New York, Feb. 2 .- At last the jury that is to try Harry K. Thaw for the nurder of Stanford White is complete and the prospects are good that the taking of testimony will begin Monday, to which day the court adjourned after yesterday's session. There was some to which day the count case yesterday's session. There was some talk in the court after adjournment, talk in the court after adjournment, talk in the court after adjournment, was prompted by a request of Dist, was prompted by a request of the tales-maining in the last panel be instructed to be in court Monday; but in making the request, Mr. Jerome said he did not expect further delay. Later it was thought that the request for the tales-men was simply a precautionary move-ment, as Mr. Jerome intended to con-time his searches of the records of the furymen during the adjournment. Whether the jury as now constituted will stand or not, depends on this in-vestigation.

will stand or not, depends on weight of the vertication. It is believed that the case of the state against Thaw will be quickly presented, but in his statement just before adjournment, Mr. Jerome indisected that it would be even briefer than expected. "I would like to say," declared Mr. Jerome, "that the case of the people will be ready on Monday morning and that the people will open and close on Monday morning. I say this that the defense may have its case ready to follow."

this that the defense may have its case ready to follow." This was taken to indicate that the district attorney intends to open the prosecution with the bald establishment of the fact that Thaw killed White, and the fixing of the time and place. It is thought that he will put on three or four witnesses, and that one or more of them, probably the policeman to whom Thaw surrendered and the sergeant of the tenderion station who took Thaw's pedigree, will testify as to Thaw's ap-parent sanity.

parent sanity. The heat of battle will be on the re-buttal testimony after the defense has met the opening testimony presented met the opening testimoly presented by the prosecution. Mr. Hartridge has summoned over 50 witnesses. Many of these may never be at the trial, it is expected that Mr. Hartridge will attempt to show that Thaw was insane at the time he killed White and the district attorney will have a chance to call his allenists who have been in constant attendance dur-ing the selection of the jury. The de-fense in turn will be able to bring on their corps of experts in mental dis-ceases.

their corps of experies an energy of the fury choosing Thaw watched every move-ment of the representatives of the peo-ple as well as of his own counsel. He was keenly alert to each question ask? ed by Mr. Jerome or by Mr. Garvan, the assistant. Each falesman, as he took the witness chair for examination, was scrutinized closely by the prisoner. The mother of the accused man was not present, but his two slaters, the pris-oner's wife, and May McKenzle were sitting near him and all of them joined him in the close scrutiny of the tales-men.

men. Thaw expressed satisfaction when the jury was filled, saying, "Well, I am glad that part of the business is over." He is apparently keen for the real fight to begin. He expects to go free as a result of the trial, and his accounts for his eagerness to begin. While none of the plans of the defense have been made public, it is generally thought that Thaw will take the witness in his own defense.

SENATORS PAY TRIBUTE TO GORMAN'S MEMORY.

Washington, Feb. 1.-Senators paid tribute today to the memory of the late Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland. All business for the day was suspended at 2:30 o'clock, according to a special order, and eulogies were de-livered expressing the profound sorrow and regret of the senate at the death of the Maryland senator. Previous to this order many bills of minor importance were passed, includ-ing the salaries of city mail carriers, making the first year's salary $600, with an annual increase until a maximum of $1,200 has been reached. Another bill passed increases the pension of all In-dian war survivors from $8 to $10, per month actual proceedings without a further opportunity to plead with Thaw's attor-neys. At his request, therefore, Justice Fitzgerald ordered all talesmen who have not yet been examined to be in court Monday morning ready for jury service in case any are needed. Mr. Jerome then announced that if there should be no change in the situation in the meantime the state would proceed to place all its direct testimony before the jury at the Monday morning ses-sion. The defense was notified to be in readiness to proceed by Monday after-noon.

"We are entirely satisfied with the jury," said Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's leading counsel, tonight, and he added the intimation that he would not consent to any further alterations of the personnel. tain.

The selection of the twelfth juror

The selection of the twelfth juror came as a complete surprise at the end of a long and tedious day-the eighth of the trial-and immediately after this last member of the trial panel had been sworn in Justice Fitzgerald adjourned court until 10:30 o'clock Monday morn-ing. The state will then introduce such witnesses as are necessary to prove that Stanford White was shot and killed by Harry K. Thaw on the Madison Square roof gar-den the night of June 25 last. In an-nouncing that the introduction will not require more than one session of the court Mr. Jerome is evidently of the opinion that the cross-examination of the state's witnesses as to the actual events associated with the tragedy may not be very extensive.

events associated with the tragedy may not be very extensive. From the questions which have so persistently been put to the talesmen by Thaw's attorneys as to any prejudice against the defense of insanity, it is at last generally conceded that a plea of emotional insanity will be the main reliance of the young defendant. This probably will lead to a cross-question-ing of the state's witnesses as to any

At the noon recess Mr. Jerome made another un-successful attempt to gain his end. Until the excitement attending the completion of the panel late in the afternoon there had been but one in-cident of note in the courtroom. This was a sensational move by Asst. Dist. Atty. Garvan, who today continued to inquire of the talesmen if they had been approached or spoken to about the case in any way since being sum-moned as possible jurors. One of the talesmen at the afternoon session adindiced as possible jurits. One of the talesmen at the afternoon session ad-mitted that he had spoken with sev-eral persons who sat near him in the courtroom. He was not personally acquainted with them,

SEIZING OLEOMARGARINE. St. Louis, Feb. 1.-The seizure of large quantities of oleomargarine was begun by internal revenue officers yesterday and continued today. More than 1,000 pounds of the product have been confiscated. De-livery wagons of dealors are being stop-ped in all parts of the city and when packages of "oelo" are found the driver is asked to produce orders showing that the customer has distinctly ordered oleo. If such orders are not shown, the oleo is seized. The internal revenue commission-er has ruled that only when the con-tents of a tax-paid package have been bargained for and sold in advance can small packages be removed for delivery without a violation of the law.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of January 31, 1907, the total debt, less cash in the treas-ury, amounted to $927,441,206, which is a decrease for the month of $7,659,-571. This decrease is largely due to is a decrease for the month of $7,659,-571. This decrease is largely due to the decrease of cash during the month. The debt is recapitulated as follows: Interest-bearing debt, $922,020,560; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $1,095,745; debt bear-ing no interest, $1,322,150,421. This amount, however, does not include $1,134,700,864 in certificates and treas-ury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash on hand, which is held for their redemption. The cash in the treasury is classified as follows:
