March 21, while the vessel was plow-ing through tropic seas en route from Tabiti to San Francisco. When the Marinosa arrived in port the officers reported the disappearance of Blahme and the circumstances sur-rounding seem to indicate that nor-vous, worried and examplerated be-cause his dough would not rise, the chief baker committed suicide. According to statements by helpers in the kitchen, despite Slahme's atmost efforts, he found his bread heavy and unsatisfactory. Unable to account for the action of the yeast, Slahme is said to have remarked that if the next batch was no better he would jump overboard. The following morning the baker was missing. That outdoor exercise is needed by the American people. That's all very well, but how can people with theumatism fol-low that advice? ### CHILD COUGHS UP A TACK.

Chardon, O., April 8.-Elton Purker, 6 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Parker, has coughed up a carpet tack that had laid imbedded near his jung that had laid imbedded near his lung for three years. It is one of the strang-set medical cases on record. That the sharp tack in its downward course had not form the delicate links, caused inflammation and ended the boy's life, is a source of wonderment. Although none the worse for his experience, Eiton says he is glad the tack is out. It was just three years ago when Eliton sat on the floor playing. A car-pet had just been put down. He apied a bright tack near him, and baby-like it went to his mouth.
