's, but didn't find any. It was night, and Brother Gordon, hearing them, started across the road to Brother Blackwood's, and was shot at twice by the mob. Both of these brethren have since left the State, and we have changed our quarters 15 miles from where we were.

"The affair seems to have settled down and we are going on with our usual labors. I believe what has transpired will result in good and be the means of causing a reaction in our favor among a great many.

Rhea in "Josephine."

J. H. Sinclair, the associate manager of Rhea, who appears at the Grand Opera House next Friday and Saturday evenings, is in the city making arrangements for the appearance of the star. Mr. Sinclair is an old newspaper man. Before connecting himself with this talented actress he was first editorial writer and dramatic editor of the Buffalo Express. The great actress will be seen in her new, historical play "Josephine, Empress of the French." Every costume, property and accessory used in the great eastern productions in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston will be seen here.

A Splendid Pavement.

The cement pavement laid by Mr. Elias Morris on the north sidewalk on South Temple Street has been uncovered, and is now in use by pedestrians for a block or more east of Main Street. It fully meets the most sanguine expectations. The surface has the appearance and hardness of stone, and is as smooth as if it had been polished. It is a splendid piece of work and a great improvement.

WARDEN AMOS RETIRES.

He Will Return to His Old Home in Ohio.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURTS.

A Hackman Arrested on a Serious Charge.—Other Notes.

Shortly after U. S. Marshal Parsons assumed the duties of his office, he placed Captain Amos, of Ohio, in charge of the penitentiary as warden, and he has since occupied that position. Today, however, Mr. Amos tendered his resignation as warden to the marshal, and it was accepted. If there were reasons other than a desire on the part of Captain Amos to return to his old home in Ohio, they have not been made public. The marshal has made Emery Ward, a guard, acting warden, till it is decided who shall occupy the position.

A FINE BUSINESS.

An Enterprise That is Making Itself Felt.

About three years ago the Burton-Gardner Company started business in this city. Its lines then were sewing machines, combination fence, wire mattresses, etc. Trade rapidly increased, and last August the company launched out with a lumber yard. Now a new saw and planing mill has been placed in, and the company has the largest grounds of any similar organization in town. At the corner of Eighth South Street and the State Road, two and a half acres are completely occupied in the business and over 50 men and 8 teams are employed. Four fence machines are in constant operation to meet the demands for the combination fence, both city and farm. During the past three months over $10,000 worth of fencing alone has been sold.

Last fall a two-story brick building 40x80 feet was built for the mattress factory, and now a portion of it will have to be removed to the two-story building, 40x110 feet, which has just been erected. In the wire mattress department six machines are steadily working, and a vast quantity of mattresses is manufactured weekly. They are coming into such general use that at this rate the company has to look sharp to fill its orders.

In the planing and saw mill the most modern machinery is being put in place, and will be in full operation in a few days. Sash, doors, mouldings, rustic, and everything necessary in woodwork for building will be furnished.

The motive power for propelling the machinery is electricity, supplied by the street railway company. At present a 15-horse motor is running, and a 25-horse is to be added in a few days.

The enterprise that has been exhibited in the management of the company's business is most commendable, and has brought its fruit in the marked prosperity that has attended all its transactions.

An Accident.

Last evening, shortly before 6 o'clock, an old gentleman named August Bachman, employed at the Union Pacific depot, met with a severe accident. He was wheeling some old iron on a barrow, when the large team owned by the railway company came tearing up between the two buildings where Mr. Bachman was. They had broken away, and were going at a high rate of speed, with the doubletrees bouncing at their heels. Mr. Bachman did not notice the runaways till they came upon him. He was knocked down and trampled on, and one of the animals fell on him. The wheelbarrow was broken to pieces. Mr. Bachman was hurt in the face and about the body, the flesh was torn in particular off the back of his hands, and one leg was hurt when the horse fell on him. His fellow-workmen released him from his perilous position under the frightened animals, and he was taken home and cared for. He is bruised badly, but his injuries are not regarded as dangerous.

The European Excursion.

Quite a number of people are availing themselves of the opportunity afforded for a trip to Europe, by the low rate offered by Messrs. Spence and Rossiter, for their excursion which starts on the 31st instant. The steamship companies have given notice that travel over the ocean is very heavy this season; therefore it will be to the advantage of those who are going to make the fact known early, that there may be no question about getting suitable accommodations.

Another Long Run.

The 21st Ward branch of electric street car service has been joined to the new track which reaches to Eighth South on Main street, where it forms a junction with the Utah Central Railway. Thus a continuous run is made from the vicinity of the cemetery to within one block of the southern limit of the city. The company show commendable enterprise, and the service gives good satisfaction to the public.

For the cure of inflamation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh after all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. B. Hamlin, of Lemore, Cal., says a few dozen bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which he sold there created such a demand for the remedy that he could not well get along without it. No one can fully appreciate the real value of this remedy until they have given it a trial. Those who use it find it so much superior to any other remedy they have ever tried that they recommend it to their friends, and that is what makes it so popular. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

E. W. Potter, the post master at Elm Creek, Neb., says he has personal knowledge of several cases of rheumatism, in that vicinity, that have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, after other remedies were used without benefit. He has sold it at his drug store there for five years and says he never knew it to fail, that "any customer who once uses Chamberlain's Pain Balm will have nothing else instead." For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.
